

City Property

$3000.00 For a 7-room house, a lot of fruit trees and about one acre of choice land close in. Easy terms.

$2000.00 Takes a 7-room bungalow almost new, lot 100x150 feet, good location. Easy terms.

$4000.00 Will buy one of the finest homes in the city. 7-room modern bungalow with 8 fine lots, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

Vacant lots for sale in different parts of the city from $125.00 up.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP GENERAL REAL ESTATE Lakeview : Oregon

Good Values for the Land Seeker

$40.00 per acre for a good West Side 160-acre ranch, improved with buildings and orchard.

$21.00 per acre for a 280-acre ranch five miles from Lakeview, 70 acres in first crop this year; splendid slope for irrigation and within half-mile of O.V.L. canal.

$10.00 per acre for 80 acres five miles West of Lakeview, irrigation ditch crosses one end which gives some water right.

A large number of 10-acre tracts with five-acre water right, at right prices.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1913.

See Curtis & Utley for two good real-estate investments. Jy 24-tf

The Fair weather promises to continue more than fair.

Bulgarian silks, velvets and trimmings. Mercantile Co.

For Rent—A good seven-room house at very reasonable price, two blocks from Grammar School. Apply at this office.

Max Bode last week left for California points to buy some dairy stock which he will have shipped into this valley.

C. E. Driver of Warner Lake was a business visitor in the county seat the first of the week, he having come over Sunday.

J. Frankl, the well known wool buyer who has been in Lakeview since early last Spring, Tuesday morning left on his return to his home in San Francisco.

Until further notice, The Embroidery Shop will be situated in the building formerly occupied by Mrs. Neilson's Millinery Store. Mrs. H. B. Alger.

James Young was in town Saturday from the Cottonwood sawmill. He reports a good run at the mill this season and the sale of a large amount of lumber.

Judge Van Fleet has granted the attorneys for Maury Dicks and Drew Camiacetti an additional twenty days stay of execution in which to perfect their appeals.

"The sweets of low prices never equals the bitterness of poor quality." You will find we keep the best candy that is possible to be turned out. The Kandy Kitchen.

C. C. Randolph who has a homestead at Crescent in the northeastern part of Klamath County is spending several days in Lakeview, he having come down with Earl Austin in the latter's auto.

Frank Wilson is making choice tamales back of the Inn Bar. Henry Dippe is selling them over town, taking the place of the colored man who formerly sold the tamales. Phone Main 311. S 11-t-4

E. S. Rader, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Western Pacific, came in on Tuesday evening's train and will spend a few days in this vicinity looking after the interests of his company.

D. M. McLemore, of Klamath Falls who with Albert Walker of Bly has some blooded stock for sale, was in the proposal, and William Barnes, Jr., Lakeview last week for the purpose of making some sales to local stockmen.

The first dance of the weekly dances and socials for the winter in the Antlers Club will be held next Saturday evening. All members and their wives or lady friends are requested to attend. By order of F. P. Cronemiller, president.

H. L. Chandler, proprietor of the Northern Stage Line was in town last week from his Crooked Creek ranch, he having come in to get some school books and supplies for the school which recently opened in his district. Miss Madge Doubletree has been employed as a teacher.

Crater Lake National Park contains an area of 249 square miles or 159,360 acres. Crater Lake itself has a water surface of 2414 square miles, 6177 feet above sea level, and has a depth of 2001 feet. The lake was first discovered by John Hillman, the head of a party of gold hunters on June 12, 1853.

A press dispatch from Alturas states that the capital stock has been fully subscribed for the organization of a new bank under the state laws at that place. J. H. Derevan, J. H. Stewart, A. Gibson and others are said to be the heaviest among local stockholders. The capital stock has been fixed at $25,000.

The sum of $270,000 has been named as a conservative estimate of the cost of the mountain section of Jackson County's portion of the Pacific Highway. The cost of the mountain section is based on a mileage of 13 1/2 miles at $20,000 a mile, $10,000 a mile each for grading and paving. This portion of the highway extends from the Barron ranch to California line. The mountain section will have a concrete base, surfaced with some standard paving material and is to be 16 feet wide in addition to a four-foot extension on each side.

