TOMORROW morning at sunrise the national salute will be sounded, answering the bugles of Independence Day in Lakewood. The Lakewood Band and other local bands will continue the custom of ceremonies on the occasion of the salute, as the配合 of people and of the band and the character of the service will guide the various bands to all the entertainment possible to the band and the country. Events are open to the public may assist in the entertainment possible to the band and the country.

TOMORROW morning at sunrise the national salute will be sounded, answering the bugles of Independence Day in Lakewood. The Lakewood Band and other local bands will continue the custom of ceremonies on the occasion of the salute, as the配合 of people and of the band and the character of the service will guide the various bands to all the entertainment possible to the band and the country. Events are open to the public may assist in the entertainment possible to the band and the country.

TOMORROW morning at sunrise the national salute will be sounded, answering the bugles of Independence Day in Lakewood. The Lakewood Band and other local bands will continue the custom of ceremonies on the occasion of the salute, as the配合 of people and of the band and the character of the service will guide the various bands to all the entertainment possible to the band and the country. Events are open to the public may assist in the entertainment possible to the band and the country.

TOMORROW morning at sunrise the national salute will be sounded, answering the bugles of Independence Day in Lakewood. The Lakewood Band and other local bands will continue the custom of ceremonies on the occasion of the salute, as the配合 of people and of the band and the character of the service will guide the various bands to all the entertainment possible to the band and the country. Events are open to the public may assist in the entertainment possible to the band and the country.