PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

There is everything here to make this home a model one, even to a sleeping porch in the second story. There is a full basement under the entire house. First story nine feet, second story eight feet. Size 24 by 20 feet over main part. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,150.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will supply Saxton's book of plans, entitled "American Dwellings." It contains 254 up to date designs of cottages, bungalows and residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000.

IF IT COSTS MORE TO LIVE
IT COSTS MORE TO OVERLOOK THE ADVERTISEMENTS

WHEN Things cost more, opportunities to buy economically are worth more. No housewife in this city, who feels and knows the slightest hardship on account of high prices, can afford to remain blind to the weekly opportunities of saving offered to her by the advertising merchants. These alive merchants are often able, through effecting quick and large sales of an article, to cut the selling price to very nearly cost price. The housewife should see that when they do this the volume of quick sales will always repay them. Watch Examiner Ads week by week. It pays.

BOOSTS FOR BETTER ROADS.

Forward march—out of the mud.

Good roads are a business necessity.

No road is so expensive as a bad road.

Jolts and blows against the bumps and into the ruts destroy everything that runs over the roads.

The insistent demand for improved roads comes from the farmers and the people in the rural districts.

The man who hauls any load over a wagon road should figure the cost of transportation.

Build roads for the traffic that will pass over them.

GOOD ROADS MAXIMS FOR YOUR CAMPAIGN.

Put the National Demand into a Few Well Chosen Words.

The following good roads maxims have been prepared by an official of the organization which is promoting a highway across the continent, to be known as the ocean to ocean road:

If you want to know if good roads are a good thing ask a horse.

Good roads promote prosperity; bad roads provoke profanity.

In considering roads remember that there are few towns that look so good to the farmer that he will kill his horse to get there.

Was it in your township that the ignoramus pulled the sod into the middle of the road?

Good roads will increase health, happiness, education, religion and morality.

Good roads will decrease profanity, discouragement, back taxes, sheriff's sales, sour grapes and grouches.

Improved roads are a good trade mark for any community.

Good roads invoke a blessing upon any people who build them.

Good roads will keep people in the country and will bring city people to the fresh air.

Did you ever hear this? "The roads were so bad that the only way he could get to town was by telephone."

The good roads campaign is an old one, but there is such a thing as putting old truisms into such new form as to make them take on meaning for the first time.

Many an article has been advertised into fame and popularity by a catchy phrase, while many a man has found his reputation established or enhanced by a few words rightly joined.

The man who can put the national cry for good roads into a few well chosen words which carry the "punch" with them and absolutely refuse to be forgotten will be deserving of as much praise when the campaign is at an end as any man who goes out and actually performs the manual labor in the highway.

Novel Wager

Leading a 22-year old donkey and wearing a kahki uniform a man is now tramping from Portland, Me., to Portland, Oregon, to settle an election bet on Theodore Roosevelt. The distance Anderson will lead the donkey is 4300 miles and he expects to complete the journey in eight months.

Under the provisions of the wager he must call at the White House and greet the new president and also call on the governor of every state through which he passes.

Budget is Large

With the additional filing of the Governor of the Panama-Pacific appropriation bill, a bill providing for the charitable home in Portland, for the Oregon Historical Society and for the care of wayward girls, the total amount of appropriations as officially compiled for the session of the Legislature is $5,309,725.75.

Of this amount, $293,199.65 carries emergency clauses on the bills representing such appropriations. Appropriation bills that do not carry emergency clauses represent a total of $2,074,727.10.

Short Course Successful

The first short course for farmers and stockraisers ever held by the Oregon Agricultural College away from Corvallis has lately been finished at Burns, which has aroused that part of the state to the benefit of this work. The interest was high and the attendance large. The subjects treated were stock raising general agriculture and domestic science.

One family rode nearly 100 miles in a wagon to attend and great good resulted from this "missionary" work by the college. All went away very much interested and highly appreciative of the work done.

Bright Prospects

Considerable more moisture has fallen in the valley up to this time than fell last year, and with a few late rains all crops should be the best. The constant cold weather has kept the trees back from budding, which insures the fruit against early frosts and is promising of a good fruit yield. Heavy snow is banked up in the mountains which will later provide water for irrigation, and all conditions considered this should be a prosperous season in general.

Oregon fared well in appropriations from Congress. In the Rivers and Harbors bill a total of $3,123,890 is given over to improvements in this state, which is divided between the Columbia and Snake river and the different harbors. Also $1,139,000 is appropriated for this state in the public buildings bill.

Oregon's best babies may have a chance to be exhibited at San Francisco's world fair in 1915. Provision has been made for an exposition of eugenics at the State Fair next Fall with the idea of getting the best babies of various ages which may later be entered in a national contest at San Francisco. Other states are taking similar steps.

NO GASOLINE

A Player Piano without a few new rolls from time to time is almost as bad as an auto without gasoline. Player piano owners owe themselves new music occasionally.

Upon receipt of a five or ten dollar bill we will prepay to you at New York prices a fine selection, including your favorites if mentioned. State if your player is 65 or 88 note and make. Appress

YOUR BABY'S HEALTH depends on its nourishment

In nature's original plan, infants were nourished by mother's milk, but in our modern civilization this is often neither possible nor even advisable.

Falling the natural food, one instinctively turns to cow's milk, but this cannot always be used, as owing to its variable quality and the heavy, indigestible curd, the delicate stomach of a young baby cannot always digest the nutriment which it undoubtedly contains.

In such cases

BORDEN'S Malted Milk

IN THE SQUARE PACKAGE

meets every requirement.

It contains six times the nutrition of ordinary milk, but the curd being broken up by digestive agents in the malt every particle of nourishment is easily absorbed by the very youngest.
