

City Property

- $3000.00 For a 7-room house, a lot of fruit trees and about one acre of choice land close in. Easy terms.
- $2000.00 Takes a 7-room bungalow almost new, lot 100x150 feet, good location. Easy terms.
- $4000.00 Will buy one of the finest homes in the city. 7-room modern bungalow with 8 fine lots, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.
- Vacant lots for sale in different parts of the city from $125.00 up.

"We Sell The Real Earth"
O'NEILL & DUNLAP
GENERAL
REAL ESTATE
Lakeview : Oregon

Good Values for the Land Seeker

- $40.00 per acre for a good West Side 160-acre ranch, improved with buildings and orchard.
- $21.00 per acre for a 280-acre ranch five miles from Lakeview, 70 acres in first crop this year; splendid slope for irrigation and within half-mile of O.V.L. canal.
- $10.00 per acre for 80 acres five miles West of Lakeview, irrigation ditch crosses one end which gives some water right.
- A large number of 10-acre tracts with five-acre water right, at right prices.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1913.

BRIEF MENTION

Wheat for chicken feed at Duke's Store.

Manuel Sanders returned Saturday evening from a several days trip to Reno.

Al Christy, proprietor of the Camas Prairie saw mill was in town several days this week.

For something toothsome try our Peanut Taffy. We make and sell tons of it. The Kandy Kitchen.

L. A. Lyon of Cedarville, is spending several days here visiting with his brother, Dr. J. L. Lyon.

The Order of Eastern Star meets as usual in the Masonic Temple, next Tuesday night. Full attendance is requested.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Finley of Bly last week passed through Lakeview in their auto enroute to their ranch near Adel.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Fox of Eugene spent a few days here last week visiting Dr. and Mrs. Russell, who met them at Klamath Falls.

Edson Fouike of Gazelle, and aunt, Mrs. B. D. Edson of Klamath County were in Lakeview Wednesday, registered at Hotel Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Baldwin have leased the Mrs. Ahlstrom residence property on North Main street, and are now occupying their new quarters.

Al Cochran, who spent several months here last year, returned last week from an extended trip, including eastern and southern California points.

We have a fine line of $1.25 buggy whips that we are selling for 75 cts; also $1.50 buggy whips at $1.00. A limited amount of wagon umbrellas at $1.75. Ahlstrom & Gunther.

Fred Reynolds and wife and Clarence Rinehart and wife Saturday afternoon autoed to Deep Creek and spent the night on that stream. They report the catch of a nice string of fish.

George Edgecomb of McPherson, Kansas, is a late arrival in Lakeview. He owns some small tracts of real estate in the county and is looking over this section with a view of locating permanently.

Lakeview was as quiet as the most obscure village Monday, the Labor day holiday being unusually like a day of rest owing to absence of many people who attended the Irish picnic at Camas Prairie.

Miss Pearl Hall has returned from her vacation spent with relatives at Myrtle Creek, Oregon, to begin her duties as teacher of the primary department of the Lakeview school which will open next Thursday.

W. H. Shirk accompanied by Mrs. Shirk and Mrs. C. A. Watson and E. A. Friday of Adel, Sunday returned from Klamath Falls where Mr. Shirk and Mr. Friday went to take the Knight Templars degree in Free Masonry.

Andrew Morris, daughter Miss Florence, and J. L. Morris left Friday for Medford where Miss Morris will enter school. Andrew and J. L. will visit with relatives in the Rogue River Valley for several days before returning.

Heavy rains and cloud bursts that are causing considerable damage to property and railroad traffic are occurring over the state of Nevada. A cloudburst at Ely Saturday almost entirely destroyed the city's water system.

Mrs. E. R. Patch and children Monday morning left for Stockton, Cal., where they will remain during the Winter while the children will attend school. The two girls will enter a convent and the little boy a kindergarten school.

Dr. T. V. Hall accompanied by G. A. Tindall Tuesday evening arrived from San Francisco and will spend a few days in Lakeview attending to business matters. Mrs. Hall and son are at Myrtle Creek, Oregon, where they will remain for some time visiting with the Doctor's relatives. Dr. Hall will spend the winter in Oakland.

