G. Dunlap traveling salesman for the Pacific Nursery Co., of Portland was in Lakeview the first of the week. He took several orders from local people for nursery stock to be delivered this fall.

J. D. Venator, W. F. Grob and Tim McCarty yesterday made a fishing trip to the Drews dam. Being that they returned very late yesterday evening the Examiner is unable to vouch for their catch.

The civic pride is well manifested in our city these days. Nearly everybody is adding something new or improving the old about their residences and business places, all of which goes far toward making the city beautiful.

Earl Cogburn is reported very ill of pneumonia at his mother's home a few miles below town. Dr. J. Irving Russell is attending him, and while his condition is considered quite serious all hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Numerous fishing parties Sunday hied to the various streams tributary to the lake in search of the finny tribe. While several fish were caught during the day, most anglers reported rather poor luck especially those who went to Drews creek.

Major J. F. A. Strong, of Juneau, has been selected for appointment as Governor of Alaska, to succeed Walter E. Clark, resigned. Major Strong is the editor and publisher of the Daily Enterprise at Juneau. He has been a resident of Alaska for 14 years.

Gus Schlager is having numerous repairs and improvements made at the Mineral Springs bath house below town. Among other changes he is having private baths with showers installed. Ed. Detrick of the Bernard Hardware Store is doing the plumbing work.

Amor A. Tussing of Brownsville and ex-Judge H. H. Hewitt of Albany have been in Salem comparing the present game laws with the new game code enacted by the last legislature. They asserted that the referendum will be invoked against the game code. It will require 6,312 signatures to invoke the referendum.

A card was received this week in Lakeview from Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Wilcox, who last week went to San Francisco, stating that Mrs. Wilcox underwent an operation there last Saturday for a growth on her ankle. They sent the good news that the operation was entirely successful and that they would likely be home in about ten days.

Professor Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States Weather Bureau since 1895, an appointee of the Cleveland administration, was summarily removed from office by President Wilson. His resignation had recently been accepted to take effect July 31, but after an investigation of alleged irregularities the president removed him from office.

B. R. McKimens, deputy game warden for this district, and wife left Sunday for Klamath Falls by private conveyance. Mrs. McKimens will visit in the Falls while her husband goes to Portland to attend a meeting of deputy wardens called by State Warden Finley, which will convene today. The purpose of the convention is to discuss various state conditions pertaining to the game commission and to adopt new and further plans for carrying out game protection.

S. C. Campbell, who has supervision over the construction work of the O. V. L. dam on Drews creek, was in and spent Friday night in town. Mr. Campbell reports that work is progressing very well and that completion of the work is well in sight. In fact he thinks that the dam will be finished within sixty days.

Sam Bailey, Chas. Morris and L. D. Morris returned Sunday from a several days fishing trip on Dry and Drews creeks on the West Side. They went out before the fish were "running" good but had the perseverance to stay until they succeeded in making a nice catch. They have the thanks of numerous friends who were not forgotten upon their return.

Wm. Nixon returned Tuesday evening from a few days fishing trip on Mud Creek. "To be candid," said Bill, "I caught 12 fish." Knowing that Bill's veracity is beyond question the Examiner man took him at his word without the fish being produced to substantiate the statement. He thinks it a trifle too early for the best fishing in Mud Creek.

Workmen are now adding the finishing touches to the Heryford building. Carpenters under the supervision of Andy Underwood are putting the cornice on the building, while the tiling at the entrances is being set as well as the marble trimming is being placed under the windows. When completed these finishings will add materially to the appearance of the structure.

City Superintendent O. M. Gardner of the Lakeview Schools is in receipt of a letter of thanks from the Mayor of Dayton, Ohio, acknowledging receipt of $22 that was raised by him for sufferers from the recent flood that nearly demolished that city.

Alturas Plaindealer: Dorrns Bros. sold 140 head of beef cattle this week to Mr. Martain lower country buyer. The cattle were in fine shape, have been fed all winter, and brought an average of $92.50 per head. When beef cattle bring such prices is it any wonder that the cost of living is high?

F. A. Fitzpatrick left Monday morning for the Hagin ranch in Southern California to get a car load of bulls that will be brought up to the ZX ranch in the Chewaucan Valley. He will also stop in San Francisco where Mrs. Fitzpatrick is receiving treatment for her eyes, and she will probably accompany him home.

Distinguished educators have been secured for the Summer session of the University of Oregon this year which will open shortly after Commencement and last for 6 weeks. These educators are from various parts of this country as well as from abroad; many are famous lecturers while others are noted scientists. Many special courses will be offered for teachers, advanced students and others.

Alturas New Era: At the last meeting of the board of supervisors claims were allowed to different parties for 12,000 squirrel tails. This shows that there is much good being accomplished by the 3 cent bounty, and if the work goes on at this rate they may be entirely exterminated within a few years, as it is claimed that in poisoning squirrels, only about one fourth of the animals ever picked up.

Bend is getting real progressive. It now has an I. W. W. organization. Laborers on the sewer system that is being installed in that town last week struck for a raise in pay, which was not granted by the city officials. As a result Mayor Putman received a letter signed by a Friend of the Workmen advising him to give the boys what they want or he would get blown up. The threat was also emphasized by the remark "This is no fooling; we mean business."
