John McDonough is selling sauer kraut at the Old Duckworth store on Water street.

J. T. Flook, the Rock Creek stockman, is spending several days in Lakeview this week.

Dan Jones and Earl Wilshire left last week for San Francisco, accompanying a large shipment of sheep.

Lost pair of gold rimmed glasses last week on High School grounds. Finder please leave with Prof. Gardner at High School.

W. P. Carey, the San Francisco mutton buyer, will today receive 2000 lambs from Wm. Barry which he recently purchased.

Lost in Lakeview Thursday evening, Oct. 2, key ring containing about twenty keys. Owner's name on ring. Finder please leave with Dr. E. H. Smith.

Attorney E. R. McKee returned Saturday evening from Woodburn, Oregon, where he was recently called on account of the death of a young brother.

Numerous new faces are noticeable in our city of late, owing to homeseekers here during the western colonist rates being in effect from the east and middle west.

C. D. Arthur Friday evening returned from San Francisco where he went with a large shipment of mutton sheep which he and O. T. McKendree recently purchased from local growers.

H. C. Goff of Valley Falls was transacting business here a few days the first of the week. Mr. Goff had some nice exhibits at the fair which were awarded different premiums.

J. F. Kimball, of the Klamath-Lake Counties Fire Association and local representative of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co., accompanied by his wife last week passed through Lakeview from Klamath Falls on their way to Summer Lake.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Aid have today gone to the O'Neill & Dunlap ranch west of town where they will be entertained and incidentally sack the large potato crop on that place, turning the proceeds of their labors into the church.

Luke Walker of Bly was in Lakeview several days last week. He is interested with D. M. McLemore, of Klamath County, in a large band of blooded beef steers that were recently brought from Arizona. Mr. Walker reports that they have sold quite a number of the stock in their home county, but have made no sales here.

The Lassen Mail says that while running a donkey engine at Riddell's camp, Theodore Johnson, who is well known in Susanville, was killed one evening last week. It seems that the train jumped the track and Johnson was pinned beneath the engine. Death was caused by scalding from the steam and hot water from the engine.

T. B. Wakefield, of Warner Lake was here last week to receive a large load of supplies which were taken out over the new road through Bullard canyon. When this road is completed it is believed that nearly all the business of that section will be diverted here instead of going to Bidwell and other points farther away as it has heretofore.

S. Feeler had a splendid sample of honey on display at the fair last week which was produced on the Geo. Hammersley place at New Pine Creek. Mr. Feeler has a homestead in the Pine Creek canyon and will soon remove his hives to that place. He has 93 stands of bees and the Examiner can vouch for the quality of honey, as we acknowledge receipt of a kind remembrance from Mr. Feeler.

Today on the Polo grounds at New York City is being played the third game between Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants to decide the world's championship in baseball. The series opened Tuesday when Philadelphia defeated the Giants in a score of 6 to 4. New York returned the trick yesterday, however by winning in a ten-inning game with a score of 3 to 0. They are playing for the best four games out of seven.

Remember the Art Exhibition next week.

According to the semi-annual report recently published on the condition of Klamath County, the total amount of unpaid county warrants is $465,541.59, with interest amounting to $1,250.00. Apparently pretty bad financial circumstances for our sister county.

The Klamath papers report that the J. G. Johnson Company of San Francisco last week shipped fifteen cars of lambs from the Klamath Falls yards. The lambs were raised by and purchased from Dave Adler who raises large bands of sheep in both Lake and Klamath Counties.

A party of Summer Lake farmers and stockmen composed of C. W. Withers, C. L. Withers, Z. G. Harris and G. S. Minton Friday came down to attend the closing session of the County Fair, at which the Summer Lake vicinity was well represented with a magnificent exhibit.

According to a late report from Mexico five of the northern states of that republic have seceded in convention at Hermosillo, Sonora. This quintet formed the Confederate states of Mexico, and it is further reported that the union will apply for annexation by the United States.

Jules Jassaud, a sheepman of Warner Lake was in town last week attending to the shipment of several cars of sheep which he recently sold to W. P. Carey, of San Francisco. The Examiner erred a few weeks ago in stating that Mr. Jassaud had sold his mutton to J. H. Green of Montana and that the sheep would be shipped from Bend.

The general appearance of the weather since Saturday last has indicated that we would be entirely robbed of our beautiful Indian Summer. Light sprinklings of snow have been noticed on the higher mountain peaks at different times, with cold rains in the valley. With the sun coming out this morning, however, prospects look much brighter and we can fairly hope for our usual good Fall weather yet.

The so-called Medford rate bill, which was adopted by the people of Oregon under the initiative on November 5, 1912, and which made sweeping changes in freight rates in the state, has been declared unconstitutional and void in a decision by Judges of the United States District Court in Portland and the United States Court of Appeals in San Francisco. The measure has been generally referred to as the "Medford" rate bill because of charges that it was prepared and placed on the ballot in the selfish interests of Medford merchants. Frank H. McCune was its author.

For Sale—Team and harness; $50. Enquire at this office. S 25-13

Extra nice lot of all the newest dress and coat goods. Mercantile Co.

One of the largest transactions for beef cattle in the county was made within the last few days when Edson Foulke of Gazelle purchased the H. A. Brattain stock. It is stated that the deal involved something over $20,000.

Art Exhibit

The Art Exhibition to be held at the High School next week will be one of the pleasant features of the year. Over 200 reproductions of the great masterpieces will be presented and tastefully hung. Catalogues will be on sale giving much information concerning the pictures and carefully prepared guides will conduct parties through the room and give explanations concerning the different authors and their works. Three programs will be given free—Thursday evening at 7:30; Friday afternoon at 2:30 and Friday evening at 7:30. Admission to the exhibition 25c and children 10c. Money to be used to buy pictures for the school.

School Notes

Remember the Art Exhibit at the school house Thursday and Friday Oct. 16 and 17.

On account of the Annual Teachers Institute there will be no school next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. School will resume Thursday morning.

Material for Manual Training has arrived and the benches are now being made. Soon the pupils will be at regular work.

The new chemical laboratory has arrived and is being rapidly put in place. The chemistry class now has a good equipment and will do some splendid work.

The athletic boys are finishing a pack for Basket Ball and will begin practicing at once. There was some thought of Foot Ball but at present the team looks doubtful.

All High School classes are organized. The Freshmen have the following officers: Pres. Virgil Brattain, vice-president Clyde Clark, secy-treas. Nelda Clark, sergeant at arms, Vernon Stickle. The Sophomores headed their organization by electing as President, Mary Herford; Vice-president, Floy Bernard; Sec. Dola Garrett; Treasurer, Alice Curtis; Sergeant at Arms, Will Storkmann. Foresters Celebrate

The members of Court Pinewood No. 8530, Ancient Order of Foresters, have every reason to feel proud of the showing they made on Monday night of this week when they celebrated the seventeenth anniversary of their existence in this city.

As guest of honor, Mr. Summerlad, of the High Court, San Francisco, was in attendance, and just before social program was commenced, spoke for a few moments on the strength and unity of the A. O. F., and the advantages of being a member.

Dancing started at about 9 o'clock, being interrupted only at midnight, when an excellent chicken supper was served. The menu consisted of salads, olives, chicken, coffee, cakes, fruits, etc., and was enjoyed by all. After supper dancing was resumed until about 2:30 Tuesday morning, when those who were still present departed for home.

Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Darnell and Mr. Charles Gott.

The committee in charge of the entertainment consisted of Rial Striplin, E. S. Arthur and T. Watson.

About 75 members and invited guests were present.