W. L. Clapp Monday came over from Klamath Falls in his auto bringing W. A. Davis and H. H. Burt of San Francisco. Mr. Burt is a mining engineer and Mr. Davis is said to be a man of considerable capital and they are investigating the mineral resources of this section with a view of investing. Tuesday they made a trip to New Pine Creek and High Grade and later visited the Windy Hollow district in Warner.

We carry nothing but first class chocolates at the Kandy Kitchen.

See Curtis & Utley for two good re-liquishments. Jy 24-tf

N. A. McCurdy a business man of New Pine Creek was in Lakeview Tuesday.

A fine line of buck and horseshoe gloves at greatly reduced prices. Ahlstrom & Gunther.

H. P. Welch Tuesday evening returned from a several days business trip to Warner Valley.

Mrs. Jack Partin of Summer Lake is spending several days in Lakeview receiving treatment by Dr. Russell.

J. R. Rose last week came over from the 77 ranch in Warner Valley where he has been the past several weeks.

Mrs. H. H. Hahn and daughter, Viola, this week left for Grants Pass, Oregon, where they expect to remain indefinitely.

WOOD—We are now prepared to take orders for your Winter's wood in any quantities, at $6.00 per cord. O'Neill & Dunlap. Jy 10-tf

The third grade this year will attend school at the old building, which has been thoroughly repaired and renovated for the purpose.

Miss Marie Church, who has been engaged to teach in the Lakeview high school the coming term, arrived Saturday evening from Corvallis.

G. W. Rice, chief engineer of the Goose Lake Valley Irrigation Co., was last week called to Denver, Colo., on business connected with the local project.

R. J. Swift, bookkeeper for the Lakeview Mercantile Co., is taking a vacation from his duties, during which time F. O. Ahlstrom is working in his stead.

Pupils attending school this year will need a lot of tablets, pencils, pens, ink and all sorts of school supplies. The place to get these things is at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

The fifth session of the Pacific Logging Congress will be held in Spokane, Wash., September 24 to 27. The object of the congress is the advancement of the science of logging engineering.

Reno Gazette: Land Commissioner Fred Shaffer of the N.-C.-O. railroad returned to Reno yesterday. He has lately arranged for the distribution of two cars of the best seed wheat in the N.-C.-O. country.

Frank C. Chapel of Chicago arrived in Lakeview Tuesday evening to look over some land holdings he has in this county. Today he made a trip to Chewaucan where he has some small tracts of real estate.

Upon request of the attorneys for the defense, the sentencing of Maury J. Diggs, convicted white slaver, has been postponed until September 10. The sentence was to have been pronounced by Judge Van Fleet Tuesday.

U. S. Mail Auto Stage—Leaves Lakeview for Paisley every day except Sunday, at 7 a. m. Passengers please book at Joe Fuller's stage office. Fares, one way $5.00; round trip, $8.00. Southstone Bros. J12-tf

C. G. Merrill and G. W. Offield came over this week from Merrill, Klamath County, expecting to buy a car load of horses, but bought only about 12 head from Wm. Harey. Jack Hannan and Virgil Brattain drove the horses to Merrill.

An appeal is being made to Governor West urging him to commute the sentence of Robert Morgan, who is sentenced to be executed today for the murder of his sweetheart, Virgie Hart, at Condon. It is reported that 11 jurors who sat in the case are ready to sign a petition asking for clemency, giving as a reason that Morgan is young and at the time of committing the crime was blinded by jealousy.

O. U. Metcalf, traveling freight and passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific, writes the Examiner from Ely, Nevada, that he thinks it may be of some interest to the people of Lake County to know that the sheep inspection will no longer be required on shipments of sheep from points on the N.-C.-O. Railway to California points and the East.

The Beeson Brothers show which is now at the Solder opera house will continue their engagement until Saturday night. The performances consist of vaudeville sketches, motion pictures and clever acts by their trick dogs. Tonight they will introduce a feature of trained ponies which promises to be a treat to both old and young. The show is attracting good audiences and their class of entertainment is new and quite different from anything that has been here for some time.

For Sale—Ten head of milk cows. See J. C. Oliver, West Side. A 28-tf

Dave Adler, the well known sheepman, came in town yesterday to spend a few days.

