

City Property

$3000.00 For a 7-room house, a lot of fruit trees and about one acre of choice land close in. Easy terms.

$3000.00 Takes a 7-room bungalow almost new, lot 100x150 feet. good location. Easy terms.

$4000.00 Will buy one of the finest homes in the city. 7-room modern bungalow with 8 fine lots, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

Vacant lots for sale in different parts of the city from $125.00 up.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP

GENERAL
REAL ESTATE

Lakeview : Oregon

Good Values for the Land Seeker

$40.00 per acre for a good West Side 160-acre ranch, improved with buildings and orchard

$21.00 per acre for a 280-acre ranch five miles from Lakeview, 70 acres in first crop this year; splendid slope for irrigation and within half-mile of O.V.L. canal.

$10.00 per acre for 80 acres five miles West of Lakeview, irrigation ditch crosses one end which gives some water right.

A large number of 10-acre tracts with five-acre water right, at right prices.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1913.

BRIEF MENTION

Curtis & Utley buy furs. N. 13

Good line of ladies wool dresses just in. Mercantile Co.

W. B. Houston, a sheep buyer of Ft. Bidwell, was in Lakeview this week.

For Rent—Roomy house and barn, $7.50 per month. Enquire Fred Spangenberg. Oct. 23-24

Gus Schroder returned to his home at Silver Lake last Saturday after spending several days in the county seat.

County Superintendent Oliver Sunday went to Paisley to attend a special meeting of the school board at that place.

A new side walk has been placed along the south side of the Jammerthal and Umbach buildings on Canyon street.

C. F. Shultz, who lives at Clover Flat, passed through town last week on his way home from Susanville where he has been the past several weeks.

Mrs. Blanche Wells, lately of San Francisco, is temporarily located at the residence of Mrs. James Judge and is prepared to do dressmaking and embroidery.

Mrs. C. R. Peterson and daughter of Ontario, Oregon, this week passed through Lakeview on their way home after visiting with relatives at Fort Bidwell. They will return home by way of Portland.

The plant of the Sash and Door factory at Bend was destroyed by fire last week. The Bulletin states that the origin of the fire is unknown and that the loss was about $6000, one-half of the amount being covered by insurance.

Stanley Hanson and wife were in town a few days the first of the week. He states that the team work on the South Drews canal will be completed this month. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will live in town this winter, occupying the Chas. E. Sherlock residence.

Mrs. Blanche Wells is a late arrival from San Francisco. She will locate here permanently engaging in dressmaking and giving instructions in embroidery work. At present she is located at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Judge on South Water street.

Art Garret, a local barber, is expected home today from Portland where he recently went to take an examination before the State Board of Barber Examiners. Mr. Garret will also purchase new furniture and fixtures and fit up a first class shop at his old stand in the John Flynn building.

The item in last week's Examiner referring to R. H. Boydston's yield of potatoes erred in stating that he secured 65 1-3 bushels per acre. The number of pounds on the total of 3 1-2 acres was correct, and figured out would show 165 1-3 bushels per acre, as it should have read instead of 65 1-3 bushels.

Deputy Sheriff E. E. Rinehart yesterday departed for Salem taking Ray Yarbrough, Len Parker and W. H. Mills, all of whom must serve terms in the state penitentiary. Yarbrough and Parker were convicted of rape and were sentenced to serve from three to twenty years, and Mills, convicted of forgery, was sentenced from one to five years.

Soren Peterson, who with his son recently came here from Racine, Wis. last week purchased through Curtis & Utley the Chas. Sherlock ranch, consisting of 170 acres, near the Drews Gap about ten miles west of town. Mr. Peterson and son will immediately locate on the ranch, engaging in general farming, featuring the raising of grain and alfalfa.

Wm. Harvey, the horse buyer, recently returned from a trip over Harney and other counties where he bought 75 head of horses. While returning with the stock to this valley he met with a misfortune which resulted in much trouble and inconvenience. The horses were placed in a field on the Warren Laird ranch and during the night they broke down the fence, all getting out and starting back to the various places from which they had come. Mr. Harvey says every animal out of the 75 got out excepting one mule. It took several days to again round up the band and he is still out six head.

