DEMAND OUR RIGHTS

It is suggested that a strong appeal be made to the Secretary of the Navy that Oregon Naval Militia be permitted to man the battleship of that name when the historic vessel leads the battle fleet procession through the Panama Canal.

If such a course is practical, and we cannot understand why it is not, it deserves the united support and advocacy of all persons and bodies that will count. The ship that bears the name of the state manned by the sons of the state, to proceed at the head of this triumphal march would constitute a honor that we should court.

It easily should be determined if there is any practical objection to this, and if none develops, the people of Oregon ought to make their appeal to the Secretary of the Navy.

EXACTLY

The Bend Bulletin, editorially, says: "Thrice Welcome, and Then Some," is the title of the cartoon in Monday's Portland Oregonian, which picture buyers coming to Portland from Idaho, Southwestern Washington, Inland Empire, Western Oregon, Willamette Valley." Nary a suggestion is made that there is such a territory as Central Oregon, or even Eastern Oregon. The omission may be just a slip of the cartoonist, but even at that there are many Central Oregon merchants who are inclined to believe it typical of a peculiar Portland spirit—a sort of unexplained ignorance of east-of-the-Cascades Oregon.

Since the returns from Maine, Representative Lafferty of Oregon has written to his Portland friends that he will register as a Republican at the next election and will seek the Republican nomination for Congress. Apparently he sees it coming.

"Tim" Sullivan Dead

Timothy J. ("Big Tim") Sullivan, the New York politician who rose from newsboy to congressman is dead. His mangled body was identified after it had lain for 13 days in a New York morgue. Sullivan who was ill, eluded his nurses in the early morning of August 31 and a few hours later was struck by a train. The body was not identified until last Saturday. Although noted for his many charities in life, Congressman Sullivan made no provision in his will to perpetuate them. His estate is estimated at $300,000, divided among his brothers and sisters and their children. The will was drawn five years ago.

Sullivan was one of the best beloved of the genial Tammany leaders whose power came from popularity in the swarming tenement districts that have voted many a Tammany candidate into office. His stronghold was the Bowery. There every Winter he distributed shoes and clothing to thousands of human derelicts.
