

City Property

$3000.00 For a 7-room house, a lot of fruit trees and about one acre of choice land close in. Easy terms.

$3000.00 Takes a 7-room bungalow almost new, lot 100x150 feet good location. Easy terms.

$4000.00 Will buy one of the finest homes in the city. 7-room modern bungalow with 8 fine lots, a bargain, don't miss it. Easy terms.

Vacant lots for sale in different parts of the city from $125.00 up.

"We Sell The Real Earth"

O'NEILL & DUNLAP

GENERAL REAL ESTATE

Lakeview : Oregon

Good Values for the Land Seeker

$40.00 per acre for a good West Side 160-acre ranch, improved with buildings and orchard

$21.00 per acre for a 280-acre ranch five miles from Lakeview, 70 acres in first crop this year; splendid slope for irrigation and within half-mile of O.V.L. canal.

$10.00 per acre for 60 acres five miles West of Lakeview, irrigation ditch crosses one end which gives some water right.

A large number of 10-acre tracts with five-acre water right, at right prices.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1913.

BRIEF MENTION

$6.50 silk kimonas at $3.95 at the Parisian Millinery.

Nice line of boys suits two pair of pants with each suit. Mercantile Co.

M. Seeger of Davis Creek came up to Lakeview on Monday evening's train.

Florence Reen, teamster for the ZX ranch, was down from Paisley last week after a load of supplies.

The best 35 cent hose in the state to wear, in black, white and tan at 25 cents at the Parisian Millinery.

Now is the time to buy your gloves $1.25 and $1.50 mocha and kid gloves at $1.00 $2.00 gloves at $1.75 at the Parisian Millinery.

C. Fitch came up from Davis Creek the first of the week on business connected with a desert land entry which was recently contested.

It is reported that L. D. Hoy of Summer Lake recently purchased 9000 pounds of barley at New Pine Creek at 85 cents per hundred.

Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the president, and Francis Bowers Sayre were married at the White House on Tuesday of this week. Miss Wilson is the fifth white house bride.

Jesse Darnell and wife on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week entertained at their home all members of the Lakeview Band, of which organization Mr. Darnell is director.

At the final meeting for the consideration of the 1914 budget the advisory committee determined on 7 mill as the road levy for Multnomah County for the coming year. This levy will raise $238,000 for road purposes.

Alturas New Era: The Hess Gold Mines sent another brick to the lower country last week, the weight being eight pounds. H. A. Keegle and James Harvey brought it to Alturas to deliver to the express company.

Mrs. W. A. Wise of Portland is spending several days in Lakeview visiting with her daughter Mrs. Fisk, wife of Dr. W. Hayden Fisk. Dr. Wise will later arrive from Portland and they will probably remain in Lakeview until after the holidays.

Miss Jennie Holder of Paisley was a guest this week at the home of the Joe Arner family. On her return home yesterday she was accompanied by Charles Arner, Herman Arner, Miss Lola Holder and John Arner, who will spend Thanksgiving at her home.

According to an interview of A. W. Orton, former register of the U. S. Land Office at Lakeview but now of Portland, recently printed in the Oregonian, he is preparing to go to Eastern Oregon where he expects to locate permanently. To which place in Eastern Oregon Mr. Orton expects to go is not mentioned.

J. E. Niles last week circulated a petition in Alturas asking that the N.-C.-O. trains be permitted to stop at the crossing on Modoc street, so that passengers may get off the train, and not be carried past the town and out to the depot. The citizens are also hopeful of getting a station established in the town.

After viewing the Drews Creek dam, Mr. Rueck Darley of Bonanza thinks he will be able to make the construction of the Horsefly project come to the $25 mark, says the Bulletin. There are some minor improvements in the dam construction that he thinks can be made over the Drews dam, but the main principals will be involved in the Horsefly dam.

An official count of all the silver dollars in the San Francisco mint has revealed that $22 was stolen, probably about 1880, according to a report made to Director of the Mint George E. Roberts. He says: "Several months ago one of the bags of silver in the mint was found to contain iron washers. Every bag was opened and all the money was counted."

