

CURTIS & UTLEY, REAL ESTATE LAKEVIEW, OREGON

120 acres on Cottonwood creek, 35 acres into Timothy, Alfalfa, Grain, and a nice garden, water right, an ideal small dairy or poultry farm, lots of outside grazing, house, barn, granery and other out-buildings. Price, $1800, half cash. 11 miles from Lakeview.
8-room residence in Drenkel addition, near City Park, two lots 100 by 150, barn and chicken house. Price, $2000, half cash at 6 per cent. The price is less than cost.
320 acres good land, part into grain and alfalfa, near Union School, all fenced and cross fence, barn and corrals. Stock water in creek always. This is a good farm, at $20.00 per acre.
310 acres three miles north of Lakeview, 200 acres fine alfalfa land, about 100 acres now in cultivation, 100 acres pasture land, part of which can be planted to fruit. Warner Creek flows through the land and a nice spring that can be piped to the house and barn. Place fenced, house and barn. Price $16 per acre.

80 acres of meadow land, cuts 80 tons of hay. At head of lake, price $15 per acre.
680 acres 8 miles north of Lakeview for $15 per acre. 80 acres into meadow, cuts 100 tons, 40 acres pasture land and all the balance is fine grain and alfalfa land, good water right, new house and large barn, 500 acres fenced. This is sure a bargain.
40 acres timber—good wood claim, 11 miles from town, has between 800 and 1000 cords of wood, good road and level land. Price $350.
Two and one-half lots in the Sherlock Addition opposite Dunbar new residence. A bargain at $550. Act quick.
We have several good ranches for cattle and sheep. Send for our large bulletin giving prices of land all over Lake and Modoc Counties.

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1914.

BRIEF MENTION

A line of reasonably priced ladies' and childrens house dresses at the Lakeview Mercantile Co.

George and Chas. Nelson were business visitors in the city Tuesday from their homes on the West Side.

Found—Gentleman's watch. Owner can have same by identifying property to Gordon Robertson and paying for this ad.

Born in Lakeview, Oregon, Tuesday, February 24, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. George Newcomb of Valley Falls, a boy.

The band gave a very pleasant Washington Birthday dance at the Snider Opera House last Saturday evening. About forty couples were present.

It is reported from Washington that President Wilson's veto is waiting for the Burnett immigration bill, if it passes congress providing for the much discussed literacy test.

A rich find is reported to have been made by prospectors near Ashland. The discovery consists of a spring of lithia water pure and free from iron sediment or vegetable matter with a flow of 25 gallons per minute.

Burns-Times Herald: George H. Hollenbaugh was here this week from Plush, having been called by wire on account of the death of his brother, Mark. He made the trip without rest coming through on horseback.

Dr. Stacey Hemenway, whose home was at the Yanlax sub-agency on the Klamath Indian Reservation, died last week. Dr. Hemenway had been a resident of Klamath County for over thirty years and was 78 years of age. He entered the Indian service in 1859.

Will M. Peterson, a leading lawyer of Pendleton, is the first democrat to come out for the office of attorney-general. Frank S. Grant, former city attorney of Portland and George M. Brown of Roseburg, are the two avowed Republican candidates for this office.

The Presbyterian Board of Temperance in session at New York last week appropriated $50,000 to send representatives to Oregon, Washington, Colorado and California with moving picture machines to work in these states for a big "dry" campaign before the fall elections.

According to the annual report of the Rogue River Fruit & Produce Association, which ships about one-third of the total out-put of the valley, 359 carloads of fruit were shipped during 1913, 153 cars of pears, 205 cars of apples and one car of peaches. Prices for the crop were exceptionally good.

The local banks, court house, land office and other public offices remained closed Monday in observance of Washington's Birthday, which occurred on Sunday, the day preceding. Washington is the only American whose birthday is recognized in all the states and the District of Columbia, Porto Rico and Alaska.

The Supreme Court in a decision written by Justice Moore has declared that the eight hour law does not apply to city fireman and policeman, contending that they are officers rather than laborers. The opinion was the result of a complaint brought against Mayor Albee of Portland by State Labor Commissioner Hoff.

Twenty petitions were placed in circulation in Portland last week soliciting signatures demanding the recall of Mayor Albee and City Commissioners R. G. Dieck and W. L. Brewster. The mayor is charged of holding a business position in connection with his office. The agitation arose over the location of Portland's proposed public auditorium.

The San Francisco Chronicle reports that a serious accident befell Mrs. Nelson Rounsevell in Oakland last week when she jumped from an avenue car. As she alighted the fuse of the controller box exploded and Mrs. Rounsevell panic-stricken jumped to the street falling on her head. Mr. Rounsevell her husband spent last Summer in New Pine Creek, where he was interested in real estate.

Curtis & Utley buy furs.

Cr'b blankets bath robes, sweaters and gloves at the Mercantile Co.