Mrs. Phil S. Cummins returned home Saturday evening after a three month's visit with relatives in Kansas.

For Sale—One wagon, team and harness. Team weight 1300; wagon as good as new. See J. W. Mikel. A7-14

Dr. B. Daly Sunday returned from a trip to Klamath Falls, Medford, and Portland, returning by way of Crater Lake.

A. L. Thornton has just received a shipment of school books and supplies, and is now ready to fully supply all needs in this line.

Father P. P. Kern, pastor of the local St. Patrick's church last week purchased a Ford automobile of the Lakeview Garage.

W. P. Curtis, of the realty firm of Curtis & Utley, returned home yesterday evening from Los Angeles where he went several days ago on business.

Save money on your school books this year by taking your last year's books to Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store and exchanging them for new books.

Mrs. P. O. Ahlstrom and children departed last week for Santa Cruz, Cal. where they will spend the Winter with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hervford.

For Sale Cheap—Three buggies, one rubber tire, with set of harness; one phaeton almost new, and one single seat buggy. Enquire Wm. Harvey, Lakeview, Oregon.

Mrs. S. O. Cressler returned home last week after spending several months in different parts of California. Mr. Cressler is now at Cedarville and will return to Lakeview in a few days.

George Conn arrived last week from Oakland to look after business interests in this county. He will remain until after the Fall term of Circuit Court which will convene October 20.

Some splendid Yellow Transparent apples, which were grown by E. R. Patch on his ranch below town, are on display in the Examiner window. They are considered the best of the variety ever shown here.

Snyder & Reynolds have the agency for school books and will be in position to take old books in exchange for the new ones when school opens. Look for list of books that can be exchanged on page three of last week's Examiner.

Robert McKee, wife and son, Ted, who recently arrived here in their auto from Corvallis, last week departed for California. They are ultimately bound for San Diego, where they will spend the Winter, but will spend several days visiting enroute.

One second hand double set of express harness with collars and breeching for $20.00 One set second hand collar & hame single harness nearly new for $18.00 One set breast collar single harness second hand for $10.00. Ahlstrom & Gunther.

Mrs. Mary Ahlstrom, widow of the late S. F. Ahlstrom, and grandson, Harold Venstor, Saturday morning left for Sacramento where they will remain for some time, later visiting with relatives in San Francisco and her sister, Mrs. Gates, in Marysville. They expect to return to Lakeview in about a year.

County Commissioner F. E. Anderson of Lake arrived Tuesday from the northern part of the county to attend the September term of county court which convened yesterday. Mr. Anderson reports good crops in his section and says many new settlers are coming into that part of the county.

Harry Bailey returned home Sunday evening from Portland, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. L. Bailey, and his niece, Miss Josephine Beach, who will remain here on an extended visit. As was stated by the Examiner last week Mr. Bailey was called to Portland on account of the illness of his mother, and their many friends will be pleased to learn that she is so improved as to be able to return to Lakeview.

Judge Wolverton of the United States District Court for Oregon granted an appeal from his decree, rendered July 1, forfeiting 2,300,000 acres of land in Oregon, comprising the celebrated Oregon & California Railroad land grant, to the United States Government. The case will now go to the Court of Appeals San Francisco which convenes October 6. It is said that no decision may be expected before the Summer of 1915.

Motor Cycle, in good condition, for sale cheap. See Curtis & Utley. A7-tf

K. S. Sherlock and M. S. Lester came down from Silver Lake yesterday evening.

Sheriff W. B. Snider and Assessor A. J. Foster last week made a business trip to Warner Valley.

E. Carlson, a well known farmer of the Summer Lake Valley, was in Lakeview a few days last week.

McKendree & Arthur report the purchase of 900 head of lambs and wethers from Con Fitzgerald and Jack Burke.

Cottonwood Lumber Co. High grade, yellow pine lumber. All kinds of dressed lumber on hand. J12-3m

C. C. Chitwood, fire warden of Lake and Klamath Counties, and Fred Applegate were here the first of the week from Klamath Falls.

For Sale or Rent—The Walters Residence, Cor. Bullard and Walters St. 9 rooms, Lot 133x252 ft, terms given. W. F. Paine & Co., Agts. Jy 3-tf

Miss Elsie Post, who has been seriously ill the past several days, suffering from an attack of appendicitis, is reported to be recovering nicely.

