CURTIS & UTLEY, REAL ESTATE

$10 per acre for 80 acres of sage brush land five miles west of Lakeview. Irrigation ditch covers 60 acres and some water right with the land. 240 acres eight miles west of Lakeview, has two creeks with never failing water. Rich creek bottom land, level and good. This land is also under the irrigation canal. A bargain at $12.50 per acre. No improvements. 320 acres good land, part into grain and alfalfa, near Union School, all fenced and cross fence, barn and corrals. Stock water in creek always. This is a good farm, 310 acres three miles north of Lakeview, 200 acres fine alfalfa land, about 100 acres now in cultivation, 100 acres pasture land, part of which can be planted to fruit. Warner Creek flows through the land and a nice spring that can be piped to the house and barn. Place fenced, house and barn. Price $16 per acre.

80 acres of meadow land, cuts 80 tons of hay. At head of lake, price $15 per acre. 680 acres 8 miles north of Lakeview for $15 per acre. 80 acres into meadow, cuts 100 tons, 40 acres pasture land and all the balance is fine grain and alfalfa land, good water right, new house and large barn, 500 acres fenced. This is sure a bargain. 40 acres timber good wood claim, 11 miles from town, has between 800 and 1000 cords of wood, good road and level land. Price $350.

Two and one-half lots in the Sherlock Addition opposite Dunbar new residence. A bargain at $550. Act quick.

We have several good ranches for cattle and sheep. Send for our large bulletin giving prices of land all over Lake and Modoc Counties.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1914.

BRIEF MENTION

See our line of heavy coatings and dress goods. Mercantile Co.

Dave Jones came in town last week from his sheep camps on the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Curtis of Valley Falls were here visiting relatives several days last week.

The regular social of the local Eneampment Order will be held tomorrow evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall.

Robt, E. Morris was in town Tuesday from his home on the West Side. He says they are having plenty of snow in his section.

Found, on the streets of Lakeview, a purse containing money and keys. Owner may have property by seeing Ernest Hamilton.

H. W. Drenkel, wife and niece, Miss Althea Drenkel, Saturday morning departed for San Francisco and Los Angeles. They expect to be absent about a month.

Miss Margie Bernard, who is teaching the Union school on the West Side, is spending her holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. 1. E. Bernard in this city.

James Boydstun of the West Side has been in town the past two weeks suffering an attack of sciatic rheumstism, but will be able to return to his home in a few days.

Dan Chandler spent a few days in town last week from his stock ranch in Drews Valley. He reported that the snow was about the same depth in his vicinity as in this valley.

Herbert E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Angerson of Giendale, Cal., and Miss Mary A. Quirk, daugh-Cedarville, were married last week in care of Dr. Russell.

country, The stock will be shipped to since. He expects to locate some-California where they will be fed and where near Portland and enter the later placed on the market.

Ed l'owers, of Engleville, was cir-District No. 2, comprising the towns of Eagleville and Cedarville.

On last Sunday afternoon the tiny intant son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Brennan. The child was born November ducted by the Rev. Murphy, pastor of the Catholic church, was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Northwestern reports that the shover of the "queer" has again hit Klamath Falls. More spurious half dollar pieces have been passed on the business men within the past few days. This is the second time within the past six weeks that work of counterfeiters has been in evidence at that place.

Mr. Ira Enlow and Miss Viola Hahn were married at Roseburg, Oregon, December 21. The bridegroom is formerly of Hanford, Cal., but spent several weeks in Lakeview last Summer. The bride is a daughter of the late H. H. and Mrs. Hahn, former residents of this place, and a sister of Mrs. Herman Graeber who lives a few miles out of town. She and her mother removed to Roseburg a few months

John Bostick, the "El Monte bandit," pleaded guilty in the superior court at Los Angeles to the murder of Traveling Passenger Agent Montague and was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Bostick, who is but 22 years old, is to hang, was committed on the night of Dec. 1. He boarded the Southern Pacific's Sunset Express, held up the passengers of the rear Pullman and shot and killed Montague, who he thought was about to resist.

