

City Property

$3000.00 For a 7-room house, a lot of fruit trees and about one acre of choice land close in. Easy terms.

$2000.00 Takes a 7-room bungalow almost new, lot 100x150 feet, good location. Easy terms.

$4000.00 Will buy one of the finest homes in the city. 7-room modern bungalow with 8 fine lots, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

Vacant lots for sale in different parts of the city from $125.00 up.

"We Sell The Real Earth"
O'NEILL & DUNLAP
 GENERAL
 REAL ESTATE
 Lakeview : Oregon

Good Values for the Land Seeker

$40.00 per acre for a good West Side 160-acre ranch, improved with buildings and orchard.

$21.00 per acre for a 280-acre ranch five miles from Lakeview, 70 acres in first crop this year; splendid slope for irrigation and within half-mile of O.V.L. canal.

$10.00 per acre for 80 acres five miles West of Lakeview, irrigation ditch crosses one end which gives some water right.

A large number of 10-acre tracts with five-acre water right, at right prices.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1913.

BRIEF MENTION

Buy your flour from the Lakeview Mills.

Extra nice lot of all the newest dress and coat goods. Mercantile Co.

Herman Graber was in town Saturday from his ranch at the head of the lake.

L. D. Hoy, a well known Summer Lake sheepman, was here a few days last week.

Henry Stine, keeper of the Rook Creek station, is spending a few days in Lakeview this week.

L. E. McCulley of Cedarville was here a few days this week, he having come over in his Morris car.

WOOD—We are now prepared to take orders for your Winter's wood in any quantities, at $6.00 per cord. O'Neill & Dunlap. Jy 10-tf

Francis Anderson of Plush, came over to the County seat Sunday and is spending a few days here attending to business matters.

For Sale Cheap—Three buggies, one rubber tire, with set of harness; one phaeton almost new, and one single seat buggy. Enquire Wm. Harvey, Lakeview, Oregon.

H. M. Southstone and family and Morris Southstone and family expect to leave shortly for Los Angeles to locate permanently.

Chas. Mahan and family who have had charge of the Mineral Springs bath house below town the past several months expect to soon remove to Fallon, Nevada, to locate.

H. F. Swingle of Ft. Rock in the northern part of the county recently sold five span of mules to James Campbell of Phoenix, Oregon, receiving for them the neat price of $150 per head.

Rev. Geo. A. Crawford, pastor of the Lakeview Presbyterian church, and wife returned home last Thursday evening after a two week's visit to Portland where they attended the Synod and Presbyteria.

Several more car loads of lambs and mutton sheep were shipped from the local yards Saturday and Sunday by McKendree & Arthur who have purchased the greater portion of Lake County's sheep this season.

J. M. Small of Silver Lake Saturday delivered 100 head of spring calves here which he sold to C. E. Sherlock. The price paid was $30 per head, and the stock will be wintered by Carl Lew on the Sherlock ranch a few miles below town.

George Easter, who for the past several months has been employed hauling supplies from here to the Drews dam by the Goose Lake Valley Irrigation Company, has returned to Fallon, Nevada where he has some real estate.

The Lakeview C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Snelling, at 7:30 p. m., Monday, November 3. Program: Roll call, current events, "Where Civilizations Meet" (The Chautauquan.) I. The Classic Mediterranean. Miss Knight. II. Islam: Races and Religion, Miss Snelling.

The members of Darnell's band, accompanied by a few other Lakeview people, went to New Pine Creek last Thursday night for the Harvest Ball given in Wendt's opera house at that place. The dance proved a success and the band netted about $25 as their share of the proceeds.

Darnell's Band will give a Halloween dance at the Snider opera house tonight. The dancing hours are from 9 to 1 o'clock, the price being $1.00, with a 25 cent charge for male spectators. The band boys have been rehearsing some new and popular dance music and promise a program that will please.

