

City Property

$3000.00 For a 7-room house, a lot of fruit trees and about one acre of choice land close in. Easy terms.

$2000.00 Takes a 7-room bungalow almost new, lot 100x150 feet good location. Easy terms.

$4000.00 Will buy one of the finest homes in the city. 7-room modern bungalow with 8 fine lots, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

Vacant lots for sale in different parts of the city from $125.00 up.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP

GENERAL REAL ESTATE

Lakeview : Oregon

Good Values for the Land Seeker

$7.50 Per acre for 320 acres on Thomas Creek, 11 miles from Lakeview.

$7.50 Per acre for 560 acres on Cottonwood Creek, 11 miles from Lakeview.

$10.00 Per acre for 240 acres on Muddy and Cottonwood Creeks, 9 miles from Lakeview.

$10.00 Per acre for 80 acres 5 miles from Lakeview.

$50.00 Per acre for 240 acres joining the O. V. L. Ad. to Lakeview, all in meadow and grain, good water right, farm implements go with the place, buildings cost $3500.00, easy terms.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1913.

BRIEF MENTION

See Curtis & Uley for good Lakeview residence. A snap.

W. S. Dupont and H. M. Fleming of New Pine Creek were Lakeview visitors one day last week.

The ladies of the M. E. Aid will sell tags tomorrow, July 4th, for the benefit of the Methodist Church.

Best assortment of toilet goods—perfume, soaps, powders, etc., at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

E. E. Brett, traveling salesman for Cadillac automobiles, arrived here the first of the week from Portland in a demonstration car.

A. E. Bannister of Paisley came down last week and will assist in the F. D. Smith barber shop until after the rush of the Fourth.

The hot weather is here. The thermometer is constantly on the jump—so are we. For that reason we are selling Rainier Beer at the Brewery.

Mrs. George M. Jones and Mrs. Daniel Cronmiller last week departed for Berkeley, Calif. The latter will spend the summer there with her daughter, Mrs. J. Beach.

George M. Jones, a substantial and well known stockman of the Chewaucan Valley, this week placed an order with E. E. Brett, of Portland, for a Cadillac car.

George Harrow, formerly one of the leaders of Hotel Lakeview, and family Tuesday returned from a few days visit in Warner Valley, where they spent the time on the 7T ranches.

The month just passed was said by old timers to be the wettest June we have had here in 16 years. The total precipitation in the vicinity of Lakeview totaled about three inches.

Haying on several ranches in the valley will be started soon after the Fourth. The crop in some places is reported as being somewhat short but in general will about equal the usual average.

Main street along the west side of the Heryford Building and the Hayes & Grob Meat Market is being covered with gravel. It makes a decided improvement and one that has been needed for some time.

O. T. McKenree, wool buyer, made a trip to Madeline the first of the week and bought the Brown and Hartlerode wool amounting to 40,000 pounds. He also purchased about 30,000 pounds of Shed and Crowder of Davis Creek.

Modoc Republican: Dave Rice the recent benedict, arrived in Alturas with his bride Wednesday evening. On their home coming Mr. Rice and wife were greeted by a serenade from the Alturas Band. The occasion was a pleasant one and heartily enjoyed.

George Ross yesterday morning left for Susanville to assist in furnishing music for the Fourth of July celebration at that place. Chas. Wallace, slide trombone player, was also employed by the Alturas band to aid in the musical program of the Susanville celebration.

Harry Cannon Sunday returned from a short trip to Surprise Valley with the information that plenty of rain has fallen in that valley this season and as a consequence good crops of all kinds are assured. He will go to Surprise again soon and remain until after the haying season.

The office and produce store of the Lakeview Transfer Co. and A. L. Porterfield's second hand store were removed into the J. Frankl building, formerly occupied by Ahlstrom Bros. the first of the week. The building affords ample room for the two businesses, and is a great improvement their former locations.

Sunday's Oregonian contained a picture of the graduating class of the Lakeview High School. Those shown in the reproduction are: O. M. Gardner, superintendent of schools; Miss Fletcher, English teacher; James Burgess, Willard Isenhart, Fred Cronmiller, Lura Snyder, May O'Shea, Margie Bernard, Kate Robart and Edith Ogle.

