

acres now in cultivation, 100 acres pasture land, part of which can be planted to fruit. Warner Creek flows through the land and a nice spring that can be piped to the house and barn. Place fenced, house and barn. Price $16 per acre. 80 acres of meadow land, cuts 80 tons of hay. At head of lake, price $15 per acre. 680 acres 8 miles north of Lakeview for $15 per acre. 80 acres into meadow, cuts 100 tons, 40 acres pasture land and all the balance is fine grain and alfalfa land, good water right, new house and large barn, 500 acres fenced. This is sure a bargain. 40 acres timber—good wood claim, 11 miles from town, has between 800 and 1000 cords of wood, good road and level land. Price $350. Two and one-half lots in the Sherlock Addition opposite Dunbar new residence. A bargain at $550. Act quick. We have several good ranches for cattle and sheep. Send for our large bulletin giving prices of land all over Lake and Modoc Counties.

CURTIS & UTLEY, REAL ESTATE LAKEVIEW, OREGON

120 acres on Cottonwood creek, 35 acres into Timothy, Alfalfa, Grain, and a nice garden, water right, an ideal small dairy or poultry farm, lots of outside grazing, house, barn, granary and other out-buildings. Price, $1800, half cash. 11 miles from Lakeview. 8-room residence in Drenkel addition, near City Park, two lots 100 by 150, barn and chicken house. Price, $2000, half cash at 6 per cent. The price is less than cost. 320 acres good land, part into grain and alfalfa, near Union School, all fenced and cross fence, barn and corrals. Stock water in creek always. This is a good farm, at $20.00 per acre. 310 acres three miles north of Lakeview, 200 acres fine alfalfa land, about 100

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MARCH 19, 1914

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT

For week ending March 18, 1914.

Date	TEMPERATURE		PRECP.	CHARACTER OF DAY
	Max.	Min.
12	29	21	0.00	Partly Cloudy
13	28	23	0.00	Clear
14	28	28	0.00	Clear
15	31	30	0.00	Clear
16	33	27	0.00	Clear
17	29	20	0.00	Clear
18	31	31	0.00	Clear

C. C. GOFF, OBSERVER, Station five miles Northwest of Lakeview.

BRIEF MENTION

Cr'b blankets bath robes, sweaters and gloves at the Mercantile Co.

F. G. Messner of Fort Bidwell spent several days in this city last week.

Walter Dutton was up from Davis Creek last week and spent a few days in Lakeview.

A son was born on March 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Baty (nee Clara Stanley, of Ft. Bidwell).

Mrs. J. P. McAuliffe returned home last week after spending a few months visiting in Chicago.

T. A. Crump, a successful farmer of the lower Warner Valley, was attending to business here a few days this week.

Hay For Sale—Baled grain and wild hay, also seed barley, for sale. See or address W. R. Bernard, Lakeview, Oregon. Mch 19-14

C. N. McArthur, speaker of the House at the last Legislature, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from the Third Oregon district.

Ladies of the Union Sunday School at New Pine Creek will hold a pillow slip sale Saturday, March 28. Proceeds will be used to pay electric light bill a Christian Church.

Miss Alice McGrath, representing the Examiner Publishing Company, is spending a few days in the towns of Alturas, Cedarville and Ft. Bidwell, Cal., in the interests of the paper.

Jason Elder, who for the past several weeks has been employed in the Fremont National Forest office in Lakeview, accompanied by his wife, Monday returned to their home at Paisley.

Baker, Oregon has established a precedent in the way of taxation by making a levy of one-half mill on all taxable property in the town for a fund for an annual Fourth of July celebration.

H. E. Strassburger, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific with headquarters in Lakeview, Monday returned from a business trip down the N.-C.-O. line. He will make a trip to Reno this week.

Port Rock Times: The latter part of last week while on his way to Bend in his automobile, Earl Houston had the misfortune to spring a leak in the gasoline tank, it caught fire and the car burned up. The metal frame was all that remained.

Considerable plowing is being done on the West Side, and it is said the farmers are preparing to sow a large acreage in that section this season. Plowing is also being started on several farms on the east side of the valley, and fall grain everywhere is reported to be looking fine.

I. A. Underwood is building a handsome residence on his Center Street property, just east of the lumber yard. The house contains five rooms with bath, pantry, halls, closets, porches, laundry room and basement and will surely be a handsome addition to that part of town.

The president and Mrs. Wilson have announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Eleanor Randolph, to Hon. William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the Treasury. Mr. McAdoo is 59 years old, while Miss Wilson is 24. He is a widower and has six children, one son and one daughter being married.

In replacing a railroad trestle recently burned along the north shore of Great Salt Lake, engineers have just found that the piles are still perfectly sound after 43 years of service. Looking for the cause, since these were only of local pine and fir, they found the timbers were impregnated throughout with salt from the lake.

An excellent dance was given on Thursday night of last week by the members of the A. O. U. W. lodge. About 75 members of the Degree of Honor and A. O. U. W. lodges, with invited guests were in attendance. Supper was served at midnight, and consisted of sandwiches, salads, lettuce, cakes, coffee, etc. The committee in charge consisted of E. D. Everett, John Arzner, A. E. Garrett and R. H. Vandervort.

