THE EASIEST LIFE

Farmers are the decided producers of the world. The farmer is the most independent man in society, has the fewest perplexities and reverses, and the greatest per cent of success—the least cause for worry and fretting. It is true he may worry, predict draughts and many disasters, do much to annoy himself, if he chooses, but no one has really less occasion for such unrest since no business is any surer of yielding a fair return for any expenditures of labor and general outlays. Yet how many turn and look with longing eyes at the merchant, and almost envy him his calling, and sometimes selling the old farm home to invest the proceeds in goods, presuming great gains will follow while the burdens and heat of the days will be unknown; but remember statistics show that at least ninety-eight per cent of the merchants fail, at least once during their career; some many times, particularly those who intend to make money quickly without any regard for moral principles. Mercantile or any confined business life is but little less than a constant round of care, perplexity, anxiety, with almost a constant expectation of sad reverses, in connection with a financial crisis.

The interests of Lakeview and the surrounding country will be better safe guarded by loyal support to an organization that is composed of representative business men and public spirited citizens who have the advancement of the country at heart. Such an organization is the life of the country and it should be first in the consideration of its members and its supporters. It should be representative, however, and not dominated by any faction. Man should speak out freely on such occasions as are of vital interest and importance, and be perfectly frank respecting the aims to attain. This country is too big for any one man to try to handle and a really representative organization will do all those to be benefitted. Such things can only be accomplished through the efforts and work of a well organized Commercial Club.

For the Damage that must result from the cold snap in the Eastern states there is regret. It is a hard jolt to the farmer of that section, as it probably means the total ruin of the fruit crop, and a very decided falling off in all other crops. It is quite likely that many people expected it, as the winter in the East was phenomenally pleasant; and the popular assumption runs that when the right sort of weather does not come in season it is more than apt to come out of season. It is the lack of this sort of thing and the equable evenness of climate in Oregon that works as an assurance against such discomfort and loss. We do not boast of this in any spirit of exultation; but it is a fact worth considering by the Eastern fellow who has reason to think now and again that the weather man does not give him a square deal.

Present times are not so hard in the office of the esteemed Commoner as they once were. Mr. Bryan is nicely fixed in the State Department at Washington, and recently the editor of the palladium of the people's liberties accepted a $14,000 a year job on the canal zone. This combination, however, looks a little hard on the office boy.

ADDITIONAL BRIEFS

Mrs. J. Q. Willits returned Friday last from Medford where she has been the past few weeks in attendance at the Grand Lodges of the Rebekahs and Circle to which she was a delegate from the local orders. While there she visited with her daughter, Mrs. W. I. Norris, and combining pleasures with her lodge duties had a most pleasant trip. Her mother, Mrs. Whorton, remained in Eugene, where she will continue her visit with relatives.

As a preliminary step toward the big Fourth of July celebration at Lakeview all boys between the ages of 6 and 14 are requested to meet at the Court House next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The boys are to cut a prominent figure in the parade, and it is desired to have every boy in Lakeview take part in making the celebration a record breaker. The Lakeview youngsters are a patriotic bunch and can be depended upon to do their part.

While unloading wool last Friday at the depot Henry Newell of the City Transfer met with a quite serious accident by falling from the top of the load to the ground striking on his head in some rocks. He received a gash in his scalp about two inches in length and other minor bruises to his body which caused him considerable pain. He had his head bandaged, however, and lost but little time from his work.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church have postponed the date for serving ice cream and cake until the day of the Fourth of July. This was to have taken place next Friday evening in the Court House square but owing to the postponement of the band dance to that date, it was considered advisable to also postpone the social, inasmuch as the band was to furnish music for the occasion. The refreshments will be served all day of the Fourth, beginning in the forenoon. The stand will be located on the Hunting corner.

The contest on the Klamath Falls Northwestern came to a close last Saturday and the grand prize, a Buick automobile, was awarded to Mrs. Ethel E. Donnelly, of District No. 2, Bonanza, who secured the greatest number of subscribers. The total number of votes she received, as published in the Northwestern, was 2,365,221. The second prizes, consisting of furniture for three rooms, were won by Miss Bertha Slater of district 1, and Miss Elma Way, of district 2. Miss Agnes Lee won the trip to Los Angeles or Seattle in district No. 1.

Jas. G. Campbell, of the Examiner office, and wife returned Friday evening from Reno where they were during the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of California and Nevada. They report having had an enjoyable trip and that the encampment was a grand success. Over 2,000 veterans of the Civil War were in attendance, and it is estimated that Reno was host to 12,000 visitors during the week. Numerous side trips and all sorts of amusements were provided for the guests and the Nevada metropolis did herself proud as an entertainer.

Receiver F. P. Cronemiller of the U. S. Land Office and son, Fred, last Thursday went to Klamath Falls to meet Mrs. Cronemiller and son, Lynn, who has been attending the O.A.C., having finished his junior year. His brother, Guy, who this year graduated in an electrical engineering course, stopped at Medford where he secured a position with the Oregon-California Power Company. Mrs. Cronemiller a few weeks since went to Corvallis to attend the commencement exercises of the O.A.C. and to incidentally visit with relatives in the Willamette Valley. At Roseburg she had the pleasure of meeting a brother whom she had not seen for 21 years.