Ex-Register A. W. Orton of the U. S. Land Office at Lakeview, and wife Tuesday departed in their auto for Klamath Falls where they will remain this week, and during which time Mr. Orton will be initiated in the order of B.P.O. Elks, he having been elected to the order several weeks. They will go from there to Portland where they expect to remain permanently.

At your perfume and toilet articles at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

L. D. Frakes Tuesday came over from the 7T ranch in Warner Valley.

The new regulation allowing parcer post packages to be sent C.O.D. went into effect July 1st.

The Moore-Ethier Dramatic Company is filling an engagement in Susanville during the Fourth week.

Duke Bennett this week passed through Lakeview enroute to Warner Valley from Santa Rosa, Calif.

Don't forget to stop at the Bunting corner to get ice cream on the Fourth. Served by ladies aid of the Presbyterian Church.

For Sale—The Walters Residence, Cor. Ballard and Walters St. 9 rooms, Lot 133x252 feet, terms given. W. P. Paine & Co., Agts. Jy 3-11

An awning is being placed along the south and west of the Heryford Building, over the lower windows of the Lakeview Mercantile Co.

A merger of the Hotel Hall and the White Pelican at Klamath Falls has been completed and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall now manage both hotels.

The hot weather is here. The thermometer is constantly on the jump—so are we. For that reason we are selling Rainier Beer at the Brewery.

George Reid returned to town last week from the Manuel Swartz sheep camp where he has been the past eight months. He will remain until after the celebration.

Miss Fletcher and Mrs. White, teachers in the Lakeview High School, have returned from a short visit and vacation spent on the Foster ranch at Summer Lake.

James Goode, the Boston wool buyer, this week reports the purchases of the Jonas Norin and D. P. Brown crops. The former clip amounted to 15,000 pounds, and the latter 20,000.

Miss Ida Fletcher, one of the Lakeview High School teachers, this morning departed for Berkeley, Cal. where she will attend Summer School until school reopens here in September.

Auto Stage to New Pine Creek, leaves Lakeview every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock. Fare, round trip, $3.50; one way, $2.00. Southstone Bros. J12-11

The Alturas Plaindealer issues the following optimistic prophecy on the Lakeview Fourth of July celebration: "Citizens of Lakeview are working hard to make their 4th of July celebration one grand success, and they will do it, too."

The town council held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the city hall. A petition, signed by a number of tax payers in the Walters Addition, was presented to the city dads asking them to make some needed improvements in Ballard street leading through that addition.

From all press reports we learn that the rain which continued here all of last week was general all over the state, especially in the eastern part. In Umatilla County and other northern counties much damage was done to grain crops, wheat fields being beaten down by wind and rain.

Clark & Ousley, the cement workers, are laboring industriously to get the band stand completed for use during the celebration. The stand would have been finished some time ago had the work not been delayed by rain, but indications bid fair that the work will be done regardless of these obstacles.

Word has been received that H. H. Hahn, of this city who left here a few weeks since, died last week at Myrtle Creek, Douglas County, Oregon. He was in poor health when leaving here, and his death was attributed to heart trouble. He is survived by a wife and three daughters all of this place. The remains were interred at Myrtle Creek.

Wm., James and John Barker, all well known and former Lakeview residents, recently returned here to remain indefinitely after spending the winter in Douglas County, Oregon. The Barker boys are very useful in making arrangements for Fourth of July celebrations and as a consequence their assistance has been "rang" in on various features of the coming program.

Ralph Parlier, an employe at the Draws Creek dam, Wednesday afternoon met with an accident which resulted in the fracture of a leg. He was riding on the running gears of a wagon when his foot in some way became caught between the hind wheel and a rock, causing instant fracture of the limb. Dr. E. H. Smith was called from Lakeview to reduce the wound.

R. B. Jackson of Paisley was transacting business in the County Seat Tuesday.

See Clark & Ousley for cement work of all kinds. Special prices given for short time. Phone 832. J 19-11

Mrs. George Storkman and little son returned Saturday evening from Portland where she had been on a visit.

Cottonwood Lumber Co. High grade, yellow pine lumber. All kinds of dressed lumber on hand. J12-3m

Get something for your money at the Fourth at the Bunting lot just below the court house.