Following is a list of those present at the entertainment of Presbyterian Aid at the home of Mrs. R. R. Vandervoort last Thursday afternoon: Mesdames Corbett, Webster, Sangers, Longfellow, O'Neill, Dunlap, Cummins, Everett, Crosby, G. Metzker, E. F. Cheney, Koozer, Dora Lane, Campbell, M. Whorton, Boorse and the Misses Nyswamer and Corbett. The refreshments served consisted of chicken salad on crackers with cranberries, cake, coffee and cream and cranberry marmalade.

Extra nice line of men's wool shirts all sizes $1.25 to $3.50

32 inch switches at $5.00 at the Parisian Millinery.

Crib blankets, bath robes, sweaters and gloves at the Mercantile Co.

Bran delivered anywhere in town at mill prices for cash at Duke's Feed Store.

J. D. Mulkey was registered at Hotel Lakeview Monday from Davis Creek.

Prices cuts no figure in millinery we must clean up. Come and see at the Parisian Millinery.

J. J. Monroe, a well known farmer and chicken raiser of Willow Ranch, was a business visitor here the first of the week.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian Aid will hold a Pillow Slip sale, Dec. 13th in the old Mercantile building on Water Street.

Jonas Norin returned home Tuesday home Tuesday from a trip to his sheep camp on the desert where he took a band of 50 Merino bucks.

The office rooms of the Fremont National Forest over the First National Bank are being calcimined, painted and otherwise remodeled which will add to their appearance and comfort.

Walter L. Dutton returned Tuesday night after a several days visit with his parents at Davis Creek. Walt is now an Uncle, and when opportunity offered, took occasion to make the trip down to see his new nephew.

Ben Daly last week sold 2500 head of 2 year-old mutton sheep to W. P. Carey, buyer of San Francisco. The sheep are said to be among the best ever sold in the valley and brought the top price of $3.75 per head.

It is not generally known, yet a fact none the less, that Uncle Sam is prepared to place 500,000 soldiers in the field on very short notice. They will consist of regulars and a national guard recruited to their full strength. An easy matter in event of war.

It is said that L. A. Carricker will not be responsible for the merchants of Lakeview working hereafter on Sundays, as he has decided that he may come to town any day, during the week instead of Saturday, as has been his custom for the past 25 years.

In an article signed by J. O. Hamaker in last week's issue of the Bonanza Bulletin, he states that it is the issue that he has been planning for some time. In the future the paper will be under the management of J. H. Faught and Mrs. Meyer, brother and sister, old time residents of the Bonanza section.

Tuesday evening while cranking the Norin automobile, Mrs. E. E. Rinehart received a fracture of one of the bones of her fore arm just above the wrist. At first, although very painful, Mrs. Rinehart thought the injury was but a severe sprain and was not aware of the fracture until after consulting a physician.

The football championship of the east was won by Harvard in their game with Yale last Saturday at Cambridge, Mass. Harvard went into the contest a pronounced favorite in the betting, although football experts declared that the teams were on such even terms that the contest was practically an even money proposition.

Cedarville Record: Joe Shirk some time ago traded his ranch in Oregon for property in Fresno county, and last week Mrs. J. L. Shirk, accompanied by her little babes and Tuck Alcar left for the lower country. D. L. Shirk and son, Joseph and daughter Olive also left for the lower country, taking with them two carloads of horses via Doyle.

Patrons of Smith's Picture House last Sunday evening were very much pleased with the three reel film, "The Iconoclast." The scene was taken in Mexico and the story was more complete in detail than the usual dramatic pictures. The parts portrayed by the Priest, railroad workers, the persons employed on the large Mexican ranch, and the Indians and fatal battle, contained really more interest than the girl, sculptor and the destroying of the icon, as the title implied.

The latest advices from the trouble center in Mexico state that General Salazar's command is completely surrounded south of Saragosa and his capture is expected momentarily. General Villa, commander of the confederates, has ordered his soldiers to take Salazar alive so that he may be publicly executed as an example to federal officers and federal sympathizers. Fierce fighting between the two forces is continuing and reports would indicate that Villa and his followers are rapidly gaining control.