Band Dance

The band dance which was to have taken place last Friday night at the Snider Opera House was postponed until Friday night of this week out of respect to the death of our esteemed townsman, S. F. Ahlstrom.

The management of the band is desiring of much credit for this move and the boys will doubtless profit considerably by this action. Excellent music will be furnished for the dance and it is expected that a large crowd will attend.

NEW PINE CREEK ITEMS

(By Staff Correspondent)
 Quite a number of the members of the God Fellows lodge from here attended the funeral services of Mr. Ahlstrom Sunday at Lakeview.

The visiting members and delegates who attended the Baptist Association here a few days last week said it was one of the best they had ever attended. Nothing was left undone for their comfort and pleasure and Sunday something near 175 people ate chicken dinner at the parsonage. It certainly proved a success in every way, and no one will go away with anything but praise for the hospitality shown them by New Pine Creek people. We hope to have them come again in the near future.

Rev. Dunlap, the Presiding Elder of the M. E. Church, was here for conference meeting Monday morning.

Mrs. Miller of the valley and Mrs. Jessie Carr, drove down to Mrs. Colvin's place one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Freeman entertained friends Sunday; also Mrs. D. W. Thomas, Mrs. Mattie Pollett and Mrs. Blanche Cannon entertained relatives from Surprise and Drews valleys.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Henderson of Davis Creek visited with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Bryant, and family of this place a few days last week.

Mrs. E. Keller entertained friends from Lakeview Sunday.

Don't forget to attend the rousing celebration here on July Fourth. A good time is assured all.

Judge Meloy was a Lakeview visitor last week.

Miss Mable Mulkey, of Davis Creek is clerking in the DuPont Drug Store. Mr. Cecil Taylor one of New Pine Creek substantial and influential School election was held at the New Pine Creek new school house last Monday when two trustees were elected; one to fill an unexpired term of one year and one for two years. Mr. Fred Fisher was elected for the one year term and James Vincent for the three year term. The teachers for next term were chosen and will be as follows: Mr. W. Hill, Principal and Mrs. Cora Berry, Primary. Mr. Hill is somewhat of a stranger but comes highly recommended. Mrs. Cora Berry is one of our citizens and is one of the best teachers in the state.

The Yankee Doodle show was at the Opera House two nights this week, Monday and Tuesday. They had fair sized crowds.

New Pine Creek Base Ball team will go to Davis Creek next Sunday to play the team there.

Wendt's Moving Picture Show crew took a trip to Davis Creek and showed to a fair sized house last Thursday. They expect to make regular trips twice a month.

The post office department has advertised for bids to carry the mail from New Pine Creek, Oregon to High Grade, Cal. six times a week. Bids will be received until June 27, 1913 by the Postmaster at New Pine Creek.

D. C. Berry is making several improvements on his property in New Pine Creek. He is one of those who sees a great future for our town. Our town is well located in a grove of trees far enough away from the lake to get away from the mosquitoes and the hot glare of the waters of the lake.

Miss Hazel Myers, who with her sister Alice has been working at Burns, returned home Friday to remain. Miss Alice will work for her former employe indefinitely. They came over in an auto.

Silver Lake Items

(Silver Lake Leader)
 It is rumored that the northern stage is to change time in the near future. Instead of the mail coming in in the evening, it will arrive about two o'clock at night.

P. A. Gruber returned from Klamath Falls last week, where he purchased 324 head of yearling cattle. The price paid for the heifers was $35.50 and $33.00 for the steers.

Lloyd Allen, of Thorne Lake, had the misfortune to dislocate his ankle late Tuesday, while dismounting from a saddle horse. His brother, K. C. Allen, brought him to Silver Lake, where Dr. Ewing reduced the fracture. The Doctor pronounces it a most serious break.

Forest Ranger Jay Billings arrived in town Saturday evening on his way to Portland. He has been transferred from Lakeview to Wallawa, Oregon, and after a short stay in Portland, he will leave for the above named place to take up the work in that section. Mr. Billings will visit with relatives at Summer Lake for a few weeks, until Mr. Billings gets a home established.

Andrew Canterbury, a guard and trapper for the Fremont Forest Reserve, met with a very painful accident on Tuesday morning. He is in company with Ranger McComb were on their way to the Ranger station a half mile east of town. McComb was driving the team and Canterbury was sitting in the rear end of the wagon with his feet hanging out. He had a rifle in his hand and seeing a jack rabbit at the side of the road, took a shot at it. This frightened the team and they jumped, throwing him out and dislocating his right shoulder.

A Word to the Ladies

You will agree with us that the proper blending of colors is a science. To secure the right contrasts, taste, knowledge and care is required. To pick the colors that suit the individual complexion is of vast importance. Our trimmer and designer, with her many years' experience, is up-to-the-minute in the science of color combination. She will sell a customer a hat that suits her complexion best; so if you have any intention of buying a hat, or if you have any picture from any catalog that you want copied, bring it to us and we will duplicate the same hat at the same price.