For Sale—Team and harness; $50. Enquire at this office. S 25-t3

New line of coats for ladies and misses. Mercantile Co.

Good line of ladies wool dresses just in. Mercantile Co.

J. H. Green of the 7T ranch in Warner Valley was in town Monday.

For Sale—Fine quality baited hay at reasonable price. Dan Brennan, Forest Office.

Mrs. W. J. White Tuesday morning took her departure on the south bound train for Reno.

Wanted: Pupils on all Brass Instruments Mandolin, Violin, Guitar, Piano and Harmony. Apply to Jesse Darnell. S 25-t-3.

F. H. Oliver of Spokane who has been spending several days in Warner Valley yesterday departed for Klamath Falls.

About 50 head of good grade Shropshire buck lambs for sale. Enquire or write Pelton-Slaemor Co., Fort Klamath, Or. S

Judging by the size and quality of some of the numerous squashes and pumpkins on display in the Fair room, this is the original land of "Peter Piper."

Supervisor Gilbert D. Brown and Clerk D. P. Brennan of the Fremont Forest Tuesday left for Crescent by auto. They are expected home tomorrow.

George Swanson, sheep and cattle buyer of Sacramento, was here a short time the latter part of last week. He recently bought the Chas. Sherlock mutton.

For Sale Cheap—Three buggies, one rubber tire, with set of harness; one phaeton almost new, and one single seat buggy. Enquire Wm. Harvey, Lakeview, Oregon.

Mrs. E. E. Colvin last Thursday morning received a telegram from her son, Harvey, stating that a baby girl had been born to her and Mrs. Colvin at their home in Oakland on that date.

Judge W. S. Worden, of Klamath County, has been named as one of the eight special commissioners to assist in the preparations for the Portola Festival to be given in San Francisco October 22 to 25.

Joe Parman, a prominent sheepman of Bidwell was in Lakeview last week, he having come over on business connected with the shipment of lambs which he recently sold to W. P. Carey of San Francisco.

Rolla McDonald is having several improvements made to his residence in the Watson Addition. A bath room has been added and the entire house has been painted which greatly adds to its appearance.

Harry Cannon this week came up from Woodland, Cal. He states that Mrs. Cannon has been seriously ill the past several weeks but is now out of all danger. During her sickness she was treated at hospitals at both Sacramento and Oakland.

E. Keller was up yesterday from his ranch at New Pine Creek and brought an excellent display of fruits and vegetables for the County Fair. Among other choice products Mr. Keller is exhibiting some samples of grapes grown on his place.

Chas. Zahn, wife and son were arrivals in Lakeview yesterday evening from Cloud County, Kansas, having taken advantage of the Homeseekers rates west. They have come with the intention of spending the Winter in Lake County, and to locate permanently if they like the country.

F. A. Fitzpatrick superintendent of the ZX ranch Tuesday departed for San Francisco in his auto to attend the delivery of the company's beef cattle which will be shipped from Klamath Falls. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. C. B. Parker, of Adel who will spend the Winter in California.

Manager F. O. Bunting and Miller George Hammerley are very busily engaged in manufacturing flour at the Lakeview Mills. The mill is now being operated time and a quarter, running up to nine o'clock P. M. Last Monday 30,000 pounds of wheat were delivered at the mill by farmers from over the valley.

W. S. Lamb, recently of California, this week purchased 160 acres of timber land on Salt Creek from F. P. Light and Geo. D. Harrow and will establish a wood yard here. Mr. Lamb also purchased the E. S. Hoyt residence property in the Walters Addition, and will shortly take possession. Mr. Hoyt and family expecting to remove to Rochester, Nevada to locate.

Wm. Barrington is now working as clerk in the local N.-C.-O. depot.

T. A. Crump, of Adel is spending a few days in Lakeview this week.

Extra nice lot of all the newest west dress and coat goods. Mercantile Co.

For Sale—Ten head of milk cows. See J. C. Oliver, West Side. A 28-tf

J. T. Flook, a prosperous stockman of Rock Creek, was a business visitor in Lakeview last week.

If Mr. Sulzer is as homely as the newspaper pictures show him, he ought to be impeached.