Owners of stores in Lakeview declare without exception that Christmas buying this year was the heaviest on record, which is convincing evidence much exaggerated. Une merchant stated to an Examiner representative the history of our firm, and I noticed in the line of clothing and staple arti-

Curtis & Utley buy fors. N. 13 D. W. Thomas a business man of New Pine Creek was a Lakeview visitor last Friday. Andy Morris and son were here the first of the week from their winter home near Adei.

T. H. Cloud, proprietor of the Frost Kandy Kitchen, last week left for Woodland, Cal., on a several days

Mrs. Batchelder, wife of Attorney

Stock taking is now being participated in by the majority of Lakeview volume of business of the year just school district organized in Catlow

D. C. Berry and G. H. Alridge were day on business connected with the week where they went to spend Christ- ver Lake has decided to go into the sheriff sale of the H. W. Reed property mas with relatives of Mrs. McKimene.

with insurance amounting to $8,000.

H. D. Roberts, a former Lake County boy, writes the Examiner that he dewhich place he has recently removed.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hamaker at Ashland on December 23. Mrs. Hamsker was formerly residents of Lakeview.

Mrs. Frank Struck, who has been so seriously ill the past several weeks, is reported as on the road to recovery, feed. which will be very welcome news to her many triends. She has been removed from her residence to the Lakeer of Mr. and Mrs. John Quirk of view Hospital and is now under the

Dr. Clarence U. Smider, younger son Alf Wallis and Kirk Alexander last of Mrs. Mary Snider of this place. was founder of the Salem Statesman. week passed through Lakeview on Saturday morning departed for the the first democratic newspaper estabheir way to Klamath Falls with 30 Willamette Valley where he will join send of horses from the Wagontire bis wite who went there a few weeks practice of medicine.

and dry question in Supervisorial getting along nicely, although it prob- self with the Hill lines. ably will be several days before he entirely recovers. No turther cases have developed and it is practically certain 20, 1913. The funeral, which was con- W. Lair Thompson of this city, was recently married to Dr. Paul D. Cooper at North Yakima, where they are with her sister last year. She is a ence in local social circles.

> A private letter under date of Dec. 28, from Dave Cleland at Reno, Nev., states that Frank Roggers is doing nicely and that there is scarcely any doubt but his left eye will be saved, giving him fairly good sight. Mr. Cleland further writes that Mr. Roggers has been improving rapidly the past few days and that the doctor will operate on his left eye shortly after New Years, although it will be some

The parcel post regulations going into effect today will increase the weight limit on parcels distributed within the first and second zones from 20 to 50 pounds. Where the limit has been eleven pounds on parcels mailed out the second zone, which extends 150 miles, it will be increased to 20 pounds. Parcels weighing four ounces or less are mailable at the rate of one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof, regardless of distance. Parcels weighing more than four ounces are mailable at the pound rates.

Cedarville Record: We understand that the Surprise Valley creamery building and machinery here was purchased by Raymond Turner last week. That is a good piece of property, and that the talk of hard times is very it has fallen into good hands. It is yesterday. now a settled fact that the creamery will be started up in the spring, and it that "our saies were the heaviest in is to be hoped that it will never be closed again. For about two years the particularly that people were buying machinery of this creamery has been good substantial and appropriate gifts idle, waiting for some one to take hold of it. The new proprietor of the cles." This same merchant said there creamery is the eleest son of Mr. and were 450 people in the store the day Mrs. G. C. Turner, formerly of Lake Southern California points for the win

Singer Sewing Machines at new reduced prices. Alger Land Co. 2t

Nice line of boys suits two pair Creek spent several days in Lakeview few days but will soon be able to be equally liable.

J. M. Batchelder, last week left for Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Wise left Satur- chant and stock man of Lake, was in Albany, Oregon, on a visit with her day on their return to Portland after town Friday purchasing lumber for daughter, Mrs. W. Havden Fisk.

business men in order to determine the nineteen months ago there was not a his own place ready for spring sowing, Valley, and today there are three.

