MAJORITY VS. MINORITY

There seems to be a wonderful crop of Republican office seekers this year. Perhaps it augurs well for Republican success but nevertheless there seems to be no opposition on the part of our friends, the enemy, to curtail the aspirations of any of the would be servants. The fact is that the success of either of the opposing parties is based upon internecine warfare in the Republican ranks, and the more candidates that appear in the party the better the chances for the success of the opposition. If all candidates would promise their support to the successful nominee, as does Hon. R. A. Booth, candidate for United States Senator, then there would be no doubt as to the result. Heretofore it has been the general custom to continue the scrap to the finish, with the result that Oregon is now represented in the United States Senate by two Democrats and also a Democratic Governor. As the late lamented Hancock stated, the tariff is a local issue, and such being the case, it cannot seriously be contended that Democratic success conserves the best interests of the State of Oregon.

The Lakeview Herald, in a laborer attempt to justify its course in opposing Judge Daly cites the new road to Warner as a bit of ill-advised work. The instigator of the article is perhaps the only person in all of Lake County who is unable to see the great benefit to accrue, by reason of that particular piece of road and the ear marks of the article indicate that it was conceived through malice aforethought rather than otherwise. If any fault is to be found with that road it naturally would be because of the fact that it was not built long years ago. It not only shortens the distance between two sections of the County very materially, but eliminates the very worst portion of the road in crossing the range of hills between. The new road affords an avenue of easy communication between Warner and other sections of the County at practically all seasons of the year something that was not possible for about six months out of the year when the only thoroughfare was through Warner canyon.

It is quite refreshing to read the platform of Hon. R. A. Booth, who aspires to the Republican nomination for United States Senator to succeed Senator Chamberlain. It is devoid of buncombe and sets forth in a straightforward manner many things of an uplifting nature in which all are interested. Among other things he points out the necessity for scientific aid for the farmer and for a system of rural credits under Government auspices by which the farmer may borrow money on long time at low interest. He takes a stand for the reclamation of waste land, both desert and swamp, and favors laws to better the condition of the laboring man. Mr. Booth has opened headquarters in Portland, and later on will make a tour of the State. His candidacy is meeting with the approval of many citizens in all sections of the State.

The reformation of Sam Blythe, the noted writer in the Saturday Evening Post, as outlined in a recent issue of that magazine leads one to believe that Sam is in his dotage. Not content with dealing John Barleycorn a body-blow Sam must herald his remarkable feat to the world. And just to think that he downed six highballs in one short evening, which presumably continued from about 8 o'clock p. m. until 4 o'clock the next morning. Sam certainly must have gone some in his prime.

J. M. Sullivan and Art Moss Sunday came over from Plush. They report little snow in Warner Valley but say there is plenty in the hills.

STATEWIDE EXHIBIT

PRODUCE TO BE SHOWN AT ASHLAND IN 1915

Plans Will Be Definitely Determined at Meeting Next Month—All Counties Invited

At a great development convention held in Eugene on February 19, it was the unanimous opinion of the delegates that there would be a state wide exhibit of Oregon products maintained at Ashland during 1915. A meeting to discuss and definitely determine the cost and other details of such exhibit will be held in the Green Parlor of the Portland Commercial Club on Thursday, Mar. 12. All of the members of the last Legislature who can make it convenient to be in Portland on that date are urged to attend. Also state officials. Representatives from all the commercial clubs will be welcome and all of the communities represented at Eugene last week will name special delegates.

School Notes

The entertainment was a success. The net proceeds were $52.35, which was turned over to the school board. Our basket ball team will play their first game with Alturas March 7.

One of the greatest needs among our school children is the proper care of the teeth. The primary department gave a Lincoln - Washington program last Friday afternoon. The excellent program was enjoyed by the many visitors.

Miss Ruth Bernard gave a wedding breakfast in the Science Room last Tuesday evening in honor of the anniversary of the wedding of Prof. and Mrs. O. M. Gardner.

The school paper, "The Echo" is just off the press and is being distributed to the patrons of the school. This number contains 32 pages of school life, society, athletic, jokes, etc. Be sure to get a copy at the Post Office Store.

Dr. Van Fossen of Ashland visited our school Monday morning and read several selections from Will Carlton and Whitcomb Riley. The numbers were carefully selected and well read. The student body greatly enjoyed the treat and hope for another visit in the near future.

Married in Lakeview

Rev. George H. Peese of the Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon officiated at the wedding ceremony which united in marriage Mr. Soron Peterson and Mrs. Louise Christensen. The wedding occurred at the Methodist parsonage in this city.

Mrs. Christensen Peterson came to Lake County, recently, with her daughter and son-in-law, Henry Urigh Mr. Peterson arrived here about four months ago from Racine, Wis., and purchased the Chas. Sherlock property about eight miles west of Lakeview, where they will make their home.