WOOD—We are now prepared to take orders for your Winter's wood in any quantities, at $6.00 per cord. O'Neill & Dunlap. Jy 19-tf

Luke Walker and mother, Mrs. Albert Walker of Bly, were in Lakeview a few days last week, the guests of Mrs. Dora Lane.

Miss Lera Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Duke, has gone to Summer Lake where she will teach school this Winter.

A choice five room bungalow, all furnished, in best residence section for sale very cheap. For particulars inquire of H. W. Drenkel.

H. B. Millard, of the Warner Valley Irrigation Co., Monday arrived here from Portland, and continued on to the Warner Valley on business connected with the project.

Wm. Combs the first of the week left for his former home at Freeport, Mich., where he was called on business in connection with property interests at that place.

Emil Enquist was in town Friday from his sheep camp near Cottonwood. He stated that his stock were in good condition, but that a storm would greatly improve the range.

George H. Bixby, a millionaire of Long Beach, Cal., who has been on trail the past several days charged with having contributed to the downfall of minor young women, was found not guilty by the jury.

Wm. Harvey, the horse buyer, Sunday arrived by auto from Harney County from which place he had a band of horses brought to this valley. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Brown accompanied him over from Adel.

F. L. Young, superintendent of the American Soda Products Co., and wife have been spending several days in Lakeview of late. Mr. Young has just completed a nice dwelling house near the soda mine at Alkali Lake.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Mrs. Neilson, are requested to call at the store not later than Oct. 15, and arrange for the settlement of the account, which has been placed with us for collection. H. B. Alger, at Mrs. Neilson's old stand.

W. B. Chance, deputy state labor commissioner, arrived in Lakeview Saturday from Albany and devoted a few days in this section posting both employers and employees on the Oregon laws for the protection of labor. He departed yesterday morning.

The Alturas Phisidealer is entitled to all grand sweepstake prizes for genuine boasting in the following: "A correspondent asks: 'Is Modoc county healthy? Healthy. Why, here is Grandpa Henderson, Dennis O'Brien and lots of others that will have to be shot on the day of judgment. Healthy.'"

The Examiner this week received a copy of a French newspaper, up in one corner of which was penciled "Lourdes, France, September 18, 1913, yours truly, Old Mike Barry." Thanks for the remembrance, Mike, but in order to thoroughly appreciate the "news" you should have sent an interpreter along.

R. B. Piper, recently of Colorado, last week bought thirty acres of land a few miles west of Lakeview from J. W. Thompson, paying $650 for the property. The same field this year produced 1206 bushels of barley. Mr. Piper and wife are living on the O'Neill & Dunlap ranch at the west end of Slash road.

R. C. Turrittin, cashier of the Nixon National Bank of Reno, recently purchased from John Quinn 2289 ewes, 1330 lambs and 595 wethers, the prices being $4.25 for ewes, $2.50 for lambs and $2.75 for wethers. He also bought 2500 ewes from Roy Chandler, the price being the same as that paid for the Quinn ewes. The stock was purchased for the Pyramid Land and Livestock Co., and will be used to stock the old Flanning ranch at Pyramid Lake, Nevada. Mr. Turrittin is in the field for more choice sheep and is at present at Rock Creek inspecting the sheep belonging to J. T. Flook.

Motor Cycle, in good condition, for sale cheap. See Curtis & Utley. A7-tf

C. B. Parker and wife came over from the MC ranch at Adel Tuesday.

Simon Juanto was in town from his sheep camp this week buying supplies.

W. H. Casebeer, a sheepman of the Bly country, was transacting business here a few days last week.

Do not forget the dance at the opera house to-morrow night. Music will be furnished by four-piece orchestra.

Earl Austin returned to Lakeview last week from near Bend where he has been employed as Forest ranger.

During the presence of County Commissioner Wakefield in town last week a special session of the county court was held last Friday and Saturday.

Ike Robinett, a substantial farmer of the New Pine Creek section, came up from his ranch yesterday evening and will remain until after the fair.

