

Houses For Rent

7-room, modern, with barn and chicken house. $29.00 per month.
4-room, furnished, with barn and chicken house. $12.00 per month.
5-room, close in. $15.00 per month.

Choice Homes For Sale

7-room Bungalow, nearly new, large lot 100 x 150, barn and chicken house. $2000.00. Easy terms.
5-room House, almost new, good location. $1575.00.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP GENERAL REAL ESTATE Lakeview : Oregon

More Bargains

Just received, for quick sale, some of the best Valley Land at the following bargains, viz., $12.50 per acre:

80 Acres in Section 10, Township 39, Range 19				At $12.50 Per Acre
320	"	22	39
80	"	22	39
240	"	28	39
160	"	26	38

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY MARCH 6, 1913.

Rainier made Lakeview famous. Everybody is buying it. Buying what? Cloud's chewing taffy.

L. P. Klippel and wife yesterday came down from their home at Summer Lake.

C. L. Berraff was a welcome visitor in the city this week from his ranch at Viatillas in Long Valley.

H. L. Chandler, the Northern Stage contractor, was a business visitor in the city the first of the week.

The famous Spencer Sweet Peas and other choice flower seeds for sale at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

The Teneup Club of the Rebekah lodge will meet tomorrow, Friday, afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Simmons.

County Clerk F. W. Payne Saturday issued a license for the marriage of Edwin C. Woodward and Ida S. Moore, both of Paisley.

Watch for our display of Easter Novelties and Easter Candies. The largest and finest display ever shown here. Cloud's Kandy Kitchen.

Mrs. Joe Bertrand who has been residing in Lakeview, last week returned to Fort Bidwell to join her husband who is employed in the Indian schools at that place.

The income tax amendment has become effective by proclamation of Secretary Knox. This is the first amendment to the Constitution since the abolition of slavery.

Mr. Maude Rambo passed through Lakeview this week on her way to Warner Valley where she has extensive land and stock interests. She spent the winter in Oakland.

Alfred Boorse, the genial painter, was made happy last Thursday by the arrival in his home of a handsome 12 pound baby boy. Dr. Everett is in attendance and reports both mother and son as doing nicely.

J. T. Flook, the Rock Creek stockman, arrived in Lakeview last week on his return home from Selma, Calif., where he and his wife spent the winter. Mrs. Flook returned home via Winnemucca, Nevada.

J. F. Hanson last week shipped in a trio of blooded turkeys and a pure bred bore from California. They were taken to his West Side Point ranch where amongst other things Mr. Hanson will begin raising thoroughbred stock.

Mrs. Bateholder, wife of attorney J. M. Bateholder, returned home last Sunday evening from Albany where she recently accompanied her mother, Mrs. Snelling, on return home after spending the winter in Lakeview.

Yesterday was the regular date for the bi-monthly session of county court to convene, but owing to the absence of County Commissioners Anderson and Wakefield at that time, the March term will not set until Monday the 17th.

Thomas McCulley, who recently returned to Cedarville from a Santa Rosa Hospital, was compelled to return to a warmer climate owing to health conditions. He expects to remain in southern California until late in the Spring.

J. P. McAuliffe this week went over to Merrill to look after his sheep. Snow still covers the ground in the lava beds and hence it is necessary to feed the sheep. Hay is now quoted at $12.50 per ton on the feeding yards in that section.

The Examiner is advised this morning that at a regular meeting of the council of New Pine Creek last night liquor licenses were granted as follows: N. A. McCurdy and Mr. Thomas. The message also stated that another session would be held today when two more licenses would be allowed, they being for Crumley and Williams each.

Guy Angstead is now employed in the post office to assist with the handling of the mails. Postmaster Ahlstrom informs the Examiner that the mail business is exceedingly heavy and that there is a decided increase in all classes over that of a year ago. He says the parcel post has added considerable labor to his job and that this branch of the business is steadily increasing.

The latest scandal that Klamath Falls has added to its list is that it has developed into a rendezvous for gamblers. It is reported by one of its newspapers that games of chance have been in operation almost incessantly in the town and that one of the prominent business men has lost all his money besides gambling off a portion of his stock which was used for collateral while the game would be in progress.

House for rent, apply T. E. Bernard.

Miss Ethel Bailey is now employed in the Cloud Kandy Kitchen.

Mrs. Deila Cobb was a departure on Monday morning's stage for Mud Creek.