Oregon Sheep in Demand

A news dispatch from Pendleton to the Oregonian says: That Eastern Oregon sheep are likely to be in demand this year has been freely predicted for some time by those who have been watching conditions carefully. This prediction apparently is partly fulfilled inasmuch as J. H. Christenson, a Crook County rancher, is experiencing considerable difficulty in purchasing 2000 head of sheep with which to stock his range.

He started out in search of last year's lambs, but has abandoned that idea and is now willing to take older sheep, if he can get them. As a final resort he has enlisted the aid of the Pendleton Commercial Association.

Lakeview Chautauqua Circle

The Lakeview Chautauqua Circle will meet with Mrs. Harry Bailey, March 2nd, at 7:30 P. M. Program: Roll call, current events. Lesson, reading of Chautauqua article VI, The Game of Diplomacy (February 7, 1914, Chautauquan.)

Silver Lake Items

(From the Leader)

The rabbit drive at the Carr ranch near Arrow last Saturday resulted in the death of over 1000 rabbits. Dr. Thom reports an eight pound boy arrival at the home of Mr. K. O. Buick on Wednesday, Feb. 11. C. A. Whitley, who has been spending the winter at his old home in Jackson County, returned last week.

On Sunday evening a temperance meeting was held in connection with the regular church service and a good program was rendered.

The parlors of the Chrismen hotel was the scene of a very pleasant social event Wednesday afternoon. Miss Vida Chrismen, who leaves in a few days for Fremont, Nebraska where she will be married to Mr. Oliver N. Hill was the guest of honor.

Paisley Pick-Ups

(Chewaucan Press)

Chas. H. Combs, the Lakeview attorney was a business caller in the city on Thursday, stopping at the Hotel Chewaucan while here.

County Stock Inspector, H. H. Sparhawk and Carl Fetsch and A. J. Ousley, his two assistants were in Paisley this week, coming up from the county seat Tuesday. They are making a thorough inspection of all stock in this section.

Clarence Young and Frank Young came down from Alkali Lake in the auto truck, Tuesday. They will spend a few days here on business and pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Thornbrue accompanied them in from the Lake. Mrs. F. L. Young and son Henry, came in Saturday. Henry is suffering from an abscess on his throat.

The Recorder of the Town of Paisley has decided to put the "lid" on right in this place and incidentally keep it on. Developments in nearby towns and in fact all over the state is said to have prompted the move, and those in authority will spare no efforts to see that all the state laws are enforced hereafter.

A Pleasing Entertainment

That which was the most pleasing entertainment of the winter season was given last Friday evening in the auditorium of the Lakeview High School. The various numbers presented by the students evinced careful training and marked ability on the part of those who participated in the program.

That which was probably the most pleasant surprise for the audience was the music by the high school orchestra. This combination of musicians is composed of C. A. White, cornet; Raymond Dunbar, clarinet; Mrs. Gardner, bass; Lorena Bailey and Dayne Lynch, violins; Ruth Bernard, piano; and O. M. Gardner, director. Each part of the program is worthy of commendation, and its presentation as well as the order speaks volumes for the school work along these lines.

Surprise Party

A farewell surprise party was held Monday afternoon by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid in honor of Mrs. L. W. Webster at the Webster home. A delicious lunch was served, and a touching prayer was offered by Mrs. Crawford. Mrs. Webster was the recipient of a handsome present in the form of linen from each member of the Aid.

Those present were: The Messa-ges Crawford, Lane, Corbett, Burgess, Clark, O'Neill, Metzker, Morgan, Random, Winchester, Rose, Dunlap, Gibbs, Everett, Boorse, Rebart, Campbell, Vandervort, Koozer and Whorton.

Bishop Paddock Here Sunday

A telephone message has been received from Bishop Paddock of the Episcopal Church, that he will arrive in town on Friday evening of this week. Notices of the time and place that he will preach will be posted in the postoffice. He also expects to remain in town until Wednesday. Further plans in regard to his visit will be announced by him on Sunday during the services. All candidates for confirmation or baptism are requested in the meantime to give notice to the Secretary or Lay Reader of their desires in this regard.

Would Abolish Land Board

A movement has been started to initiate a measure at the next election to abolish the state desert land board, the state water board and the state engineer's office, and put the business handled by these three departments in charge of one board, thus effecting a considerable saving to taxpayers.

Governor West states that at the recent meeting of the Oregon Irrigation Congress in Portland, delegates from Central Oregon put the proposition up to him and asked for his approval. He said that he favored the movement and would give his support to the proposed measure. He said that a large saving would be made by such a change.

MANY ATTEND SHOW

 The floor is well inclined so as to afford a clear view of the curtain from all positions. Comfortable folding chairs with hat racks have also been installed.
 Mr. Smith made the announcement that while he intended to maintain a ten cent house, he was negotiating for some feature films that would require an increase in price of admission. These programs, he stated, would be given twice monthly providing the venture justified. He has made arrangements to secure the films for "Checkers" a popular racing drama, which is shown in five reels. This he expects to present in the near future.
 All in all the enterprise is deserving of praise and doubtless the people will manifest their appreciation in according it liberal patronage.