Curtis & Utley buy furs. N. 13

W. Z. Moss of Warner Valley was here several days last week.

$2.50 corsets at $1.75. $3.00 corsets at $2.50 at the Parisian Millinery.

A few of our silk undershirts left $4.95 and $6.50 value only $3.95 at the Parisian Millinery.

Rich American Cut Glass will be sold at a big reduction during the Holidays at Easter's Jewelry Store.

Lost, one rubber boot, between Lakeview and the peninsula. Finder can have mate by calling on C. S. Crosby.

Dr. E. H. Smith was called to the J. F. Hanson ranch on the West Side Monday night to attend Frank Nelson, who is quite sick at that place.

Miss Agnes Tracy, formerly of Lakeview, writes the Examiner that she is now in an office in Sacramento, and is located at 4327 Stanford Ave.

Every saloon in Des Moines, Iowa must close immediately according to a decision handed down by the Iowa Supreme Court. The decision ends the appeal of the liquor interests in that place.

Miss Alvin, one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies of New York City will be in attendance at Easter's Jewelry Store during the Holidays, and will handle the Silverware department.

A. J. Hickerson returned home Tuesday evening from San Francisco where he went to undergo an operation for appendicitis. While he is quite weak, Mr. Hickerson is greatly improved and has all hopes for an entire recovery.

Chas. C. Mahan and family left on Monday morning for Fallon, Nevada, to locate permanently. Mr. Mahan has taken a five-year lease on a farm belonging to E. S. Berney near that place and will engage in farming and dairying.

County School Supt. Oliver will this week leave for Silver Lake where a teachers' institute will be held next week. He will also spend a few weeks in visiting the various schools in the northern part of the county, and may continue to Salem before returning to Lakeview.

Ft. Rock News: In digging a well on his homestead four miles east of Fort Rock, Dolph Smith found a five-inch layer of pure sea shells. Many people claim that this valley is an old lake bed and the finding of a layer of pure shells ought to convince many more that it is such.

Smith, Emery & Company of San Francisco, which has charge of the work of developing the soda deposits of Alkali Lake, calls the Examiner's attention to an error in a recent article on the description and development of the project. In stating that the lake bed covers an area of 500 acres, it should have read 5000 acres.

The Examiner has received notice that the Bargain Day rate of 75 cents per year for the Weekly Oregonian will be continued until January 1, 1914, after which time the price will be advanced to the regular rate of $1.50 per year. Parties desiring to take advantage of this low price for the weekly should leave their orders at this office.

The Lassen Mail predicts the early extension of the Lassen Fernley railroad north through Big Valley to connect with the Modoc Northern, and bases its prediction on the fact that the construction company has ordered a large lot of supplies for early spring, and the mill has been busy sawing railroad ties. Surveying parties have been working north, and it is said that orders have been issued for the building of 50 miles of road.

Geo. H. Ayres of Ft. Bidwell has been in Lakeview for several days the past week. Mr. Ayres is a former resident of this place and retains business interests here. He is promoter of the Cowhead Irrigation project, which will irrigate a large acreage of land in the northern part of Surprise Valley, and is resident agent of the Provident Investment Co. of Los Angeles. While here he was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Darnell.

The Modoc Republican states that quite a number of prominent Alturas Masons are intending to spend Thanksgiving in Lakeview this year. The Lakeview Lodge has some work to do and has extended an invitation to the members of the Alturas Lodge to assist in the ceremonies. Among those of Alturas Lodge who will probably go are Inspector E. C. Bonner, Past Masters T. L. Denson, R. A. Laird, Acting Master Wm. Keene and many other prominent members of the order.

Now is the time to buy millinery at the Parisian Millinery.

See our line of heavy coatings and dress goods. Mercantile Co.

For Rent—Roomy house and barn, $7.50 per month. Enquire Fred Spangenburg. Oct. 23-24

N. Fins and wife and Mrs. Joe Fins of Plush were here on business a few days last week.

A. V. Oliver, a recent arrival from La Grande but now of the West Side, was attending to business matters in town yesterday.

Lost, in Lakeview, gold locket containing three links and initials G. L. H. Finder leave at this office and receive reward.