New line of coats for ladies and misses. Mercantile Co

Extra nice lot of all the newest dress and coat goods. Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Nannie O'Neil and son, John, were up Monday from their home at New Pine Creek.

J. S. Branch, a Lake County sheep grower, was a business visitor in the city this week.

It cost the state of New York $1,250,000 to impeach Governor Sulzer, not including the expenses for counsel.

The Embroidery Shop will be located one door South of the Matchless Store, opposite the P. O., after Nov. 1st. Mrs. H. B. Alger. O30 if.

Dave Adler, the well known sheep baron of Lake and Klamath counties, was a business visitor in Lakeview this week.

Fifty head of blooded Durham bulls have just been put on the 77 ranch in Warner. The stock was bought in Southern California.

The Northwestern states that Guy Nyswaner of Lakeview has moved to Klamath Falls where he has taken a position at the Goodman Feed and Livery Stables.

George W. Syron, an old time resident of the Warner Valley and whose postoffice address is now Warner Lake, was a business visitor in Lakeview the first of this week.

Father P. P. Kern, pastor of the local Catholic Church, last Sunday announced his intention of resigning from this parish. He expects to go to Alaska when a successor arrives to take his place here.

On November 11 Cleveland, Ohio, was under 21 inches of snow, and its inhabitants are in imminent danger of suffering from lack of food. Transportation and communication facilities are greatly impaired.

From the Great Lakes to Florida and from New York to points west of Chicago, the east was in the grip of a snow, sleet and wind storm the first of this week. Several lives were lost and communication traffic suffered seriously.

Word has been received that John H. Wyatt, formerly a resident of this place, now of Grants Pass, recently suffered a severe fracture of his arm. While the injury is necessarily very painful Mr. Wyatt is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

The Lakeview C. L. S. G. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. D. Ventator, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Program: Roll Call, Current events, Rambles and Studies in Greece; Chapter XII, Miss Minnie Vernon, Chapter XIII Miss York. Chapter XIV, Mrs. Harry Bailey.

J. M. Fulton, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, came up from Reno last Saturday. It was his intention to remain here until today looking after business for his line, but left Monday morning on account of receiving a telegram suddenly calling him to San Francisco.

Mrs. Chas. E. Rice and two children came up last week from Alturas to have her little daughter treated by Dr. Smith of this place. Mrs. Rice's mother, Mrs. Gibbons, accompanied them and they were the guests of Mrs. James Judge. They returned home Monday morning, the little girl being greatly improved.

The social held last Friday evening by the local order of Encampment in the I.O.O.F. hall proved a very pleasing success. There were over 100 members and invited guests present and the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and other forms of amusement after which light refreshments were served. The socials will be continued monthly throughout the winter season.

As a matter of suggestion, if you are unable to have various prepared apple dishes on your table next Tuesday, Oregon's Apple Day, you can find a nicely prepared menu of the favorite fruit at the Hotel Lakeview. This is the first occasion of the kind ever to be observed in the state, and the people should show their faith in the famous Oregon product by featuring apples on their tables next Tuesday.

M. C. Currier, Wm. Dobkins, Martin Lauritzen and Carl Holder of Paisley brought down 200 head of beef cattle the first of the week, which they and a few other growers of the Paisley vicinity sold to Ben Cambron, a buyer from Reno. The stock was purchased for the Roth-Blum Co. of San Francisco, and a shipment was made today over the N.C.O. The price all around is said to be 12 1-2 cents.

James Dodson returned to Lakeview last week from a trip to Arizona.

Motor Cycle, in good condition, for sale cheap. See Curtis & Utley. A7-t

Al Smith has been working in the County Clerk's office during the present rush of business.

Supervisor Brown, of the local Forest Office, left last week for Klamath Falls on official business.