Curtis & Utley buy furn.

For Free Sweet Pea seed see offer on last page of this issue.

R. A. Ogg of the circulation department of the Reno Gazette was in Lakeview Tuesday.

Marshall Ayres and wife last week went to Fort Bidwell where they expect to remain permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Parker and son Arthur, spent several days in town this week from their home at Adel.

Richard Guinee passed through Lakeview last week returning to his home in Paisley after a trip to San Francisco.

F. M. Miller returned to Lakeview Tuesday night, following a business and pleasure trip to Berkeley and San Francisco.

James Hodden was in town Monday from his farm west of here and took home a load of new machinery to begin his spring farming.

Directors of the United States Express Company of New York voted unanimously to liquidate its affairs and dissolve in the shortest possible time.

The new city council of Klamath Falls has decided to contribute $800 toward the advertising fund which is being raised by the Chamber of Commerce.

It is reported that Gus Schroeder of Silver Lake was successful in securing the contract for carrying mail from Silver Lake to Cliff. The term of the contract is four years, effective July 1 this year.

W. W. Naughton, president of the San Francisco Press Club, dean of the Pacific Coast sporting writers, and known the breadth of the country, died in San Francisco last week, from heart disease.

W. K. McCormack and family of Summer Lake have gone to Portland where they expect to take up permanent residence. Mr. McCormack has sold his large property interests at Summer Lake to Withers Brothers.

The Ladies Civic Improvement Club will award prizes this season for the best lawns and best flower gardens. The prizes will be about the same as given last year, which matter will be decided definitely later.

N. J. Slinnot of The Dalles has filed his declaration of candidacy for reelection to Congress from the Second District of Oregon. He has adopted the slogan: "Rural credits, good roads, liberal homestead laws and a majority rule."

C. H. Leonard of Burns in company with Thos. Allen and S. J. Hern of the French-Glenn Cattle Company were in Lakeview last week on business connected with the hearing of the above interests against W. Z. Moss concerning the ownership of cattle.

J. Chas. Smith, of the Parisian Millinery, has bought the F. O. Bunting property on Main street, on which is located the building occupied by the milliner store. The property has a thirty-two feet frontage, with a two story frame building and the consideration was $3000.

Cedarville Record: D. S. Denehy last week purchased James Williams' interest in the D. S. Denehy Mercantile Co. of this place and sold a block of the company stock to Jas. Street, Sid Street and Fred Street. The business will be conducted as heretofore under the name of the D. S. Denehy Mercantile Co.

Leo Hasel has purchased the house and lot belonging to Chas. Umbach on Dewey street, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lonzway, and will take possession immediately. Mr. and Mrs. Lonzway have taken rooming apartments in the Umbach building on Canyon street.

This will be one of the most prosperous years in the history of Silver Lake, is the opinion of the Leader, which says that there will be more business buildings erected and more new enterprises started than in many years, and that more new homes will be erected and more city work commenced than in any year in the past 20.

The corner lot, west of the W. P. Heryford residence, on Dewey street has been purchased by the Presbyterian Church of Lakeview and plans are now under way for the erection of a church building on the property. The church owns an inside lot in the same block and it is said to be for sale since making this last purchase.

Bidwell News: Geo. H. Ayres, local representative of the Modoc Co. Irrigation Company was served Friday with a $10,000 attachment of the company's charts, surveys and office equipment. This is the first step for the early commencement of work on the Cow Head project, as this move is made to force the company to do something.

Pigs for sale, seven shoats and a sow. Apply at this office.

Born in Lakeview, March 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. George, of Plush, a daughter.

Barney Gruman is in town this week from the Rehart ranch at Crooked Creek.

Andrew Morris, the Warner Valley dairyman, was in Lakeview last week with a load of cream and butter.

For Sale Cheap—Gasoline lighting plant, suitable for house or store. Inquire at this office. Mch. 19-14

Two additional regiments of the United States Infantry were dispatched to Texas last week to allay the fears of raids by Mexicans along the Texas border.

Wm. LaSater, who for the past 26 months has served as deputy Game and Fish Warden in Northern Lake County, has severed his connection with the State Commission.

George Westinghouse died in New York March 12, following a long period of illness. He was the inventor of the airbrake and president of 30 corporations, whose aggregate capital stock is $120,000,000.

Merrill Record: Mr. Harvey, the Lake County man who was injured while riding a bucking horse in Merrill some weeks ago, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Harvey is with her husband at the Riverside hotel.

City Marshal Striplin is giving notification that tomorrow will be cleanup day on Water Street and that property owners and tenants are to have all trash and refuse swept from the gutter to the middle of the street.

President Wilson last week signed the Alaska railroad bill, which provides for the construction of a railroad into the northern gold fields of Alaska. The president used two pens—one of ivory and silver and one of ivory and gold.