T. B. Wakefield, county commissioner, Tuesday came over from Warner Lake to perform his duties at the present session of the county court.

George Swanston, the Sacramento mutton buyer, spent a few days in Lakeview last week, but returned, we understand, without making any purchases here.

All Odd Fellows and their families and Rebekahs and their families should not forget the dance and social which will be held in the I.O.O.F. hall tomorrow evening.

Sammy Hoyt, young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hoyt, received an injury to his foot last Sunday, caused by a piece of lumber falling upon it while playing at the Sunset Lake Lumber Yard.

Louis Cohn, an old and retired merchant of Adin, Calif., committed suicide at his home at that place last week, by shooting himself with a revolver. It is said that he left quite a fortune.

I have in my possession one iron gray horse, branded open A (A) on left shoulder. Any one calling and proving property can have same by paying charges. W. M. Harvey, Lakeview, Oregon. A14-6t

The Alturas baseball team met defeat in the game with Reno Sunday at Moana Springs in a score of 5 to 3, and also lost the game Labor Day with the Carson City Indian team, in a reported score of 11 to 2.

Twenty-one persons were killed and nearly 50 injured, some of whom will die, in a rear end collision Tuesday morning on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, six miles north of New Haven, Conn.

C. B. Parker and D. P. Browne of the Warner Valley Stock Co., were in Lakeview this week from the company's ranch near Adel. They recently received a dynamo and engine which will be installed on the ranch for heating and lighting purposes.

J. E. Paddock, who owns a sheep ranch in Langel Valley near Lorealla, Klamath County, was in Lakeview this week attending to business matters. Mr. Paddock has resided in Langel Valley the past six years, and this is his first visit to Lakeview.

The prizes given by the Ladies Civic Improvement Club for the best flower garden and the best sweet peas were awarded last Saturday. The prize of $5.00 for the best flower garden was given to Mrs. D. C. Schminck, and a prize of $2.50 for the best sweet peas was awarded to Mrs. J. O'Neill. The judges were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foster of the Foster-Elliott Stock Co., and Miss Calmer of Berkeley, Cal.

C. L. Jamieson, a mining engineer of Seattle, came near meeting with a serious accident at Currier Camp yesterday morning. He was spending a few days with his college mates, Walt Dutton and Lynn Cronemiller, and while engaged in cleaning a gun it was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing between the great and second toes, the latter being broken. Supervisor G. D. Brown was at the scene of the accident and he immediately ordered Mr. Jamieson brought to Lakeview for treatment. On arrival here Dr. J. I. Russell dressed the wound, and Mr. Jamieson is now getting along nicely and expects to be as good as new shortly. He was accompanied to Lakeview by Supervisor Brown and Lynn Cronemiller, and is the guest of the latter at the family home.

Play Troupe Pleases
The Foster-Elliott Stock Company again pleased good audiences in Lakeview on Saturday and Sunday evenings last. Saturday evening they presented "The Missourians," the play that real'y made Nat Goodwin famous. Many considered this the best performance the troupe gave in both their engagements here, and it is surely a very lively and interesting bill. The play Sunday night was "The Marriage of Kitty." This is replete with funny lines, which coupled with good acting, made the performance most enjoyable. Mr. Foster stated that the company would return here next year, carrying a good line of scenery and in a repertoire of late and classical plays.

Gun Club Meeting
A meeting of the Goose Lake Gun Club is called for Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Fremont National Forest office. All members are requested to be present.
Harry Bailey, Sec'y.

Fall Suitings

Over 400 samples to select from, ranging in price from $13.50 to $45.00.

The finest line of Woolens in town—fit and workmanship guaranteed.

By ordering your Winter Suit now you get what you first select, not second or third choice as you will later. Better look them over.
BRITTEN & ERICKSON

FALL GOODS

ALL our Fall and Winter Goods are now on the way and we will soon show you a new up-to-date line in Dress Goods, Ladies' and Children's Suits and Coats, Men's Suits and Overcoats, Shoes, and in fact all goods necessary for your comfort for Winter. Be sure and see these lines before you make your purchases. We guarantee the best at the price that can be had.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.