Chas. Morrison of New Pine Creek was in Lakeview Tuesday.

J. F. Hanson was in town yesterday from his West Side Point ranch.

Chas. Fee of Bidwell was an arrival on the train Saturday night and spent Sunday here.

Henry Leehman was transacting business here Monday from his farm near New Pine Creek.

Dr. J. L. Garner and W. S. Dupont were registered at Hotel Lakeview Friday from New Pine Creek.

W. E. Armstrong and E. Arabolad, business men of Alturas were arrivals on Saturday night's train.

J. D. Edler, the well known Lake and Klamath County sheepman was attending to business matters here last week.

H. L. Moore, a well known commercial man representing the Folger spices, spent a few days here last week.

Wm. Wallace who has been confined to his home the past few days with illness, is considerably improved at this time.

S. C. Campbell spent a few days in town last week from the Drews Creek sawmill, where he has supervision of the work.

A. Bieber returned home on Tuesday's train from San Francisco where he went to purchase a large line of spring and summer merchandise for his store.

T. H. Cloud and S. P. Vernon last week returned from a fishing trip to Dog Lake. They report a fair catch and say the speckled beauties are of excellent quality.

On a platform endorsing statewide prohibition, ex-Governor T. T. Geer has announced his candidacy for Governor of Oregon. He is the 14th gubernatorial aspirant in the field.

L. W. Webster, who last week sold his town property to W. D. Bennett, with his family left this morning for the Chewaucan Valley where they will take up residence on a homestead.

W. D. Bennett, formerly of Warner Valley, last week purchased the L. W. Webster residence on Dewey Street north of Slash, and he and family will take immediate possession of their property.

Lakeview Camp, No. 526, W.O.W. invites the members of Solace Circle No. 374, W. of W. with their husbands to join them in a social to be given March 11th. All members of the camp are requested to attend. 2t

Dynamite was placed under the rock crusher at the Municipal quarry in Portland last week, and the machine was blown to atoms. Houses nearby were also rocked and lives endangered. The police claim the explosion was set by the I. W. W.

We handle the very best brands of citrus fruits in the market. Sun-Kist Oranges, Gilt Edge Lemons. While the present low market price of lemons lasts we will sell them at 35 cents per dozen. Large shipment just arrived. The Kandy Kitchen.

It is reported that lake trout have begun running up Drews on the West Side and quite a number have been caught during the past few days. Last week some fish were caught in the lake at the mouth of Drews Creek before they began going up the stream.

The Wizards have reorganized and will give their initial dance Saturday night. Invitations will be issued by the individual members. About thirty of the young men of the town have joined the club and that their dances will be a success is a foregone conclusion.

The writer acknowledges receipt of a novelty watch which was patented by Clarence Dunlap, formerly of Lakeview, but now of Alturas. On the dial of the watch is a map showing North and a portion of South America, and the Panama Canal, through which a miniature boat fastened to the minute hand passes every hour. Instead of the figures to indicate the time, there are the letters "Panama Pacific." Mr. Dunlap has a large number of these watches and they will be placed on sale over this country. The watch makes a unique Exposition souvenir as well as an accurate timekeeper.

S. A. Gray and wife were down Tuesday from Paisley.

Vernon L. Bonner was up from Alturas the latter part of the week.

J. J. Monroe was in town yesterday from his farm at Willow Ranch.

Nice line of boy's suits, two pair of pants with each suit, Mercantile Co.

"Grandma" Arthur is reported quite ill at her home on the West Side.

Mrs. V. L. Snelling left last Thursday morning for Berkeley where she will remain on a few weeks visit.

The income taxes of John D. Rockefeller, it is said, will foot up the nice little sum of $2,250,000.

Henry Wendt and August Doring, business men of New Pine Creek, were visitors at the county seat this week.

An illustrated lecture will be given in Masonic hall Sunday night on "Medical Missions." Sixty lantern slides will be used.

H. J. VanFossen, District Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church with headquarters at Ashland, spent a few days in Lakeview last week. From here he went to Paisley.

Supervisor G. D. Brown of the Fremont National Forest returned home on Saturday's train from Portland where he went recently to attend the State Convention of Forest Supervisors.

It is said that some of the employees of the N.-C.-O. are responsible for the statement that the road was fined $1200 for delays in delivering the mail north of Reno during the track washouts last month.

Frank J. Miller, member of the Railroad Commission of Oregon since 1911, and its present chairman has announced his candidacy for reelection. Mr. Miller will seek the Republican nomination.

The Sage Brush Echo, Vol. I, No. 2, published by the students of the Lakeview High School, is off the press this week. The edition is very well prepared and edited and reflects credit upon the publishers.

T. E. Bernard has made several improvements in the interior of his hardware store during the past few weeks. The walls and shelving have been freshly painted and other touches added which make the place look like new.

