A WEED ORDINANCE

Weeds are attracting the attention of many Lakeview property owners, and several have recently declared the opinion that the city should have an ordinance empowering the street committee to remove the weeds along sidewalks and on vacant lots and charge the cost to the owners. Under the system now followed the weeds continue to flourish unless removed by the residents or owners of property.

Weeds which seemed to have attained their full size two weeks ago appear to have doubled in size since then to the extent of almost blocking some sidewalks, and hiding residences out of view. Why not make a law to overcome this, or else apply the state law pertaining to weeds growing along highways?

"Sagehens are reported plentiful in Eastern Oregon and the poorest marksman easily can secure the limit of five a day. If he would eat them, however, he would better buy a prescription, which will be cheaper and just as palatable," says a supposedly brilliant editorial writer in the Oregonian. Possibly if that same writer had one of our nicely prepared Eastern Oregon sagehens included in the menu of his regular "25-cent Merchant's Lunch" or had ever enjoyed any scenery excepting his reflection in the top of a polished mahogany desk, he would become to appreciate the palatable sagehen as well as numerous other game fowl which abound in this section of Oregon.

A Good Man

The sudden and tragic death of George L. Alexander, general manager of the Pacific Branch of the American Type Founders Company, with headquarters at San Francisco, has brought sorrow to many hearts and especially to the printer fraternity throughout the west. He met his death in an automobile accident on Tuesday evening of last week. He was 45 years of age and a native of Massachusetts. He was a very successful business man, and to his leniency and good heart in business transactions many a newspaper and printing establishment on this coast owes its success. Every patron of the San Francisco House of the American Type Founders company feels that he owes a debt of gratitude to George L. Alexander.

Pioneer Visits Lakeview

A. McCallen and son-in-law, L. L. Muir and wife arrived here Sunday evening from Ashland, Oregon, at which place Mr. Muir is cashier of the First National Bank. Mr. McCallen is a brother of Mrs. Mary Snider of this place and they will spend several days here before he returns to Berkeley, Cal., for the winter. He is a pioneer resident of Lakeview and yet owns considerable property in this section. His last visit here was nine years ago when the First National Bank was first established. The Examiner regrets to state that Mr. McCallen is in poor health, as he has been troubled with bronchitis the past several years. He as well as Mr. and Mrs. Muir have numerous friends in Lakeview and this valley who accorded them a warm welcome upon their arrival.

NORTHWEST NEWS

Had you noticed the first hint of Fall weather these mornings?

It is said that there will be no grand jury investigation of the death of Bull Young, who died from a blow in the fight with Jess Willard last week at Los Angeles. Willard was exonerated by the coroner's jury.

The Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific Coast has offered a reward of $300 for the detection, conviction and punishment, within six months, of the person who set fire to the building and contents of several owners of Bonanza, Klamath County, says the Evening Herald. The fire occurred on the night of August 18th and the damage totaled about $200,000.

Ft. Rock Times: Of about 60 head of horses taken from here and Silver Lake to be sold as cavalry horses at Bly, only one horse was sold, this belonged to A. B. Schroder. Out of a total of 180 horses shown the government inspectors bought only 9 head.

George Anderson, driving a Stutz car, won the Elgin, Illinois, national trophy race last Saturday over the eight-mile course when he negotiated 301 miles in 4:13.38, an average of 71.2 miles an hour. Twelve cars manned by the most expert drivers in American started in the race.

A. P. Armstrong, county school superintendent of Multnomah County has been indicted by the grand jury charging him with malfeasance in office and accepting a bribe. Bribery is a felony and punishable by imprisonment, and conviction for either crime includes forfeiture of public office.

The duck and goose season in Lake County will open September 15. According to the reports of those who have been investigating the bird situation on the lake, shooting will be good this year. The open season for both ducks and geese begins on the morning of September 15, which by the way, is Monday.

The last remaining barrier at the Pacific end of the Panama canal was blown up by dynamite Saturday. About twenty long tons equal to 44,800 pounds of 48 per cent dynamite constituted the blast which was one of the largest ever set off in the canal. Dredgers began September 2 to remove the last barrier of the Atlantic channel, and when this work is completed ships may navigate to the locks from both ends.

The San Francisco Morning Call appeared on September 1, as an evening paper. M. H. DeYoung sold the Call plant which he recently bought to F. W. Kellogg and John D. Spreckles who head the new company. The new alignment of newspapers leaves San Francisco with two morning papers, the Chronicle and Examiner and five in the evening field, namely, The Bulletin, Post, News and the new evening paper.

