J. S. Kelsay and T. R. Potts were down from Paisley the first of the week.
J. C. Oliver has 10 head of mules and horses for sale, also a few choice milch cows.
Wm. Kepple Barry was in town last week from his sheep camp at the old 70 ranch in the northern part of the valley.
Tom Sullivan, the genial landlord of the Plush Hotel was over the latter part of last week on a brief business trip.
Mrs. M. Southstone and baby left yesterday morning for Los Angeles where she will be the next few weeks with an Aunt, who will undergo an operation.
The 1650 pound Percheron stallion belonging to E. C. Thurston, J. P. Duke and other farmers down the valley was last week traded to J. C. Hotchkiss for his large Percheron stallion.
Cedarville Record: Blair Forward was over at Alturas last Monday and informed us that it is reported that Dean Duke will ship 5000 head of cattle from Modoc to Montana to run on the summer ranges.
The lives of over 100 miners were snuffed out last week by a disastrous explosion which occurred in the Cincinnati mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company near Pittsburg, Pa.
W. Z. Moss returned this week from Red Bluff, Cal., where he drove a band of horses from here a short time since. The horses were put on pasture there and will not be marketed until the haying season opens in the lower country.
Wm. Kehart came in yesterday from his ranch at Crooked Creek. He says the lambing season for their sheep has not opened yet, which is a fortunate circumstance, inasmuch as the recent cold snap has caused more or less loss of lambs.
County Assessor A. J. Foster and Dan Godsil spent Sunday investigating the fish situation on Cottonwood Creek. They said that they never got a bite which the Examiner is inclined to take as the most truthful fish story it has heard this Spring.
Attorney W. Lair Thompson, Herbert P. Welch and wife and Robt. L. Weir Friday made a trip to Paisley in the Thompson car, returning the same evening. They report the roads good north of Crooked Creek but rather rough for autoing on this side of that place.
Warren Laird Monday evening returned from a visit with his family at Santa Rosa, Cal. As soon as the schools close Mr. Laird's family will return to Warner to spend the Summer. Mr. Laird reports weather conditions rather dry in California, and as a consequence the outlook for stock is not good.
J. F. Hanson left Saturday morning for Los Angeles by way of Susanville, Calif., where some of his mules are being worked on the Fernley-Lassen Railroad. Mr. Hanson's family will accompany him on his return to spend the Summer on their West Side Point ranch. His auto is in Los Angeles and they will return by that conveyance.
The City officials have purchased a ten-acre tract about a mile southwest of the town from the O. V. L. Company to be used for a dumping ground. The tract is logically located for the purpose and will no doubt be an incentive for citizens to take more pride in ridding the town of unnecessary rubbish which heretofore had to be deposited along the public highways when hauled out of the city limits.
The north bound N.-C.-O. train was held all of Monday night at Sugarloaf hill by a rock slide covering the track at the main cut there for a distance of several feet. Tuesday a freight went from the local station, meeting and bringing back the mail which did not reach here until Tuesday evening. A number of laborers were put on the job of clearing the track with the result that everything is running smoothly again.

Mme. Sarah Bernhart recently passed up an offer of $500 a minute for thirty minutes to pose for the Edison talking pictures. Nothing less than $1300 a minute, the actress announced, would attempt her. The interview was thereby concluded.
Gilbert D. Brown, Supervisor of the Fremont National Forest returned Tuesday evening from Portland where he has been the past few weeks in the District Office in that city. Mr. Brown says that baseball is the center of interest in the Oregon metropolis at the present time.
The Lakeview High School ball team Sunday went to New Pine Creek and crossed bats with the State Line regulars. The game resulted in victory for the Highs with a score of 15 to 9. A return game will be played between the same nines on the local diamond next Sunday or the Sunday following.
We have been experiencing some disagreeable weather here since Saturday last. Frequent flurries of snow squalls accompanied by chilly winds has been the course of program, which has made it hard on young lambs. This morning is more moderate and indications seem quite favorable for a change for the better.
A runaway team caused some little excitement on the streets yesterday just before the noon hour. The horses and wagon belong to Tom Hughes. They started near the Herford building on Center street, and covered portions of Water and Main streets before they were headed into a telephone pole on Slash. A few parts of the wagon broken were the only damages done.
The James McDermott farm house near Cottonwood Creek about 12 miles southwest of town burned last week with nearly all its contents. The origin of the fire was caused by a defective flue and burned very rapidly when started. It is said that the house was uninsured. Mr. and Mrs. McDermott are temporarily located in a tent but will erect a new house immediately after the Spring farming.
Dick J. Wilcox, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Lakeview, returned Saturday evening from San Francisco where he went with Mrs. Wilcox who underwent an operation in that city. He reports that she has so far recovered as to be able to leave the hospital and that she is now visiting with Mrs. McKay, formerly Mrs. Wm. Harvey of Lakeview. Mrs. Wilcox will return home in a few days.
Mr. Geo. B. Graves, formerly of Lakeview but who left here last Summer for Portland, Oregon, writes the Examiner from Chicago stating that he and family are now comfortably located in that city, their address being 4548 Cottage Grove Ave. He writes that more building is being done in the Windy City this year than has been done in many years past. The Graves are all well, and they extend regards to their many local friends.