Furnished house on Water Street for rent. See G. L. Holbrook, 127-14

Al Farrow came down from Paisley this week to attend to business matters the county seat.

Mrs. W. Hayden Fisk returned last Thursday evening from an extended visit in Portland.

The person who borrowed a spring seat for a Winona wagon will please return the same to J. H. Auten.

Now is the time to use Chloride of Lime. Get it in one pound—air tight cans at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

F. A. Fitzpatrick, superintendent of the ZX ranch, came down to Lakeview last week on his regular monthly visit.

Wm. Woods, son of Porter B. Woods of the West Side, returned Saturday from Los Angeles to take up residence on his West Side homestead.

Mrs. T. H. Cloud and daughter departed Tuesday morning for Woodland, Cal. where they will visit with Mrs. Cloud's sister, Mrs. Harry Cannon.

Andy Foster and Spencer with their hounds are making the wildcats scarce. They got a fine one Sunday, says the Summer Lake correspondent in the Silver Lake Leader.

Mr. Ede, the well boring man, who has been spending several days in this city, returned last week to his claim near Butte. Mrs. Ede and daughter accompanied him on his return.

A. F. Firmin, representative of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company, was here last week from Tacoma. He left a check for $4,530.41 with Sheriff Snider for the 1912 taxes on the company's holdings in Lake County.

Ft. Bidwell News: Mrs. Peter Post, of Lakeview, who is here on a visit to her parents, and receiving medical attention, is rapidly regaining her health. Dr. C. E. Leithead, our local physician, is prescribing for her.

N. A. McCurdy came up Saturday from New Pine Creek. Mrs. McCurdy left Tuesday of this week to take up permanent residence with her husband in the State Line town. Dr. Fisk and wife are occupying the McCurdy residence in Lakeview.

Governor West vetoed the superior court bill abolishing the office of County Judges and to fill the vacancies with a third commissioner. He approved the bill increasing the number of district attorneys allowing one for each county of the state.

The first dance and social to be given tomorrow evening in the I. O. O. F. hall under the auspices of the Encampment Order promises to be a great social success. All members and families affiliated with the subordinate lodge and its branches are expected to be present.

J. F. Hanson last week shipped 14 head of stock horses to Reno. After reaching that place Mr. Hanson received the sad news of the death of a sister in Illinois, and from there he continued to Los Angeles. It is thought likely that his sister's death will again call him to his former home.

Mrs. Annie Chandler Sessions, mother of C. D. Sessions, of this city; J. O. Sessions and Mrs. Anna Harris, of Reno; Mrs. Celia Limberger, E. P. L. H., and A. H. Sessions, of Ft. Bidwell, Cal., died in Reno, Nevada March 3. The deceased lady was aged 84 years and 14 days, and was a native of Vermont.

C. C. Gott, co-operative observer of this station, was in last week from his ranch a few miles northwest of town. He stated that last Thursday night the mercury dropped to zero at his place, which was the coldest period since early in January when the thermometer registered 8 degrees below. That was the coldest spell of the winter and lasted but a few days.

G. F. Arthur was in town Tuesday from the West Side. He expressed himself as being very much pleased with weather conditions. He says the present thaw is taking the snow off to the best advantage as all the moisture is going into the ground. Owing to the amount of snow in the mountains he anticipates an abundance of moisture for this season's hay and grain crops.

For the second time in the last 15 years congress overrode a President's veto, when the house re-passed over Taft's veto the Webb bill prohibiting shipments of intoxicating liquors into "dry" states. The Vote in the House stood 214 to 95. The measure was re-passed by the Senate and the bill is now a law.

Rainier on draught at the Hotel bar.

Wanted three thoroughbred White Plymouth Rock roosters. Box 615, Lakeview, Oregon.

J. C. Oliver has 10 head of mules and horses for sale, also a few choice milch cows.

The late Joaquin Miller died without having left a will. His estate is estimated at $11,000.

Willis Scammon Tuesday came over from Warner Valley and left on Wednesday morning's train for San Francisco.

Deputy District Attorney Farrell and Attorney L. F. Conn were in New Pine Creek Tuesday attending to legal business.

It is reported that State Superintendent of Public Instruction, L. R. Alderman will resign from his present office to accept the City Superintendency of the Portland schools.

While as a general rule bills enacted by the Legislative Assembly become laws in May, this year. It will be about June 6 or 7 before the bills finally become laws until 90 days after the adjournment of the Legislature.