A. J. Mathews, superintendent of the Oregon-California Telegraph Co., and E. L. Nash were up from Alturas Monday on business connected with the local office.

A complete stock of Rodger Bros. 1847 goods, "silverware that wears" of every pattern will be sold at Easters Jewelry Store at greatly reduced prices, during the Holidays.

Easter, the Jeweler, carries Libbey Cut Glass, Solid Silver Goods, Souvenir Spoons, Jewel Boxes, Shaving Sets, Conklin Fountain Pens, and many other articles that make nice Christmas presents.

The Lakeview C.L.S.C. will meet next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Minnie Vernon. Program: roll call; current events, "Where Civilizations Meet," III The Chautauquan) Miss Hall.

Sheriff W. B. Snider returned home Tuesday evening from a trip to Salem where he recently went with three prisoners sent to the penitentiary from this county. He returned by way of Berkeley, Cal. where Mrs. Snider has been the past two years.

Samuel Gompers was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor at the close of the convention last week at Seattle without opposition. Frank Morrison was re-elected secretary, and Philadelphia was chosen as the next meeting place.

Monday, December 8, has been set by the county court as the day when taxpayers may meet with it and discuss the budget of expenses for the coming year and aid that body in determining what levy is to be made for 1914. The list of estimated expenses is printed elsewhere in this paper.

S. Feeler was visiting relatives here the first of the week from his homestead in the canyon above New Pine Creek. Mr. Feeler secured 60 acres of land along the creek, about 35 acres of which he says is adapted to farming. He has several stands of bees which produce considerable honey.

At a recent meeting, in Portland, of representatives of the Willamette Valley Exposition Association, it was determined to make the San Francisco exhibit in the nature of a diversified farm display. It is expected this will require a space not less than 20x100 feet and that sufficient material will be provided to occupy a similar area in the Oregon state building.

Indian John, one of the very few remaining redskins of the Piute tribe, is in Lakeview on one of his frequent visits from the Klamath reservation, having made the trip over on his pony. John has a regular circuit of travel over Klamath, Lake and Northern Modoc Counties, and his wide acquaintance throughout this section always elicits him a cordial and civil reception from the ordinary citizen.

Mrs. N. Tracy and son, Roy have purchased the Holbrook ranch in Barnes Valley, Klamath County. The property consists of 685 acres, and producing considerable hay is considered well adapted to the stock growing business. Mrs. Tracy and son recently went to Crook county to reside, but have given up the idea and will locate in Barnes Valley. It will be remembered that the Goose Lake Valley Irrigation some weeks ago bought the Tracy holdings in Drews Valley.

A real estate deal of considerable importance was transacted here last week when Jerome Lerwick of San Francisco purchased A. L. Goodman's ranch, consisting of 240 acres of valley land. The deal was consummated through the realty firm of Curtis & Utley and the price paid was $35 an acre. The property is situated a few miles northwest of Lakeview. Mr. Lerwick will remain on the ranch this winter and will be joined by his wife, who is now in San Francisco, in the spring. He will engage in general farming, but will devote particular attention to the dairy business.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.

REAL ESTATE

LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

Popular Walk-Over Models

"DOC"—A shoe built for comfort; broad toe, low heel; correct in Platinum Calf...$4.50

"BLAGER"—A Popular Young Men's Model; medium, high and wide toe; fairly high heel; carried in black and tan; lace and button, in grades at $4.00, $4.50 & $5.00

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

NEW!

FOR SLENDER AND MEDIUM FIGURES

LASTIKOPS WEAVING IS THE ONLY ELASTIC THAT NEVER LOSES ITS ELASTICITY

THE NEW NEMO AUTO-GARTERS

$5.00

We Also Have

No. 319 for medium figures, at.....$3.50

No. 409, tall-stout, at.....$4.00

No. 506, low bust, at.....$5.00

There is no better Corset in fit and quality than the NEMO

Sold the world over at the same prices.

Security School Shoes

for children are the proper Shoes for this time of the year. Good, solid leather, button and lace. EXTRA GOOD line of heavy Boys' School Shoes that stand the knocks. Let us show you this line.

WATCH FOR OUR CHRISTMAS AD.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.