H. D. Roberts, a former Lake County citizen, arrived here the first of the week from Lovelock, Nevada, and is spending several days here renewing acquaintances with many old time friends. He expects to return to Nevada in a few days.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church held their regular semi-monthly social last Wednesday afternoon, meeting in the new bible class rooms on the church property. There were about fifty ladies present and a very successful meeting is reported.

W. Z. Moss and W. E. Scammon last week started 100 head of horses belonging to the former, which will be driven to California. Mr. Moss expects to take the stock to the vicinity of Chico where they will be fed for some time and afterwards placed on the market.

Attorney W. Lair Thompson and G. W. Rice, chief engineer of the Goose Lake Valley Irrigation Co. returned home last evening from Portland where they attended the recent session of the Oregon Irrigation Congress. Mr. Thompson also visited the state capitol on legal business.

W. P. Heryford returned home last week from California where he has been for the past few months. Mrs. Heryford continued her visit with relatives a few days longer, returning home Tuesday evening. We are very glad to report that their son, Felix, who is now in a hospital in Colfax, Cal., is rapidly improving in health.

The storms of the past month have been of vast benefit to the farmers of Goose Lake Valley. The frost was nearly all out of the ground early in January, and the precipitation has therefore nearly all been absorbed. At the present time for the year crop conditions were never before so favorable, although comparatively little fall plowing was done. Should there be a favorable Spring bumper crop reports are confidently expected at harvesting time.

Mrs. Chas. Pratt is reported ill at her home in this city.

The new vegetable silk hose at the Lakeview Mercantile Co.

F. M. Green was up Monday from his home at New Pine Creek.

Alturas New Era: Our congenial harness man and saddler, Jas. Partin, returned a few days ago from a visit to the High Grade mining district. Partin brought back some samples of ore that certainly present every appearance of being rich.

Merrill Record: Mr. Wm. Harvey, who was thrown from a horse in front of the Park stables last week and badly injured is still in serious condition. His wife arrived from San Francisco to assist in nursing him. They are at the Riverside hotel.

Bidwell News: Several gentlemen interested in the Cow Head Irrigation Project were in town Friday night, looking over the country and the lands to be benefited by the project. George H. Ayres, the local representative of the Modoc County Irrigation Company and the Provident Investment Company, departed yesterday morning for San Francisco to consult with the heads of the companies regarding the project.

Cogburn Gives Bonds
John Cogburn, who was last week brought to Lakeview from California by Sheriff Snider to answer the charge of non-support of his children living with their mother here, appeared before Chas. Umbach, Justice of the Peace, and gave bonds to appear at the Circuit Court next May. Mr. Cogburn returned to San Francisco.

Presbyterian Church
Masonic Hall
10 a. m. Bible School. Classes for all ages.
11 a. m. Preaching. Subject: "What We Owe and Why We Owe It."
7:30 p. m. Stereopticon lecture on: "Medical Missions in the Far East." No admission will be charged.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.

REAL ESTATE

LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

Benjamin Clothes

Better order your Spring Suit now, while the sample lines are complete. We are exclusive agents for Alfred Benjamin and H. M. Marks. Fit Guaranteed.

Prices, $15 to $40

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

GRAND SPRING OPENING

Early Showing of Spring Styles and Fancies

Thoughts are already centered on the New Dresses and Suits for the approaching season. Those who have decided upon the style and material are sure to find just what they have in mind from our superb new stock. Those who have not given the matter much attention will find a world of inspiration and suggestion among the bright new fabrics recently unfolded in our dress goods department. We have all the accessories too, but can mention few in this space.

CORSET COVER EMBROIDERIES

We do not think you will find elsewhere as attractive, well-made and wearable Embroideries as we are showing this spring. Nothing we might say would add to the appearance of the beautiful Corset Coverings to be seen here. A personal inspection is the best convincer. All new 1914 patterns.

JABOTS AND BOW TIES

Of the ever popular Jabot and Bow Tie we have on display a great variety. All new goods. Prices, 25 and 35c.

COTTON CREPES

All the latest weaves in Cotton Crepes, with a splendid assortment of fancy figures and designs. Best quality at 25c.

RUCHINGS AND RUFFLINGS

We have paid special attention to the buying of our Ruchings and Rufflings, and we know that we have as fine a selection as can be had in the outside markets at the prices. 25 and 30c. We also have an exceptionally interesting assortment of Fancy Trimmings, Butterflies, Tassels, Laces, Buckles and Fringes.

SHADOW ALL-OVERS AND FLOUNCINGS

We are confident that you will be delighted with our showing of Shadow All-over Laces which are so popular and are going to be extensively worn on gowns this season. The dainty colorings and designs are beyond description. They must be seen draped with the appropriate goods to be appreciated in their full richness. All widths and prices.

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S HOUSE DRESSES
Splendid assortment of styles and patterns—all prices

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE CO.