F. A. Fitzpatrick and family yesterday came down from the ZX ranch in Chewaucan and will likely remain in town until after the Fourth.

James Heryford Jr., who owns a ranch in the lower end of Surprise Valley near Eagleview, is in Lakeview this week to spend the Fourth.

LOST—Ladies open face, silver, engraved watch and gold fob. Finder return to Dick Kingsley, Green Garden Rooming House and receive reward. Jy3-2t

Mrs. Nettie Sherlock and daughter, Ena, Monday returned to their home at Paisley after spending a few days in Lakeview, guests at Hotel Lakeview.

Joe Howard was in town Monday from his ranch in Draws Valley purchasing machinery and supplies, getting ready for the haying season which will soon begin.

For Sale Cheap—Three buggies, one rubber tire, with set of harness; one phaeton almost new, and one single seat buggy. Enquire Wm. Harvey, Lakeview, Oregon.

W. M. Meek has purchased from H. W. Drenkel two lots on South Flower Street in the Drenkel Addition, and expects to build a house of cement blocks on the property this coming fall.

O. Mowers, the Sacramento horse dealer who has been spending several days in this section, last week sold and delivered a fine black Percheron stallion to a company of West Side farmers.

U. S. Mail Auto Stage—Leaves Lakeview for Paisley every day except Sunday, at 7 a. m. Passengers please book at Joe Fuller's stage office. Fares, one way $6.00; round trip, $10.00. Southstone Bros. J12-11

David T. Jones last week returned from Klamath Falls a full fledged Elk, he having had a set of antlers fitted while in that city. Incidentally he stated that he had a good trip and thinks that Klamath Falls is all right.

W. H. Davenport, general agent of the Western Pacific with headquarters in San Francisco, spent a few days in Lakeview last week on a tour of inspection and incidentally looking for prospective business. This was his second trip to Lakeview and is convinced that this country surely improves with time.

Frank Roberts and Mr. Callahan arrived here Tuesday from Sanoma County, Cal. They are extensive stock growers and are selling blooded Durham bulls, and are looking for a location for a thoroughbred stockfarm in this section. They are now in Warner Valley making an inspection of that part of the county.

Jack Johnson, convicted of white slavery, out on appeal of bond has made good his escape from the United States for the time being at least. He went to Montreal, from which place he could not be extradited nor deported, inasmuch as his case is not extraditable from Canada. He claimed to be enroute to Russia where he has accepted an offer to fight next September.

Doctors, J. La Rue Robinson and Morrison of Reno, Nevada, spent last Friday in Lakeview. The former was kept very busy throughout the day, having assisted Drs. Smith and Everett perform an operation upon J. U. Carol in the morning and spending the remainder of the day in the office or Dr. Everett fitting a number of patients with eye glasses. They returned home Saturday.

At the Presbyterian services in Masonic hall the coming Sunday evening Rev. Geo. A. Crawford will begin a series of ten Sunday night sermons on "Religious Questions Modern Men Are Asking." The first of the series will be: "How may I know there is a God." In the morning at 11 o'clock the subject will be: "Hypocrisy." A good musical program has been arranged for both these services including both vocal and instrumental selections.

How about your new suit for the big time the Fourth of July. Lots of 'em at Merc. Co.

Born, near Paisley, Oregon, June 25, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cannon, a ten pound baby girl.

L. R. Holbrook, a sheep grower, yesterday came over from Vistillas to remain a few days in town.

For Rent or Sale—Sewing machines latest styles, lowest prices. H. B. Alger, first door east of Photo Gallery.

H. M. Albee and W. L. Treweek were here from Reno the first of the week representing the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Fred Grob, mother of W. F. Grob of this city, arrived last week from her home at Dorris, Cal., on an extended visit with her son and family.

The hot weather is here. The thermometer is constantly on the jump—so are we. For that reason we are selling Rainier Beer at the Brewery.

A number of the local gunsmen are practicing trap shooting these evenings, getting ready for the shoot here Sunday afternoon with the Alturas Gun Club.