A troupe traveling under the name of the "Mysterious Marshalls" gave performances at the Snider opera house Friday and Sunday evenings. Their entertainment consisted of a varied program, including spiritualism, trunk mystery, magic, singing, dancing, travesties and other modes of amusement.

Ft. Bidwell News: Dan P. Brown, superintendent of the Corporation Ranch of Warner Valley, accompanied by his wife, departed in their auto from here Tuesday morning for Berkeley, where they will remain until spring. James Wall accompanied them from here being on his way to Los Angeles, where he will be employed until spring, when he expects to return to the High Grade mining district.

New line of coats for ladies and misses. Mercantile Co.

Wm. Roush was in town yesterday from his ranch at Clover Flat.

P. J. Erattan and family of Paisley were registered Sunday at Hotel Lakeview.

For Rent—Roomy house and barn, $7.50 per month. Enquire Fred Spangenburg. Oct. 23-tf

Miss Ida Howard of Drews Valley is visiting in town this week with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Arthur.

I. O. Orem and family last week left for Mulino, Clackamas County, where they expect to locate.

The Embroidery Shop will be located one door South of the Matchless Store, opposite the P. O., after Nov. 1st. Mrs. H. B. Alger. O30 tf.

Sheriff Snider has been sending out election supplies to the different voting precincts over the county for the special election next week.

Miss Edna Hawley, Supreme Court librarian, announces that copies of the catalogue of textbooks are ready for distribution among the lawyers of the state.

Ed Casbeer and Jas. Watts of Bly last week delivered 2250 lambs here which the latter sold to McKendree & Arthur. The price is reported at $3.00 per head.

J. A. Hoeling, who was formerly employed in the Lakeview Garage, accompanied by his wife Tuesday went to Klamath Falls where he has a position in the White Pelican Garage.

A. J. Hickerson is out on the streets after a continued period of sickness, suffering from an attack of appendicitis. He expects to soon go to San Francisco to undergo an operation.

C. R. Seager and wife, formerly of Lakeview but recently of Sacramento, are here this week attending to the shipment of their furniture to Davis Creek where they will locate on their farm.

An eastern editor sarcastically remarks: "The biggest trust on earth is the country newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting."

Cedarville Record: Wm. Rinehart was in from Guano last week after supplies. For the past sixteen years he has been foreman out there for W. T. Cressler and has at all times performed his duties in a satisfactory manner.

The balance of the former stock of Mrs. Nelson's ladies' furnishing store and millinery, will be moved into the building formerly occupied by the Lakeview Variety Store on Nov. 1st, where it will be on sale from now on. Opposite the Post Office.

John Eremoste and Dominica Eremoste were married last week in Alturas. The groom is a brother of the late Mr. Eremoste who was murdered in Little High Rock canyon by the Snake renegades, and his bride is the brother's widow.

Realizing that this is the closing week of the deer season for this year there was quite an exodus of hunters Monday morning to the different haunts of these animals. The season closes tomorrow and as a consequence the nimrods are compelled to limit their pursuits to that time.

Ed Franklin of Ft. Bidwell was in Lakeview last week with a party of Los Angeles capitalists who had been inspecting the Cow Head irrigation project in upper Surprise Valley, in which George H. Ayres formerly of this place is interested. From here the party was taken to Alturas.

New Era: Pete Keegle, superintendent of the Hess mine, was up the other day. He brought up for shipment a 7 pound brick of gold, the result of a ten days run. The mine is now running night and day crushing ore, while a force of men underground are taking out the ore and doing development work.

A blanket indictment has been returned against Harry Thaw. The count charges he and four others with the conspiracy in connection with his escape from the New York State Hospital. The indictment will be used as a weapon by William Travers Jerome in his efforts to extradite Thaw from New Hampshire.

Mrs. Maude Sharp and daughter, Miss Erma, arrived last Saturday evening in Lakeview from Park City, Utah, to take up their permanent residence. Mrs. Sharp is a daughter of Mrs. Jackson and a sister of Mrs. Chas. Umbach. She and her daughter are quite well known in Lakeview, they having spent several months here last year.

