THREE NEW LAWS OF IMPORTANCE

Laborers and Mothers Were Favored By Last Legislature

According to the declarations of labor leaders, the Minimum Wage Bill, the Workmen's Compensation Act, and the Mothers' Pension Bill constitute the triplet of laws which will make the 27th legislative session famous. All, save the Workmen's Compensation Act, which has been referred to a vote of the people, are now in effect.

The minimum wage bill creates an industrial welfare commission of three members, appointed by the Governor. The commission is authorized and empowered to ascertain and declare the standards of hours of employment of women or minors, and what are unreasonably long hours in any occupation in the state; the standards of conditions of labor for minors in any occupation, and what surroundings or conditions are sanitary or detrimental to their health or morals; the standards of minimum wages for women and minors, and what wages are inadequate to supply the necessary cost of living.

The workman's compensation act provides for a commission of three members, and provides a graduated scale of benefits of employees who are injured or benefits for their heirs when workers are killed. The measure is optional; employers and employees being given the privilege of saying whether they desire to operate under it.

The mother's pension bill provides that every woman, who has one or more children under 16 years of age, and whose husband is dead, or is an inmate of some Oregon state institution, or by reason of physical or mental disease is wholly unable to work, and whose support and the support of whose children is dependent wholly or partly upon her labor, shall be entitled to aid from the County Court in the county in which she resides to the extent of $10 per month for the first child and $7.50 a month for each additional child.

There was passed during the session also a 10-hour bill, providing that no person shall be employed in any mill, factory, or manufacturing establishment more than 10 hours a day, except watchmen and employees engaged in making necessary repairs, or in case of emergency, where life or property is in danger.

Another bill makes eight hours constitute a day's work on all public works, and requires of contractors a bond to protect the state, county or municipality against liens.

JOCKEY THOMPSON DIES IN IRELAND

From The Irish News
A telegram from Curragh, Ireland contains the sad news of the death of John Thompson, the famous Irish jockey. A member of a respectable and wealthy family of Co. Wexford, he went to Curragh at an early age with the intention of qualifying as a gentleman rider. After a short time he gave up riding over hurdles and across country and devoted himself entirely to riding on the various race tracks of Ireland. His career was a decided success, and it is said that no jockey in Ireland ever scored anything like the triumphs that fell to his share. By riding 53 winners in 1907 he put up an Irish record, and in brief the result scored by him at the end of each of the following years was—First in 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1911, and 1912. He was fourth in 1908 and second in 1909. Some of those he rode against at different times were Tod Sloan and Lester Reiff, both prominent American jockeys.

An Ad Will Pay

If your business doesn't "go" and the sales are mighty low, And things begin to look a trifle bad:
When the things that looked "im-mense" now resemble "thirty cents,"
Just try the stunt of putting in an ad:
You will find that it will pay, you can see it every day—
And you'll admit it was the proper caper,
So get a pad and chalk work out a line of talk,
And put an advertisement in the paper,
Put it to 'em good and hard, whether selling gems or lard,
And try to hit 'em plumb between the eyes:
Make your copy good and strong and you'll see 'fore long
That it really pays for you to advertise.—Selected.

All Irish Residents Should Attend Meeting Here On July 3rd

From The Irish News
Portland, Oregon,
June 24, 1913.

To the Irish News:
D. J. Curran, county president, will leave here Sunday with full powers to organize.

Yours,
T. J. Murphy.

This is a telegram received by us on Tuesday of last week after some correspondence between the News and Mr. T. J. Murphy, president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Portland.

We were in hopes that Mr. Murphy personally could make the trip down here for the purpose of attending the meeting of the Irish residents of Lake County which will be held on the evening of July 3, at the Masonic Hall here, but owing to pressure of business he was unable to do so. In his stead we will be favored with a visit from Mr. Curran, Mutnomah County president of the A.O.H., who we know will be able to tell us in a convincing manner of the advantages to be gained by membership in the order he represents.

At the present time it is estimated that there are about 500 Irish residents in Lake County. A great many of these are located at this end of the county, and many are at present either in or very close to Lakeview. There is no reason why at least 200 should not be present on the night of the meeting to hear Mr. Curran and the other speakers, and to decide whether or not it will be possible to secure enough members to start a local division. There are also other matters of importance to be attended to during the meeting, as for instance—deciding whether or not a picnic is to be held this summer, and whether arrangements should be made to rent quarters in the business part of town for reading and writing room, to hold meetings in, etc.

After having thoroughly read the Constitution and By-Laws of the Ancient Order of Hibernians we cannot help but believe that it is the "one" organization for the Irish boys of this section, and we fully believe that it can be started here with a membership of from 50 to 100. The purpose of the Order is to promote the Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity of its members and to preserve the spirit of Irish Nationality. Its work covers every lawful demand of friendship between its members and the protection of all dependent on them. The sick and infirm shall be cared for and the widows and orphans protected. Education and every virtue of Christian citizenship, for which the Irish race is renowned, shall be fostered, and by every sacrifice and effort sufficient funds and property shall be contributed, collected, obtained and used to carry forward permanently, to the honor of the Irish race, the broad purposes of the order herein proclaimed.

Each division of the order has the right to determine what the membership initiation fee shall be, as well as the monthly dues and the weekly benefits. The benefits, however, shall in no case be less than five dollars per week.

As is known to practically every one of us—the Ancient Order of Hibernians is a universal order and is to be found in every land. No matter where you go—no matter what city in any part of the Globe—you will find a division of the A.O.H. ready to extend a welcome hand. Let each of us, therefore, be in attendance at the Masonic Hall, at 7:30 p. m., Thursday evening, July 3, and endeavor in every possible way to assist Mr. Curran in organizing a local division. We are badly in need of it.

James Thompson, a West Side boy, was quite seriously injured at the Mulkey Shearing Corral about a week ago while attempting to buckle together two wagons loaded with wool. The horses started up suddenly, causing the rear wagon to jam up against the first one. Mr. Thompson was between the two and could not get out of the way in time so that he was quite badly hurt in the crush.

PIONEER MAKES TRIP TO ALTURAS

Capt. Applegate Plans To Visit San Francisco Panama Exposition

Alturas Plaindealer: We received a pleasant visit Wednesday from our old friend, Capt. I. H. Applegate, of the Tule Lake country. Capt. Applegate was in Alturas transacting business, and despite his 75 years, rode horseback from his sheep ranch on Tule Lake, making in one day 40 miles. We enjoyed an hour's conversation, going over events of the long ago. Such meetings are always a pleasure, and bring back events and scenes almost blotted from memory. In parting the pledge was renewed to meet again in San Francisco in 1915. Should that promise be realized, Capt. Applegate will probably be the oldest living pioneer of the Pacific Coast to visit the great show. Think of it. When he landed at what is now Portland in 1843, coming barefoot down the Columbia river, hungry and footsore and clinging to the tattered garments of his mother, San Francisco was a straggling Spanish village scattered among the sand hills. When we speak of pioneers well may we say Capt. Applegate is a pioneer of pioneers.
