Great many are making preparations for the grand ball Thursday evening. Everybody is hoping that Prof. Darnell will give us an open air concert.

We hope to be able to give out the news to the public in the near future that the Miller Hotel in New Pine Creek will be opened in an up to date style.

We understand Mrs. Wingfield who spent last summer here is very ill at her home in San Diego, Cal. Mrs. Al Gallagher is making arrangements to leave for there at once.

Will C. Fleming has some fine Irish potatoes on exhibition at Wendt's Candy Kitchen. They were grown on his ranch west of New Pine Creek.

The spuds weigh 3 1-2 pounds each.

Several Indians are camped at Ebb Follett's Ranch and we hear the sweet music of their stick games every night. After the Indian Fair at Ft. Bidwell a large crowd of Indians is expected here.

Henry Cook, City Marshal, resigned last week and Geo. Wendt was appointed by the City Council to fill the vacancy. Marshall Wendt made an arrest on the day of his appointment and enriched the City Treasury the sum of $10.

Mr. Geo. W. Knapp who spent the summer here with his daughter returned to his home in Oklahoma a short time ago. He sent a fine specimen of cotton to one of the teachers here to have exhibited at school. It will prove a great benefit to the pupils who have taken up the study of plant life. There is only one stock but it contains the green bowls also at the opening stage and when it is ready to be picked and ginned.

A very enjoyable time was had at New Pine Creek at the reception given by the citizens to the Teacher's and some friends of Modoc County. Never was there a more public spirit shown than on this occasion. The Ladies of our city prepared a delightful 6 o'clock dinner and the decorations of autumn leaves etc. were very artistic. Several interesting talks were made and the jokes were very much enjoyed by the large crowd that was present. We hope to see our Modoc friends back again.

HANLEY DELEGATE TO WASHINGTON

Harney Man Will Aably Represent State at Conservation Congress.

William Hanley, of Burns, Oregon, was appointed by the Portland Commercial Club to represent it as a delegate at the fifth National Conservation Congress at Washington, D. C., November 18, 19 and 20, says the Oregonian. Mr. Hanley is vice-president of the Oregon Development League and president of the Central Oregon Development League.

Secretary Chapman, of the Commercial Club is elated over the club's choice of a delegate. "It is the first time in the history of the Conservation Congress that we have ever had a man to present truly the Western frontier point of view," said Mr. Chapman yesterday. "It is the first time that practice has raised its voice against theory. The theories of the conservationists have been applied to the extent that they have paralyzed certain large areas of the West. They have tied up Alaska. Now, for the first time, the Eastern theorists are going to be told about the conditions under which we have writhed."

There has been considerable correspondence between Secretary Chapman and the president and secretary of the Conservation Congress. The club was not keen about sending a delegate if the congress was to be a one-sided affair.

The official call for the congress declares that protection of our forests and waterways is the great conservation issue before us recently, that our forests and waterways are at stake.

The state is entitled to send 15 delegates and the city five and the Commercial Club, the Chamber of Com-

The Democratic rally held last night in the Woodman Hall was fairly well attended by loyal Democrats. The party from Lakeview who came up to assist the local members in getting an organization perfected, were, O. C. Gibbs, S. P. Moss, Sam Bailey, H. B. Alger and T. B. Vernon. Each one of the above named gentlemen, favored the audience with appropriate short speeches after which a constitution and by-laws were adopted, officers elected, and a regular meeting place decided upon. The club will hereafter work in connection with the regular Democratic organization of the county in furthering the interests of the party.

The board of governors of the Portland Rose Festival association has decided upon the second week in June as the time of 1914 festival. An historic pageant representing Oregon's history from the earliest beginnings to the present time will be the principal feature of the event.

Much dry plowing is being done at Fremont this fall, but little grain will be sown unless it rains soon.

J. W. Embody is shipping some samples of lumber to his brother Charles at Portland this week, via express.

The 565,928 acres in the Paulina Reserve which are expected to be opened for homesteading soon will probably be taken by lot.

A Farmers Institute was held at Ft. Rock Monday, October 20. Among the speakers were Professors G. R. Hyslop and Edward B. Fittz of the Oregon Agricultural College. The lectures were illustrated with stereopticon views.

Just as we go to press word is received from Representative Sinnott that the Director of the Geological Survey had informed him that he had just recommended that Sec. 7, and 8, 16 to 23, and 25 to 36 Tp. 26 S. Range 16 E. W. M. and Sec. 1 and 2, 11 to 14, 23 to 26 and 35 to 36 in Tp. 27, Range 16 E. W. M. be designated for entry under the enlarged homestead act.

L. D. Fox stopped in Fremont for dinner on Friday and had with him a mysterious man who had engaged the car in Bend for a 700 mile run. From Bend they went to Burns, then through Harney and Malheur Valleys to Alturas, Cal., back through Lakeview to Silver Lake, then to Lake and Fremont and from here to Klamath Falls via Crescent. The man's name was Coleman, he was good at asking questions and just as good at keeping to himself what he knew and what he was doing, but when approached on the transportation question he quickly turned the conversation to the Giants and other ball players.

According to an opinion rendered recently by Attorney-General Crawford, Crater Lake, though embraced in National territory, comes within the police power of this state, and anglers must have a license from the state in order to fish in its waters. The lake is an inland body of water and over all such the police powers of the state extend.

Mrs. Jack Partin has returned to her home at Summer Lake from Lakeview where she has been under the care of Dr. Russell. She is much improved and we hope she will continue to do so as she has been sick a long time.

Dad Worthington, who has held the position of foreman with the ZX Company for the past five years, has given up his piece and has gone to the valley. After a visit with relatives at Eugene, he expects to go to California, where he will take a similar job.

The meeting held last Sunday afternoon to further the arrangement for a creamery at Silver Lake was a very successful one and was well attended. The committee that had been chosen to make a canvass among the farmers to determine the number of cows which would be subscribed, failed to make a report. However, enough farmers were present who pledged more than enough cows to make the number asked for.

Last Sunday morning Miss Alma Martin received her appointment as post mistress of the Silver Lake office, and as soon as her bonds have been accepted she will take charge, which will probably be near the first of the month. F. M. Chrisman who has had the office continuously for more than 23 years, is glad to be relieved, as he sent in his resignation nearly four months ago, and since Miss Martin has received the appointment he has been wearing a smile that "won't come off."

HOW TO VOTE AT ELECTION

bers of each body affirmatively on such measure it becomes a law of the state. They do not vote 'no' when opposed to sustaining the Governor's veto, but they vote 'yes' notwithstanding the Governor's veto, and so it is when the people vote upon which the referendum has been involved.

"Probably the best guide for the voter to follow would be by asking himself the question 'Am I in favor of this bill becoming a law?' If so he votes 'yes.' If he is not in favor of its becoming a law should vote 'no.'"

J. N. Taylor is one of the many visitors in town this week from Paisley.