H. Z. Dangberg and C. O. Dangberg of Minden, Nevada, and W. O. Sims, an attorney of San Francisco, were in Lakeview the first of the week.

Mrs. C. E. Sherlock will leave next Saturday for Los Angeles where she will be joined later by her husband and they will spend the winter.

Deputy Game Warden LaSater of the Silver Lake district last week came down to the county seat, he having brought the election returns from his precinct.

T. J. Sullivan, proprietor of the Plush Hotel, was in Lakeview last week on business connected with securing a liquor license which was granted him by the County Court.

W. P. Vernon, a prosperous young farmer and stockman, who lives a few miles south of town, returned several days since from a short pleasure trip to Oakland and San Francisco where he attended the Portola Festival.

The County Court has been busily engaged in preparing a budget of the current expenses for the coming year. The budget, from which the 1913 tax levy will be made next month, will be printed in next week's issue of the Examiner.

Last Sunday afternoon a deer crossed down into the valley at the Frank Duke ranch below town. It seemed to be in no particular hurry, and crossed into the Cronemiller place and from there over into the Vernon ranch and on down to the tules.

A. H. Hammersley was in town last week, he having come in from Rock Creek where he has been the past several weeks with his brother, Wm., trapping coyotes and bob cats. He reports they have had very good success thus far this season.

All the stage lines operating in and out of Lakeview have now changed back to horses and coaches, taking place of automobiles that were used during the summer. The Western stage was the last to make the change, which was done last week.

A. C. Lowell, the Bidwell merchant, has an order from a San Francisco syndicate for thirty thousand pounds of alfalfa seed, and is busy securing the required amount of seed from Surprise Valley farmers, says the Alturas New Era. The price to the growers will be nine cents per pound.

Mrs. Edna Bass, a well known Susanville and Honey Lake Valley resident, committed suicide one day last week at her home near Auburn by hanging herself from a tree. Mrs. Bass, and her husband, from whom she was later divorced, was at one time steward and stewardess of the Lassen County hospital.

The Pacific and Atlantic terminals of the Panama Canal will take a large part of the $37,000,000 to be appropriated for that waterway, estimates of the bulk of which already have been submitted on appropriations. The $37,000,000 will make up the total of the $375,000,000 contemplated as the total cost of the canal.

The first Christmas season of the parcel post system is near at hand, and Postmaster-General Burleson proposes to see that all Christmas parcels shall be delivered on or before Christmas day if possible. A notice of "Mail your Christmas parcels early" in large letters will be posted in every postoffice in the country.

On December 8-13 the Pacific International Livestock Exposition will be held at the Portland Stockyards and, although the opening date is still distant more than a full month, breeders from all parts of the United States and Canada are already sending in their fancy stock. Fifteen thousand dollars in cash premiums will be paid out at the close of the show, the largest sum ever offered at an exclusively livestock show on the Pacific Coast.

That the Presbyterian Sunday school is growing is noted by the fact that on last Sunday they had their largest attendance since the church was organized two years ago. Mr. Piper, a graduate of a teacher's training school and an experienced Y.M.C.A. worker makes a first class superintendent. The latest addition to the Sabbath school is the organization of a man's Bible class with an enrollment of nine men, and that department also expects to grow.

Try a hot tomato nectar for a bracer these cold days at the Kandy Kitchen.

Mrs. Agnes Holbrook yesterday left for Sacramento, Cal. where she will visit for an indefinite period.

Tom Young is erecting a dwelling on his ten-acre tract on the Drenkel Addition in the south end of town.

George Noland yesterday returned to his home at Klamath Falls after spending several days in Lakeview.

Senator Chamberlain has introduced a bill appropriating $100,000 for purchasing a site and constructing a public building at Klamath Falls.

Miss Dorothy Bieber returned last Saturday evening from San Francisco where she has been on a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

We will have on display a nice line of Holiday Goods. It will pay you to look them over before sending your orders away. The Kandy Kitchen.