The Alturas New Era says J. N. Ford and Mrs. Arthur Parsons, formerly of the Fairport Inn, were married last week in that place, and that they will go to Los Angeles to live.
Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cronsmiller and Thos. S. Farrell and wife camped on Dry Creek Saturday night. They made the trip by auto and report the roads good, but stated that fishing was not so good.
The Elks' Annual Rodeo will be held July 4, 5 and 6, according to announcement made by members of the Antiered Herd who are active in the success of Klamath county's big cow-boy carnival, says the Klamath Herald.
Northwestern: Mr. W. L. Clapp, a local automobile dealer, will leave this morning for Spokane, where he goes to get a new 1913 forty horsepower Case automobile. He will drive the car himself instead of shipping it.
George Jammerthal returned Tuesday evening from San Francisco where he has been spending the Winter months. Mr. Jammerthal has quite extensive property interests in and about Lakeview and always spends the Summers here.
Klamath Falls is to hold an election May 26th for the matter of bonding the town to pay off its present indebtedness which totals about $77,000. They now have $110,000 in the treasury, the amount realized by the tax levy for the current year.
A. W. Lewis, of Harlan, Iowa, was here last week on a short visit with Attorney Thos. S. Farrell. Messrs. Lewis and Farrell are college chums and had a very pleasant reunion here. He left Saturday on his return by way of Southern California.
Norman G. Jacobson, assistant Forester of the Fremont National, returned last week from the Silver Lake country where he is superintending the planting of seeds in the Paulina Reserve. He was called back to complete some map work and will go back north in a few days.
Darnell's band has received the new tuba instrument that was purchased from the Frank Holton Co., Chicago. Professor Willits is the man who gets behind the new bass and it proves a splendid asset to the band. The boys are giving dances each Saturday night in the Wizard hall to raise funds to pay for the horn and are meeting with fairly good success.
All Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families, regardless of the number of their lodge are expected to be present at the Encampment social tomorrow night in the I.O.O.F. hall. Refreshments will be served and various amusements provided for their pleasure. The event gives promise of being the most successful social yet given under the auspices of that order.
The Lakeview-Klamath Falls auto stage season opened last Sunday between the two towns when the Southern Oregon Automobile Company's machine made the trip over as well as one going from the Lakeview Garage here. The run each way was made in about nine hours which gives indication that the roads are in fairly good condition. The second trip from here will be made today and as soon as travel justifies machines will be run daily.
A. G. Lyon, brother of Dr. J. L. Lyon of this city, is here on a visit from his home in Mason, Mich. Mr. Lyon is cashier of a Mason bank which position he has held for a number of years, and is now enjoying a well earned vacation. He is very favorably impressed with this part of the country and invested in a large tract of land near Cedarville in Surprise Valley. He will remain here about a week and will visit in California before returning home.

D. W. Bryan is in town today from his home at Clover Flat.

Prof. Rose of the Alturas High School and twenty-five of his boy pupils spent the past week end fishing on Lassen Creek. They took Sunday dinner at the Fairport Inn where they were joined by a few Lakeview people.
A contract for hauling the mail from Prairie City to Burns was recently let to Louis Wolenberg of Canyon City. The contract was let at $11,875 per year and went into effect today. Forty horses are required to handle the job.
Mrs. O. A. Morris this week spent a few days in Lakeview from Klamath Falls on her way to Silver Lake where she has relatives. Her husband was formerly connected with the Silver Lake Leader but is now employed on the Klamath Falls Northwestern.
The Harney County News reports a great influx of settlers to that section, and especially the Catlow Valley. There were 41 homestead entries filed in the Burns land office last month. There were nine homesteads filed on Catlow Valley lands in one week.
Kenneth Sherlock of Davis Creek passed through Lakeview the first of the week on his way to Silver Lake where he goes to look after one of the bands of sheep belonging to his father, Thomas Sherlock of Davis Creek. He will probably make that place his home for the next few years during which time he expects to thoroughly master the sheep business.
A change in the star mail route between Bonanza and Bly has just been announced by the postoffice department. Beginning May 1, the mail, instead of going over the mountain road, via Royston, will go over the county road, by way of Yainax. The new route is longer, but there is less mountain road to be traversed. It is also believed that more patrons can be served in this manner.
Lillian Elizabeth Wyatt Bourne was granted a divorce from Jonathan Bourne, Jr., ex-Senator from Oregon, after a hearing in Judge Gatens' court Portland. No alimony was allowed by the decree, as it was not asked. She asserted that Mr. Bourne lost his temper and berated her in the later years of their married life which treatment had been injurious to her health.
C. B. Pyle met with a quite serious accident last Sunday while driving on the Slash road a few miles west of town. While crossing a small ditch the doubletree came loose from the wagon. The horses made a sudden start pulling Mr. Pyle violently against the dash board causing a bad injury to the side of his head. A. J. Hickerson was with Mr. Pyle when the accident occurred which was fortunate as the injury he received caused intense pain, and enabled him from doing anything for a few hours.
Miss Edna Held, of San Francisco, was married last Sunday to Mr. Max A. Cohen in San Francisco. Mrs. Cohen is a niece of our townsman, Mr. J. Frankl, and she attended our schools here and in fact lived here most of her life. The groom is one of the young business men of San Francisco and is well and favorably known among the San Francisco younger set. They have established their residence in a pretty cottage in Oakland on Telegraph Avenue. The Examiner joins in extending congratulations.