B. F. McKimens and wife returned up from New Pine Creek last Satur- from Klamath Falls the first or the

Wm. Stimpfig, who has been em-The building in which was located ployed on the dredger on the ZX ranch, the creamery and ice factory at Bend has been here the past few days. Owwas burned to the ground last week, ing to a lack of material he reports The total loss is estimated at $13,500 that work has been temporarily suspended on the dredger.

B. R. McAdam arrived in Lakeview on Monday evening's train with a sires a change of address from Button small shipment of Rambow trout fry Willow, Cal., to Lovelock, Nevada, to from the government hatchery at Leadville, Colo. The following day the fish were liberated in Thomas Creek.

Manuel Sanders, the well known sheepman, came in from his camp last kets. With high freights and cost of Miss Bessie Moore, daughter of Attor- week to enjoy a few days of city life. production, farmers raising hogs are ney and Mrs. W. J. Moore, former He recently purchased 200 tons of hay the people with money. in Harney County and will take his flocks to near the Lake-Harney line where the hay will be ted. It is reported that he paid $5 per ton for the > Asahel Bush, a pioneer newspaper man and banker of Oregon died at his home in Salem last week. He was 89 years of age. and was very active in many prominent movements of the earlier development of this state. He lished in Oregon.

Joseph H. Young, who had severed his connection with the North Bank road in Oregon as its president, has gone to San Francisco, where it is Teddy Conn, the seven-year old son said he will become general superinexisting a petition in Cedarville last of Attorney and Mrs. L. F. Conn who tendent of the Central Division of the week, according to the Record, asking has had an attack of Scarlet fever, is Southern Pacific, a position he held for the Supervisors for a vote on the wet reported to be out of danger and is several years before associating him-

A Sickening Tragedy

spirit departed from the body of the that the fever will be confined to this were killed on the night of December a new homestead bill, permitting en-24 at a Christmas celebration held by trymen to substitute cultivation for copper mine strikers in the Italian residence during the first three years Mrs. Maud Brawly, sister of Mrs. Hall, Calumet, Mich., because of a of entry, during which period oneneedless panic caused by a false alarm | eighth of the acreage must be cultiof fire. While several hundred miners and now residing. She was quite well their wives looked on and scores of Sinnott has received many requests known in Lakeview having visited here children pressed eagerly toward the for legislation to abolish the residence stage to receive Christmas presents, a clause of the homestead law, but in highly accomplished lady and her man resembling Santa Claus, stuck charming appearance won her promin- his head in at the door of the hall and velled "fire." The cry was taken up framed a compromise measure which by those in the hall, and everyone started for the doors. The weaker persons were thrown to the floor and those behind tried to climb over the human barrier. The dead included 37 girls, 19 boys, 13 women and hve men.

Achleves Success

Chewaucan Press: Mr. Martin Lauritzen left Monday morning for Oakland, California, where he will time yet before he will be able to leave spend the remainder of the winter months visiting with friends and relatives. This is the second trip out from Paisley in the past twenty-five years, having made the same journey a year ago. Twenty-five years ago Mr. Lauritzen came to Paisley and after working out for a time secured a small piece of land near town. With but very little to start on at that time, he has most certainly "made good" as is attested by two big ranches and the large herds of stock which he now owne. He says he will take life easy from now on and he can well afford to

Stockmen Dissolve

Klamath Northwestern: That Messrs Pelton & Sisemore prominent stockmen in the Fort Klamath country, had dissolved partnership was reported here

Mr. Sisemore, who is said to have purchased the Pelton interests, has returned to Fort Klamath to assmue control of the entire business.

Mr. Pelton left last evening for Weed, where he will meet his wife and spend Christmas with friends. They will then go to Los Angeles and other

Silver Lake Items

Silver Lake Leader

The state law against gambling in of pants with each suit. Mercantile Co. Oregon is a severe one. It has been Miss Willie Burgun of New Pine broadly hinted that some Silver Lakers may be given a chapce to tell what last week, the guest of Miss Dorothy they have been doing with the pasteboards in a private room lately unless W. H. Shirk has teen confined to his they cease violating the law. The home on account of illness the past party owning the house or property is

F. A. Remington, the farmer-merspending a few, weeks here with their building pens and sheds for housing his thoroughbred Poland China hogs. The Burns Times-Herald says that He has 60 acres of summerfallow on besides 125 acres on a ranch adjoining. That looks like farming.

