The recital given last Friday night at the High School by the pupils of Mr. Arant and Mr. White was well attended. The students did excellent work and plainly showed the effect of careful training. Each number was well rendered and with the exception of Ruth Bernard who was unable to perform the program was complete.
Pt. Bidwell News: John Smith pleaded guilty to furnishing whiskey to three Indian girls in the Justice Court here Tuesday morning, and was sentenced by Judge Garrett to pay a fine of $50 and serve 30 days in jail. Supt. Fuller of the Indian school, had gathered sufficient evidence to convict Smith if he had decided to stand trial. The prisoner went to Alturas Wednesday morning to serve his sentence.
Another Governor Candidate
With reluctance, George C. Brownell says he has become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. He was once the political dictator to Clackamas County and an active member of the State Senate for a number of years.
Following are some of the planks of his platform:
To abolish the liquor traffic in State and in Nation.
To grant votes for the women of the Nation.
To keep all Asiatics out of this country, particularly Hindus.
To give free tax exemption up to $1500.
To have every one enjoy free speech.
To safeguard the interests of the farmers in the construction of roads.
Sunday Closing
In observance of the State Sunday closing law, County Attorney O. C. Gibbs has asked the various pool and billiard halls and candy stores in Lakeview to remain closed on Sundays.
The principal places of business affected by this order are: George Storkmann, pool hall, C. W. Combs, pool hall, M. S. Barnes, pool hall, T. H. Cloud, confectioner and the Post-office store.

Paisley Pick-Ups
(Chewaucan Press)
Born—To the wife of R. C. Foster on February 9th a boy. Ralph is sure some happy dad.
Automobiles have been making trips to Paisley from both directions this week, showing that the roads are open to the railroad both north and south.

Following the Board of Director's meeting last Saturday the Chewaucan Mercantile Company have announced that an entirely new method of doing business will be followed at their store in Paisley. They have put everything on a strictly cash basis and will meet all competition in every line. They are out after the real money and by the way they are lowering the prices regardless of cost it begins to look as if the mail order houses would receive a serious set-back in the homes of Paisley.
Silver Lake Items
(From the Leader)
C. J. Catlow, of Summer Lake proved up on his homestead last Saturday before U. S. Commissioner West.
E. G. Graves made a trip to Bend the first of the week to meet his sister who expects to make a visit here. Mr. Graves and his sister have not met since 1874.
The ice harvest has been in full swing this week and Silver Lake is preparing for cool lemonade and "grape juice" the coming summer. The cold weather of the past few days put the ice in fair condition, averaging fifteen inches in thickness. The greatest trouble seems to be in securing men and teams to harvest the product.
J. H. DeLacey reports that the city will soon be able to commence repairing the old school building preparatory for the public use. He says all owners in the country have assigned their interests and but a few more signatures are necessary to have the title complete.
It may be interesting to the outside world to know that at no time during the past winter has the snow in the Silver Lake valley been sufficient for sleighing. The horses ranging along the foot-hills are as fat and sleek as in summer and with little feed cattle are coming through the winter in good shape.
To Divorce Railroads
Alleging that the Southern Pacific control and operation of the Central Pacific constitute a violation of the Sherman anti-trust act and of the railroad laws under which the roads were founded, Attorney Reynolds filed suit in the United States District Court, at Salt Lake City last week asking for a complete dissolution of the relations alleged to be existing between the two lines.
The Government also seeks to enjoin the Southern Pacific Company from voting Central Pacific stock or deriving any profit from that line pending disposition of the suit, and asks that the Central Pacific be enjoined from recognizing the Southern Pacific control.