The many friends of Sib Harbor will be glad to learn that she returned to Lakeview Tuesday evening from Plymouth, Cal. where she has been spending the winter. She will soon resume residence in her house on Dewey street now occupied by W. F. Groh and family.

C. O. Roe, formerly manager of the Eller Music House store at Lakeview, left Tuesday morning for Ashland via Klamath Falls. He will later go to Sacramento where he will be joined by Mrs. Roe and son. He expects to return to Lakeview in about six weeks with a supply of pianos.

The city council met in its chambers Tuesday evening to dispose of routine work coming before the regular monthly meeting. No special business appeared before the meeting other than auditing incurred bills. A sine die adjournment was had to reconvene some time during the month.

Mrs. Walter Stoddard, (colored) was a departure on this morning's train for Reno. She brought herself into the limelight Tuesday evening by taking a few shots at her husband at their residence in North Lakeview, but out of the fact that her spouse refused to enter a complaint against her she could not be held on the charge.

Rainier on draught or in bottles at the Brewery.

Fresh line of Lowney's Chocolates just arrived at Cloud's. The very best.

J. W. Wheeler was in Saturday from the Dry Creek dam purchasing supplies for the construction gang.

Alfred Smith of the Arcadia tonight is featuring Owen Meredith's poem, "Lucile" in three reels.

Announcement has been made by the Klamath Falls Elks that the second annual rodeo will be held in the early part of July.

Mrs. Jonathan Bourne, wife of ex-Senator Bourne of Oregon, returned to Portland for the purpose of starting divorce proceedings against her husband, according to the Portland papers.

Miller and Lux are feeding about 1600 head of beef cattle in the valley, and have about the same number of stock cattle here, says the Surprise Valley record.

The duck season in this county will close next Saturday. Owing to the continued cold weather local sportsmen were cheated out of all shooting this Spring.

Franklin McVeagh, secretary of the treasurer is the only member of President Taft's cabinet who will remain in Washington, all other members and the president having left the national capitol immediately after the inaugural ceremonies. He has a handsome home in Washington which he will retain.

F. E. Whitney, of Spokane, Wash. postal inspector, was in Lakeview this week and consummated a ten year lease with Heryford, brothers for the present postoffice quarters in their new building. Mr. Whitney expressed himself as being well pleased with conditions of the local office and greatly surprised at the large and commodious location. The rooms are larger than the specifications called for, and the vault is another valuable asset that was not requested when the bids were made.

Cost for the mileage and per diem of Senators and Representatives and for clerks and stenographers of the Legislature totaled $45,415.80, according to the figures which have been prepared by James E. Allison, of the Secretary of State's office. This does not include such clerks in the House. The Senate mileage and per diem for members amounted to $5243.15, while in the House it amounted to $10,009.65. Senate clerks received $11,736 and House Clerks $18,427.

Closing Out Sale

SHOES
$1.75 "Gym" Shoes
best rubber soles.. $1.25
1.50 "Gym" Shoes $1.15
3.00 Elk Shoes,
now $2.15
2.85 Elk Shoes..... $1.95
2.75 Elk Shoes..... $1.85
2.50 Heavy Work
Shoes..... $1.75

HATS
$3.00 Gordon Hats $2.15
Splendid patterns and all sizes in Hats and Caps
regular $1.25 to $2.00
85c

SUITS
"Benjamin" Suits values up to $25.00
$16.00

OVERALLS
$1.50 Lined Duck
Coats..... $1.15
1.50 Sweet Orr yellow
ticket pants $1.15
1.25 Sweet Orr
non-shrinking
overall..... $1.00
1.00 Overall..... 85c
90c Overall..... 75c

SOX
50c Shawknit Sox..... 35c
35c Shawknit Sox..... 20c
15c Sox bl'k and tan
..... 3 for 25c
Bargains in underwear,
Union and two-piece, light and heavy.

GLOVES
$3.50 Auto Gloves $2.25
2 50 Hand Sewn Gloves... $1.75
2.25 " Gloves... $1.50
2.00 " Gloves... $1.40
1.75 " Gloves... $1.25
1.50 " Gloves... $1.10
1.25 " Gloves... 90c

Britten & Erickson

ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to the delay in our new quarters being finished we are compelled to open our New Spring Goods at the old place of business and invite your inspection of our various lines. The first shipment of our La Vogue suits are now on display, also Queen Quality Shoes and new line of Childrens' Shoes. All our drygoods will arrive in a very short time. Watch for New Goods.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.