Oliver Osmundson, living on a homestead one and a half miles east of Silhog business. He has just purchased his initial stock of thoroughpred Poland China's trom F. A. Remington of Lake, and recently had shipped to him from Salem, a thoroughberd male of the same variety. It is his intention to raise only blooded stock, and as he has in the last three years, fully demonstrated that rye and other crops do well here on dry land, including alfalta, it is a sure thing that he will make good in the hog business. This year Silver Lake Valley has produced more pork than will be consumed and much will be shipped to outside mar-

School Notes

School will resume work next Monday morning.

Miss Frankie Smith who was called home by the death of her tather will return at once to take up the work of the Sixth grade. Mrs. O. M. Gardner will take charge of the Sixth grade work until the return of Miss Smith. This arrangement is only temporary as Miss Smith is expected almost any day.

Three more weeks of school closes the work of the first semester. Pupils in nearly all departments are up with the work and by faithful work will be able to cover the entire year's work by the close of school.

Let parents co-operate with teachers to have regular attendance and the best of work for the remainder of the vated and cultivation continued until final proof is made. Congressman view of the opposition of the department and the Eastern members, has he expects may be passed.

Sinnott Has Bill

Weather Forecast

"In making a torecast for the Pacific Coast for the winter and season of 1913-1914, based upon the theory that the summer makes the winter, or, in other words, two succeeding cool summers were followed by two succeeding dry winters, we may expect a deficiency of precipitation up to midwinter, probably to February 1st, atter which we may count upon abundant rain fall in the late winter months."-S. V. Rehart, October,

Klamath Author

The Examiner acknowledges receipt of a small booklet entitled "Photo Ekklesia" by Bishop Larkin Stucker of Klamath Falls. The book is an essay or a study of the "Bible-Measure Church Through the Wilderness," as the author explains his sub-title. It is a discussion of the difficulties that have beset the teachings of Christ and of the prophets and is an attempt to reconcile the happenings of the world down to the present day, even to the Balkan war, with relation to the pro-

504

Is the winning Number for Leather Chair at the Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.

REAL ESTATE

LAKEVIEW -:- OREGON

We wish our many friends and patrons a Happy New Year, thanking them for past favors, and hoping for a continuance of the same. Sincerely yours, BRITTEN & ERICKSON

SPECIAL SALE OF SEASONABLE GOODS

Beginning Monday, January 5th, we will offer at greatly reduced prices a large quantity of merchandise, being broken lines of seasonable goods remaining after the Christmas rush. These goods will be offered at prices which will mean decided savings and hurry their movement.

Furs 25% Off

A number of sets and single pieces, in popular models and shades, ranging in price from $5.00 to $20.00. There are no cheap pieces among them and all are good values at the regular prices.

Ladies' and Children's Sweaters.

This is just the time of the year for Sweaters, and you will make no mistake in seeing what we have to offer. The indications are for a snowy winter, which means sleigh-riding, coasting, logrides and rabbit drives. On such occasions Sweaters are indispensible. We are offering reductions on the ones we have left, and they come when they will do the most good.

Men's Suits and Coats

All times are Men's Clothing time, but not all times offer the price-savings which we can make you if you buy now. These goods are all of the kind perfectly salable to the man buying, but to hurry the riddance of a few odd sizes, we offer the entire line at a price that will make you want them now.

Ladies' Suits and Coats

Of these we have not a great many, but those that remain will be cleared regardless of cost. These garments are all serviceable goods, of superior grade and make and are wonderful bargains at the price. One-third to onehalf off.

Remnants

Our inventory has discovered a large quantity of Remnants of Laces, Embroideries and Piece Goods, all of which are offered at large discounts-in many instances at less than cost. These pieces are useful for many purposes and among them you are very likely to find items which you can use to good advantage and at a great saving.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.