All saloons in the state located in railroad depots or buildings physically within them passed out of business September 1, when the bill passed by the last legislature making it unlawful to operate them in such buildings, became a law and was introduced in the legislature at the request of Governor West. The bill was held back from becoming a law until September 1, in order to give affected saloon men an opportunity to wind up their business and obtain new quarters. Any person violating this law is subject to a fine of $100 to $500 and imprisonment from two to six months.

News of Fairport

Fairport, Calif.—(Special Correspondence Examiner)—Five new residences under construction and five more to begin the foundation work during the present month, with people living in tents and not a vacant house available in the record Fairport is beginning to make.

V. S. Peet, of Salt Lake City, has returned to his home but expects to return within the next thirty days and begin the work of building his new bungalow to occupy three lots on First Avenue and Modoc—one of the prettiest corners in the town. The Bosley home in this block—nine rooms and modern in every way—is beginning to take its place as a skyline marker.

During the month M. Collen, of Montana, who purchased an entire block facing the lake front, will arrive and relieve the congestion by the construction of a couple of homes for rental purposes, besides the fine two story home to be built for himself.

On Sunday night the lobby of the Inn was crowded with people who had gathered for the triple purpose of helping Miss Aileen Fuller celebrate her sixteenth birthday, bid goodbye to Genevieve Shaffer, who left Monday morning for Alturas to begin her work in High School and to listen to the entertainment furnished by Mr. Peet. Ice cream was served and the evening taken up with a generally sociable time.

The new launch, the Naiades, put on the lake by C. N. Miller is proving an attraction for people from all parts of the valley.

Americans Leave Mexico

In addition to President Wilson's special message concerning the Mexican situation, urging Americans to leave the trouble zone immediately; that Mexican factions be permitted to fight out their troubles; exemplary punishment to follow if American lives are endangered; prohibiting the shipment of arms to Mexican federals and rebels, etc., Mexico will have to settle for the damage of property owned by Americans when the reign of rebellion began three years ago.

Latest advice states that Americans in Mexico are heeding the President's warning to get out, and it is estimated that 10,000 Americans left Mexico within the past three weeks. The condition at present seems quite passive and it is generally conceded that President Wilson's action will go a long way toward relieving the tension in the southern republic.

Reno Host to Many

Reno Gazette, Aug. 30: The advance guard of the Lakeview and Alturas tourists, numbering 20 persons, arrived in Reno last night following many hours delay caused by a landslide on the N.-C.-O. railway at Red Rock.

Twenty-four more are scheduled to arrive in Reno tonight, and it is expected that trains tomorrow will bring the total up to 100.

It is the plan of the visitors to take in all the sights in Reno and vicinity. Sunday will be spent at Moana Springs where special arrangements are being made to welcome them. A large number will leave Reno Monday morning for the Labor day festivities at Carson City.

The N.-C.-O. tracks suffered from a washout Thursday night and the tourists were forced to walk a distance of a mile to take a train for Reno. The officials of the company expect to have the track fully repaired by Sunday morning.

Bag Big Game

That Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shirk are mighty slayers of big game is proven in the following account taken from a late issue of the Bakersfield (Cal.) Morning Echo. Mr. Shirk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shirk of this place, and is cashier of the First National Bank of Taft. The item reads:

"Mrs. C. L. Shirk, wife of a Taft Banker, arrived in Bakersfield last night from a hunting outing north of the Jack ranch with the skin of a 200-pound cinnamon bear, which she killed unaided. In company with her husband and R. K. Howke of the city she has been camping in the mountains for the past few weeks, the party making the trip in Howke's Stearns car. Howke, who is a local well contractor, devoted all of his attention to fishing. Shirk succeeded in bagging a four-point buck."

Paisley Pick-ups

(Chewaucan Press)

John Bevel, aged 20 years, son of J. M. Bevel who lives five miles west of Paisley on Mill Creek, died Thursday morning.

Monday at noon another heavy shower occurred which was general over the whole valley and on the following evening the southern half of the Chewaucan valley was visited with another hard storm. Some hail fell during the last two.

F. L. Young, manager of the America Soda Products Company was in Paisley this week. Mr. Young has been kept busy on the road for the company for the past several months but expects to put in the rest of the year at the mine. All freight for the company will be brought in by way of Lakeview hereafter.

The Riverside Mill started sawing last Monday and has been at it ever since in fact it begins to look as though sawing was soon to become a habit at the Riverside mill. We are all glad to see them in operation. Their mill has a capacity of about 15,000 feet per day and the managers hope to keep it running full blast as long as the weather will permit.