Mrs. Eugene Smith and two children have removed to Lakeview from Butte in the northern part of the county, and will remain here this Winter while the children attend school.

F. A. Remington, of the Lake County Fair board, yesterday evening arrived from Lake in the northern part of the county with a wagon load of exhibits from his district.

County Commissioner T. B. Wakefield and family last week came over from Warner Lake to attend the funeral of Bryon Dodson. Mrs. Wakefield and Mrs. J. C. Dodson are sisters.

W. R. Steele has taken a position in Bieber's Cash Store, he having begun work yesterday. F. S. Longfellow is now acting as night clerk in the Hotel Lakeview, filling the position vacated by Mr. Steele.

U. S. Mail Auto Stage—Leaves Lakeview for Paisley every day except Sunday, at 7 a. m. Passengers please book at Joe Fuller's stage office. Fares, one way $5.00; round trip, $8.00. Southstone Bros. J12-tf

W. B. Barnes and family were over last week from Klamath County on a short visit, the guests of M. S. Barnes and family. W. B. was at one time assessor of Lake County and has numerous friends in this section.

T. H. Cloud yesterday received a splendid specimen of deer head, the antlers having five points, from Chas. Ohles, who has a homestead near Drews Valley. The animal was killed Tuesday at Secret Valley, and its weight was estimated at 300 pounds.

Taking advantage of the good roads the sheepmen are now purchasing their supplies in Lakeview in large quantities. Last week Bailey & Massingill sent out 22,000 pounds of camp supplies to O'Keefe & Parman and O'Keefe & Fitzgerald in Guano Valley.

District Attorney John Irwin of Lake and Klamath Counties, and wife have returned to Klamath Falls from an extended trip to Pennsylvania and other eastern points, says the Northwestern. Mrs. Irwin is reported as greatly improved in health since her operation performed while she and her husband were in Denver.

Two masked bandits held up and robbed the New York-New Orleans express in Alabama the other day, and escaped with $100,000. The bandits who were later captured turned out to be two mere boys. A deputy sheriff while searching for the robbers was fatally shot by another deputy who took the man for one of the fugitives.

The local Chapter Royal Arch Masons will hold a banquet Friday evening, October 3, at the Colorado Cafe after conferring degrees on new candidates, the new members being Frank Rogers, Joe Fuller, James Blaisdell and S. V. Rehart. An invitation has been extended to members of the Alturas Chapter, and a socially good time is anticipated.

That which is said to have re-awakened interest in Mexican affairs is the nomination of Frederico Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, by the Catholic party for president. While the United States might ultimately recognize Gamboa, if chosen at a legal and fair election, the disposition in official circles is to doubt whether he could be elected.

Fred Bremer last week came over from Klamath Falls to meet Mrs. Bremer who has been here the past month visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Rehart. He was accompanied on the trip from Klamath Falls by R. E. Guthridge of that place and Charles Barry and wife who have been in San Francisco. Mr. Barry is a son of Mrs. E. F. Cheney and his wife is a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rehart of this city.

GEE WING FAUN

Has recently opened the New York Cafe in the old Bank Building on Water Street, and is prepared to serve the public in a first class manner. Everything is new and clean and will be conducted in up-to-date style, specializing on dinner parties and dance suppers. Meals served at any hour, day or night.

Walk-Over Shoes

One of the new ones, in tan buckskin, low heels, double soles; a medium heavy shoe that is dressy
PRICE—FIVE DOLLARS

Other Walk-Overs in Black and Tan, at $4.50 and $5.00

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

New Coats

We have just received a big shipment of Ladies' La Vogue Coats, Ladies' Dresses and Children's Coats. They are all up-to-date and good, heavy materials. You will have to see them to appreciate the values.

Brocade Velvets and Velvetens.

Bulgarian Silks for Trimmings.

A big line of heavy Suitings and Cloakings 58 and 60 inches wide.

Nice line of Ratine to choose from at 60c and $1.25.

These are all up-to-date 1913 goods and we believe we can please you.

Watch Our Windows for New Goods

Lakeview Mercantile Co.