I have taken charge of the Bunting Rooming House and will operate in conjunction with Colorado Cafe. Rooms with or without board. C. E. Lonsway. Jy 3-1m Governor Dunne has signed the legislative act enfranchising 1,600,000 women in the state of Illinois. This doubles the number of voting women in the United States.

All boys in town between the ages of 6 and 14 years are requested to meet at the court house Friday morning at 9 o'clock to arrange for the Patriotic Parade which starts at 9:30 o'clock from the court house.

The Alturas New Era reports that H. B. Hale, a retired sheepman of Chico, Cal., spent several days in that section last week and while there purchased two carloads of thoroughbred bucks from Walter Sherlock.

The Ft. Rock correspondent to the Silver Lake Leader states that a general rain fell over that valley Saturday night, June 29, and that up to Tuesday noon of last week the precipitation in the north end was one-half inch.

A Nevada publisher is very anxious to learn of the whereabouts of F. M. Swan, of the Yankee Doodle Show, which was in Lakeview recently. He states that the show man owes him for a printing bill and money. Any information sent to Drawer B, Mina, Nevada, will be appreciated.

Mrs. W. P. Heryford and son Felix Monday morning left for California on a visit. Felix came to Lakeview several weeks since, hoping that the change would prove beneficial to his health and for a time he did feel better. But last week he suffered a relapse and on the advice of his physician he sought a lower altitude.

A. C. Willey and son, Dick, stock men of Eagleview, Cal., arrived here Tuesday evening having driven up in a Hupmobile. Mr. Willey Sr. is well known in Lakeview and at one time was engaged in business here with his father. They went to Alturas yesterday afternoon on their return home.

Lloyd Morris and Miss Lizzie Pratt were married last Sunday at the Baptist parsonage in this city, the Rev. A. F. Simmons officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pratt of this city, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Morris, who conduct a dairy farm in Camas Prairie, where the newly married couple will make their home.

Col. Light and A. L. Thornton, who have charge of the Grand Patriotic Parade tomorrow, wish to lay particular stress upon notifying all boys in town between the ages of 6 and 14 years to gather at the court house square in the morning at nine o'clock. This also applies to the girls who have been selected to take part in the parade. The boys can wear any kind of uniforms or clothes they desire.

Since the night train service out of Bend to Portland over the Oregon Trunk line, which schedule was inaugurated last week, it is possible for people of Lakeview to reach Portland in 24 hours. By leaving here in an auto early one morning, driving to Bend in one day, the following morning you can be in Portland. In fact one could spend an entire day in Portland and only be absent from Lakeview three days. The change in train service will doubtless prove very popular and beneficial in a financial way to the line.

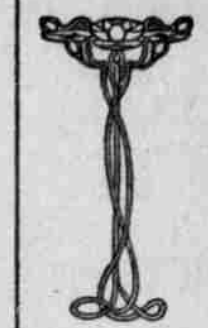

CONCRETE WORK

Contracts taken for all kinds of Concrete and Cement Work

Sceptic Tanks, Walks and Foundations a Specialty
Cemetery Work, such as Vaults, Curbs and Fencing

Phone 832 CLARK & OUSLEY Phone 832

An Extra Pair of Pants

An Extra Pair of Pants with every order for either a suit or coat and pants, in a handsome line of patterns, made by H. M. Marks & Co. of Chicago.

This offer is open until July 1st.

We are giving a liberal discount on all other tailor lines, including Alfred Benjamin's and Wanamaker & Brown's.

This is the time to get that Summer Suit.

Better look them over.

Britten & Erickson

Important to Shoppers!

When shopping, remember the store that carries the largest and best stock of merchandise in Southern Oregon is located in your own town of Lakeview, and every dollar spent here helps to build up your town and surrounding country. When in need of anything, let us figure with you--- and will treat you the best we know how. We are showing a new line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Tub Dresses, all sizes, and at very moderate prices. Also Ladies' and Misses' Spring Suits and Coats. We will compare prices with any house in this line. Nice line of Ladies' Waists in Lawns and Marquesttes. Summer Dress Goods in endless variety of patterns. Full line of Furniture, Crockery, Wall Paper, Hardware, Groceries, Etc., Etc.

We Want Your Trade

Lakeview Mercantile Co.