HAVE A SMILE
with us over a taste of our good old Rye, and you will pronounce the liquor to be the best and purest you ever tasted. It has a fine mellow flavor, and no suggestion of a headache in a bottle of it. Suppose you order a sample bottle. Then you will be so satisfied that you will want a case. The price is not the least pleasing feature about it.

if you have been a purchaser in our cutlery department. You will find our razors, scissors, pocket knives, etc., about as keen edged as it is possible to make them. They'll hold that edge too. Made of finely tempered steel, as they are, they keep the keenness that makes them so pleasant to use, so satisfactory in service.

Home Rule Fund Big

(From The Irish News)
The Home Rule fund for 1913 has now reached the total of approximately $90,000.00, and there is yet a considerable time to elapse before the subscription list is closed. There can be no doubt, therefore, that the total will easily reach $100,000.00 or more, thus constituting this year's subscriptions an advance on last year's, which was the record year since the foundation of the Land League, or, to go further back, since the foundation of the Home Rule Association in 1870. This is a state of affairs on which all concerned may congratulate themselves. It is creditable alike to the Irish party and to the Irish people, and it is the best possible reply to those who allege that the Irish people are lukewarm or careless or indifferent in the cause of Home Rule.

BRIEF MENTION

(From The Irish News)

The ladies of the Altar Society have decided to give a card party in the near future for the purpose of raising money for church expenses. A lunch will be served in connection.

Word has been received here to the effect that Reverend P. P. Kern, formerly pastor of the local Catholic church, is now in Seattle, Washington. He is connected with the Church of the Immaculate, Eighteenth Avenue and Marion street.

Mrs. Koss McDaniels, who has been absent from this city for several months, has returned. Her two children are attending Mt. Angel's Academy, Portland. Mrs. McDaniels has visited Seattle, Portland and points in British Columbia during her absence from Lakeview.

Wise and Otherwise

An enterprising exchange has collected the following oddities in print: A butcher's sign reads as follows, "John Jacobs kills pigs like his father."

A tailor had a bill in his window to the following effect, "Wanted—Several thin coat makers." This is a fine chance for spare tailors.

One advertisement was headed, "Two sisters want washing." So do a good many brothers. Another advertisement was, "Wanted—A boy to sandpaper."

The following extract from a medical advertisement is perhaps correct, "Consumptives, cough while you can, for after you have taken one bottle of my mixture you can't."

HANDICAPPED

This is the case with many Lakeview people.

Too many Lakeview citizens are handicapped with bad backs. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause if the kidneys are weak. To eliminate the pain and aches of kidney back-ache you must cure the kidneys.

The following statement should convince every Lakeview reader of their efficiency.

Mrs. I. H. White, 518 W. Hamilton St. Medford, Or., says: "Twice I had attacks of kidney trouble. A dull pain settled in my back and I got dizzy and nervous. There seemed to be no rest for me day or night. I was all run down. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and I soon found that I had the right remedy. They acted quickly and brought the best of results. I don't believe Doan's Kidney Pills can be equalled in curing kidney trouble. They gave me a permanent cure and I haven't had any sign of kidney trouble for years."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. White had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

DRESSING THE BONTON CAPON.

The well dressed, well dressed capon presents as much contrast when compared with the ordinary dressed rooster as a big butter ball, milk fed thoroughbred Pekin does when hung beside a bunch of stringy, tadpole chasing puddle ducks. The capon has distinctive marks. First it is large, often mammoth, is all rounded and covered with a fullness of fancy tender juicy fattened flesh that epicures declare rivals a fat chestnut stuffed turkey.

It is without comb, this being removed at caponizing, and while some remove the wattles, it is not necessary as they shrink up. Some dealers try to pass off slips as capons. They are not, but are roosters on which the operation was a failure.

They have comb and wattles, are not true capons and are spoiled for breeding. Capons are dressed different from other poultry. Philadelphia style is the fashion. After being kept from food until empty, the fowl is hung head down and arteries cut in back of throat. Perfect bleeding is necessary that it be perfect in color and keeping quality.

While bleeding it is picked dry, but all feathers are not removed.

Feathers are left on head, neck, breast, first wing joint, thighs, tail, as shown in cut. Head, shanks, feet are washed, care being taken to remove all blood spots and clotted blood from throat.

Many ship capons drawn. An opening is made at rear, insides withdrawn, gizzard and liver cleaned and returned and the fatty interior allowed to protrude somewhat so that flaps of cut show rich flesh. The dealer should always be consulted as to whether he wants them drawn or undrawn. Before packing the capons should be thoroughly cooled, freed from plumes and head should be wrapped in paper to prevent blood staining carcass. City trade is best for capons. The best prices prevail from Thanksgiving to Decoration day.

DON'TS.

Don't forget that one bullseye beats all the scattered shots. To do well you must make every shot tell.

Don't skimp feed nor overfeed. It doesn't pay either way.

Don't forget to give Marlar credit for her work and much you think you've done.

Don't crowd your poultry house with the thought of reducing the flock later on. Disease may not give you the chance.

Don't borrow trouble nor your neighbor's ideas unless you give him credit.

Don't haul skinny chickens to market when a few weeks in the fattening crate will pay you a much better rate.

Don't use smeared egg crates. Clean crates and fine eggs for best rates.

Panama Canal Laws

When the Panama Canal is completed—About 2,500 employees will be required.

Freight will be charged $1.20 a ton; passengers are free.

American coastwise ships may pass through free of charges.

The cost of operating the canal will exceed $4,000,000 annually.

Time required to go through the canal, from ten to twelve hours.

The interstate commerce commission has jurisdiction over canal traffic.

Warships of all nations may pass through the canal, but cannot linger more than twenty-four hours at either end in time of war.

To pay interest on the investment and operating expenses approximately $15,000,000 revenue per annum will be needed.

Dennis Lane, an employee of the Follet ranch at New Pine creek, was on the sick list for some time during the past month. His recovery was complete, however, and he lost no time in returning to work again.