Dr. Russell yesterday performed an operation on Mrs. Gilbert D. Brown. She is at the Lakeview Hospital and is reported to be getting along nicely.

J. S. Rose, foreman of the 77 ranch in Warner, has been superintending the driving of considerable best cattle to Klamath Falls, he having left last Sunday with 250 head. The cattle were purchased by J. C. Mitchell.

Erle K. White, who has charge of the Reno office of the Remington-Type-writer Co., arrived in Lakeview yesterday. Mr. White's former home is at the White Station between Bly and Bonanza, and he has been enjoying a month's vacation on the ranch.

The homemade cake and candy sale given recently by St. Martha's Guild was a success both socially and financially. The Guild is now planning a Christmas sale and musicale to be given the Friday afternoon following Thanksgiving in the Masonic Hall.

Governor Felser of New Hampshire honored the requisition of the State of New York for the extradition of Harry K. Thaw. The case is now transferred automatically to the Federal Courts, where a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Thaw is pending.

Ira McCool and wife have removed from the Hurley Vernon place below town to the McCool dairy ranch west of town. They now have a herd of twenty milk cows, and will engage in the dairying business, disposing of their product to the local creamery.

Circuit Judge Henry L. Benson of the Lake and Klamath district yesterday departed for his home at Klamath Falls. The judge was feeling quite badly, suffering from a severe cold, and in order to avoid a long auto ride to Klamath Falls returned home by rail going by way of Sacramento.

R. A. Clark and family have removed from the V. L. Snelling residence to W. B. Snider's house on Main Street. Mrs. Snelling who has been spending the summer with her husband at Fairport will return to Lakeview, Mr. Snelling dividing his time between here and his interests at Fairport.

A writer in the Washington Post tells of an old lady who remembered living at the White House with Mr. and Mrs. John Quincy Adams. Mr. Adams ate with his fork, and Mrs. Adams apologized for it, saying that he had acquired the habit during a sojourn in France. Mrs. Adams and the other guests used their knives.

Alturas Plaindealer: We received a pleasant visit this week from Joe Shirk, formerly of Guano Valley, Oregon. He informs us that he has sold his property out there and will shortly move his family to the San Joaquin Valley. Joe is a good young man, a model citizen, and we wish him success wherever his lines may be cast.

The Lakeview merchants have been sending out large amounts of supplies for sheepmen of late. Last week Chas. Newman came over from Dave Edler's camp at Keno, Klamath County, and loaded here with 14,000 pounds of supplies for the different Edler camps on the desert. Mr. Edler having removed his sheep from Klamath to that section for the winter. The new road up Bullard canyon is a great advantage to the stockmen in conveying their supplies east.

George Bigham, of Oregon City, was killed two weeks ago on Trail Creek in Jackson County. He was one of a party out hunting and Wilbur Kime, of Medford, mistook him for a deer and fired the fatal shot. Mrs. Guy Causey, formerly of Lakeview is a daughter of Mr. Bigham's while L. P. Klippel, of Summer Lake is a nephew. Mr. Bigham was a member of the pioneer family of Bighams that resided in Surprise Valley, and will no doubt be remembered by numerous early settlers of this section.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.

REAL ESTATE

LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

New "GORDON" Shapes

Something nifty. Price only $3.00.
Rival of any $5.00 Hat on the market

New Mackinaw Hats, price $2.00
Cloth Hats, price at $1.50

A variety of other styles of Cloth and Fur Caps

The Home of Walk-Over Shoes

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

NEW SUITS

We have just received a new line of Ladies' Suits by Express this morning, and we invite you to call and look at them. Every one new, nobby styles. Also, we have a very large line of Ladies' heavy and medium Dress Goods that are selling every day. If in need of any thing in this line we can please you. Big line of Ladies' and Misses' Sweater Coats, Ruff Necks and Norfolks, all sizes. Many other new goods in Winter weights that cannot be mentioned in this space. You will find the prices lower than many others are asking for them.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE COMPANY