NEW PINE CREEK ITEMS

(By Staff Correspondent)

Eldon Woodcock and family were down Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Gallagher made a trip up to Lakeview last week.

Mr. Jensen who recently installed the new street lights here should feel that the entire town appreciate them very much. It is certainly a very much needed improvement.

Mr. Joseph Smith who recently had his house newly painted, has done much towards improving the looks of his street. Mr. Knapp did the painting and is quite neat.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Amick returned Saturday from an overland pleasure trip to Ashland and various points in Oregon. Mrs. Dexter Amick we understand has located in Ashland. Little Norene Gibbins of Lakeview accompanied her grandparents home for a few days visit.

Judge Meley and George Arabiad made a business trip to Fort Bidwell last week.

Mrs. Felix Green returned home from Sacramento a few days ago.

E. Keller made several business trips up to the county seat last week.

Henry Wendt, Henry Cook, Mr. Dupont and Herschel Fleming have all been enjoying an outing of several days over at Deep Creek, where they had a splendid time fishing.

Mr. Clark Freeman in company with a party of gentlemen who made a business trip to Harney County in a touring car, are expected to return in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Wade entertained D. C. and Mrs. Berry at their home Sunday.

Dr. J. T. O'Connor received the sad intelligence of the death of his sister a few days ago. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Ira Smith and family and Mrs. Reeder have returned from quite a trip over at Rochester, Nev. and other points. They think Pine Creek is good enough for them. They saw a number of their acquaintances at different places while away.

Miss Olive Vinyard is back from Lakeview, where she spent several days with her aunt, Mrs. E. E. Woodcock.

Word has been received from Misses Libbie Cannon and Opal Reid, who arrived in Oakland, Cal., a few days ago, that they are having a very enjoyable time.

Rev. Myers of Lakeview preached a very interesting sermon at the Christian Church here Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid will have a picnic in Mr. E. Carr's yard Friday afternoon. Every body cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Dora Colvin was calling on friends Saturday afternoon and also entertained a number of pioneer friends Sunday at her father's home down the valley, where all partook of a sumptuous dinner.

Silver Lake Items

(Silver Lake Leader)

P. D. Reeder has sold the Silver Lake Meat Market to A. E. Imbler, who formerly conducted a feed yard business here.

The three months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Eider died at Paisley on July 15. The cause of its death was not learned.

Work on the Summer Lake road has been abandoned until after haying, owing to the scarcity of men. Those who have seen the grade say it is a good one—20 feet wide, which will allow vehicles to pass without danger. The work will be resumed as soon as the haying season is over.

Haying has begun on several of the ranches near Silver Lake, and by the first of next week, the harvest will be in full blast. Although the crop will not be as heavy as expected earlier in season, a fair yield will be had on most of the ranches.

John Porter, of Portland, and an old pioneer of Lake County who came here in the seventies, returned last Sunday. Mr. Porter left here in 1892, seeking a different climate on account of ill health, and this is his first visit since he left. He still holds his land here which was taken up in early days, and if his health permits he will probably remain. He spent the first of the week in town greeting old friends and acquaintances. His brother, Columbus Porter, who has been in the Willamette valley for some time, returned with him.

Delivers First Cream
Max Bode, who lives a few miles south of town, holds the distinction of having supplied the first cream to the Lakeview Creamery which will begin operations tomorrow. The dairy business is a new venture for Mr. Bode, he having recently shipped in 20 head of Holstein cows from California. One of these he sold but kept the remainder of the herd, and is now milking 18 head. He has been shipping cream to Reno, receiving 27 cents per pound, but will get a better price from the local creamery, besides saving the inconvenience of shipping the product. Mr. Bode is very enthusiastic over the dairying business in this valley and feels sure that it will develop into a great industry.