And still the good weather continues. Good line of ladies wool dresses just in. Mercantile Co.

L. P. Mauzey and C. F. Dixon Sunday came over from Warner Lake.

Banner Brand flour $26 per M., Fancy Patent, $30 per M. at the Lakeview Flour Mills.

Attorney E. S. Sherman came up yesterday from Alturas on business before the Circuit Court.

Cy Burgess of the Windy Hollow Mining district is spending several days in Lakeview.

L. Gerber, the well known stock buyer arrived in Lakeview last evening from Klamath County.

Leland Crump, son of T. A. Crump, of Adel was here the first of the week, he having come over Sunday.

F. I. Lyons, an attorney of Cedarville, is spending the week here visiting with his brother Dr. J. L. Lyons.

Mrs. McCulley and daughter Nora, of Cedarville have gone to Santa Rosa where they will spend the winter, while Miss Nora attends school.

John Rhodes and family and father, Louie, the first of the week left by private conveyances for California where they will spend the winter.

J. T. Sharp of Cedarville was committed to the Stockton Insane Asylum for one year by the superior court of Modoc County last week and he has been taken to that institution.

H. A. Hunter of the Hewitt Land Company was here a few days last week from Minneapolis, Minn., on business connected with the company's extensive holdings in this valley.

Closing out our corsets $3.50 corsets at $2.50 $3.00 corsets at $2.25 $2.50 corsets at $1.75 $1.75 corsets at $1.25 $1.50 and $1.25 corsets at $1.00 Parlane Millinery Main St. W. of Court House.

Mrs. T. S. Farrell, wife of Deputy District Attorney Farrell, Monday morning left for Salem with Rosie Mellott, who was committed to the Oregon State Industrial school at that place.

Mrs. Nannie Tracy and son, Roy, this week went to Crook County where Mrs. Tracy has filed on a homestead in the Millican Valley and her son bought a ranch near that place. C. S. Crosby took them up by auto.

The quality of Goose Lake Valley wheat this year makes the flour superior to all other brands. The Lakeview Mills respectfully request dealers and jobbers to consult them before placing their orders elsewhere.

Lou McCulley of Cedarville this week bought the J. C. Shellhammer sheep consisting of 130 ewes and 250 lambs. The price paid was $3.75 for the ewes and $2.50 for the lambs. The sheep will be driven to Surprise Valley.

Workmen are making good progress on the Daly building to be used by the Lakeview Garage. Nearly all the material is on the ground and with the present favorable weather the building will be well underway this Fall.

Victor Mahner, who has been residing at the Drews Gap a few miles west of town, has gone to Mt. Angel, Oregon to attend the German Lutheran school. He was accompanied by his mother on the trip as far as Weed, Cal.

S. K. Hilderbrand and daughter Mrs. Joe Bertand and sons arrived last week from Ft. Bidwell and are visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Maitland. They expect to soon leave for Modesto, Cal. where they have property interests.

Gordon Robertson, local representative of the Reno Brewing Company, was last week distributing a number of handsome souvenir clothes brushes, bearing the advertisement of his company. The article is useful as well as being a good advertiser.

County School Superintendent Oliver is in receipt of a letter from State Superintendent Churchill suggesting that he require the school districts of this county to report their special levies to his office, County Clerk and Assessor, as otherwise some question as to their legality may be raised.

The Circle lodge held a very enjoyable Halloween party in the I.O.O.F. hall last evening. A musical program was given in the fore part of the evening as well as numerous games suited to the occasion. After refreshments were served the hall was cleared and dancing was in order. About fifty couples were in attendance and all report having spent a very pleasant evening.

Dick Guinee a business man of Paisley was in Lakeview Saturday.

Motor Cycle, in good condition, for sale cheap. See Curtis & Utey. A7-tf

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Whittaker were shopping in town Monday from their home at Clover Flat.

Wheat Germ, Graham Flour Rolled Barley and Bran and Shorts at the Lakeview Flour Mills.

John Rose, foreman of the TT ranch in Warner last week returned from a short business trip to Klamath Falls.

Wanted: Pupils on all Brass Instruments Mandolin, Violin, Guitar, Piano and Harmony. Apply to Jesse Darnell. S 25-1 m.

The state militia of Colorado has been called out to settle the coal strikers riot and several battles have ensued.

E. W. Smith bought the Co-Op store at Adin a few days ago, paying 55 cents on the dollar according to invoice prices, says the Alturas New Era.

Henry Boydston and family have removed to town from the West Side for the winter. They are occupying the Chas. Rhodes house in the southern part of town.

H. C. Hanson, D. W. Alger and Ole Morgan constituted a party which left Monday morning on a deer hunt. They will return tomorrow, expecting to bring in a good supply of venison.

It is detrimental to every farmer, business man and citizen in the county to send money out of the county for flour when the very best can be had here at the Lakeview Flour Mills.

Attorney D. V. Kuykendall arrived yesterday evening from Klamath Falls. He is interested in the Young vs. Lumber Company case, which is the next to appear on the court docket.

I have in my possession one brown horse, branded SI on left side. Anyone calling and proving property can have same by paying charges. James H. Owens Bly, Klamath County, Oregon. Oct 23-tf

F. P. Lane is having his Center-Street property renovated in excellent shape. During the Summer he completed a large addition to it, and now he is having the entire building repainted. H. O. Kuhl is doing the work.

Gus Schlager is now the owner of an automobile, he having purchased one of the Southstone cars last week. He has been manipulating the gas cart the past few days, but as yet we have heard of no arrests for exceeding the speed limit.

E. J. Davis, of Paisley spent several days in Lakeview during the past week on business. Mr. Davis is one of the homesteaders that made good in that section, and he is well pleased with the land he secured from "Uncle Sam."

Those who went to the lake for duck shooting Sunday report very good success. In fact it is stated that the shooting had on the east side that day was the best yet this season. Nearly all birds bagged were canvas backs, the most valued wild ducks obtainable.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Funk will leave next Monday on an extensive trip including visits in Los Angeles, Kansas and Illinois. They will spend a month in the former place and then proceed east where they will visit during the winter with relatives and friends. They expect to return home next March.

W. Earl Forbes and Miss Esther Southstone were married in Lakeview last Thursday evening by County Judge Daly. Both young people are quite well known in Lakeview, the bride being a daughter of H. M. Southstone of this place. The young couple will make their future home in Los Angeles.

Quite an excitement was created just before noon last Friday when the fire alarm was sounded. Large crowds of citizens responded and the hose carts were quickly brought into play. A large smoke arising from the north-western part of town indicated a serious fire, but after racing several blocks it was detected that it was only sagebrush burning near the railroad track north of Slash.

The beginning of the regular monthly socials for the winter to be held by the local Encampment order will be Friday evening, November 7, in the I.O.O.F. hall. Dan Bemis and Gilbert D. Brown constitute the committee in charge and the program will include dancing and other forms of entertainment, to be followed by light refreshments. All Oddfellows and Rebekahs and their families are requested to attend.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.

REAL ESTATE

LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

THE COAT

For warmth-service and dressy appearance, in greys and plaids, price $9.00

Corduroy Vests with chamois lining, price $3.00

Moleskin Vests with chamois lining, price $3.50

Benjamin Overcoats,.....$18.00 to $25.00

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

NEW SUITS

We have just received a new line of Ladies' Suits by Express this morning, and we invite you to call and look at them. Everyone new, nobby styles. Also, we have a very large line of Ladies' heavy and medium Dress Goods that are selling every day. If in need of anything in this line we can please you. Big line of Ladies' and Misses' Sweater Coats, Ruff Necks and Norfolks, all sizes. Many other new goods in Winter weights that cannot be mentioned in this space. You will find the prices lower than many others are asking for them.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE COMPANY