Klamath County is soon to have a cheese factory says the Northwestern. It will be located in Langell Valley on the C. L. Holiday ranch and already is in the course of construction. The factory is expected to be in operation in a few months.

It is now stated that the sole ambition of Villa, the one time bandit, is to become president of Mexico, and that it will remain so until he is either dead or president. If Mexico could possibly be any worse off than at present, it would be for Villa to take Huerta's place.

W. D. Trout of Reno, who comes highly recommended will give a public lecture in the M. E. Church Wednesday, March 25, at 7:30 p. m., on the subject of "Masonry." Admission will be free, but collection will be taken up at the end of the meeting to defray incidental expenses.

R. A. Booth of Eugene has filed his declaration as an aspirant for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. He asks that the following twelve words be published after his name on the ballot: "Credit restored. Labor employed. Produce protected. Lands reclaimed. Oregon developed. Homes protected."

Portland's harbor front suffered its most devastating conflagration in history last week when two mammoth grain docks laden with wheat were completely destroyed, and two large vessels were ruined almost beyond repair and a dozen buildings were more or less scorched by driving flames. The total loss caused by the fire is estimated at nearly a million dollars.

A jury trial of John Duncan vs. Rehart Brothers, a suit for wages amounting to $128, was held before Justice of the Peace Chas. Umbach last Monday. While a case of this nature should ordinarily be decided in favor of the wage earner, the jury considered the claim of the defendants that the plaintiff was gross negligent and returned a verdict in their favor.

Dr. Smith was called to the McCulley ranch west of town Saturday night to attend Clarence Anderson who sustained quite serious injuries from falling from his wagon near that place while returning home from Lakeview. The following day he was removed to his home on the West Side, and while his neck was injured quite seriously, he is reported to be recovering as well as could be expected.

George B. Whorton, proprietor of Ye Olde Inn returned home Monday from a trip to Stockton, Cal., where he visited Mrs. Whorton and children. He also made a short trip to San Francisco. Mr. Whorton has taken a lease on the Drenkel building on the corner of Water and Canyon streets, now occupied by the Combs Pool and Billiard Hall, and will take charge April first. Mr. Combs states that he is undecided about re-opening in another building here.

E. Keller and wife of New Pine Creek were visitors in Lakeview—the first of the week.

A line of reasonably priced ladies and childrens house dresses at the Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Born at the Lakeview Hospital in Lakeview, Oregon, Tuesday, March 17, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cogburn, a 9½ pound boy.

Mrs. George Chandler is reported to be suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

George Bentz is now the possessor of a Ford car, he having purchased one this week from Auten & Jennings.

County Attorney O. C. Gibbs, Monday left by horseback on a business trip to the northern part of the county.

The many friends of J. B. Blair were glad to see him upon the streets this week following an operation recently performed by Doctors Smith and Everett.

Dr. W. Hayden Flisk is now the proud papa of a fine baby girl, who made her arrival at the Lakeview Hospital Tuesday, March 17, Mrs. Flisk and daughter are doing nicely. The baby weighed nine pounds.

The petition of Wesley O. Smith, of Klamath Falls, who will be a candidate for re-election to the office of Representative from this judicial district, is being circulated among the voters of Lakeview.

F. P. Lane has ordered a new 1914 Model Cadillac automobile through Auten & Jennings the local dealers in Cadillac and Ford cars. It is expected that Mr. Lane's car will arrive today or tomorrow, being driven down from Bend.

Catching thirty fish, a broken car and a walk of six or eight miles were some of the experiences of the party, composed of Harry Bailey, A. L. Thornton, F. P. Light and W. F. Grob, who went to Drews Creek Tuesday in Bailey's car.

Lakeview Encampment Lodge, No. 18 will confer the royal purple degree on six candidates in the I.O.O.F. Hall tonight. The initiating ceremonies are to be followed by a banquet and a large attendance of members is requested.

Will Investigate Rates

Sacramento Bee: The State Railroad Commission has begun an investigation on its own initiative into all the rates of the Nevada, California, Oregon Railway, and a public hearing will be held before Commissioner Gordon at Alturas, Modoc County, on March 27th.

Scores Votes For Women

George Wingfield, mining millionaire, is quoted in the Sacramento Bee as declaring that if women are allowed to vote in Nevada by the adoption of the Suffrage Amendment at the coming election he will close up his interests, including farming, banking and mining and leave Nevada.

Unemployed Army Dispensing

With the food supply rapidly diminishing, and a raw north wind, making life unpleasant on the Yolo County, Cal., sand levees the "unemployed army" around the California capital is said to be rapidly disintegrating. Only about 300 out of the original 1500 now remain.

Chautauqua Circle

The Lakeview Chautauqua Circle will meet with Miss Hall at the home of Mrs. Bailey, Monday, March 23, at 7:30 p. m. Program, Roll Call, current events. Subject, Studies in the Poetry of Italy, Chapter VI, The Renaissance and Ariosto, Miss Hall; Chapter VII, Tasso, Miss Knight; Chapter VIII, The Period of Decadence and the Revival.

Martial Law

Although no proclamation was issued, martial law existed at San Diego the first of the week along the border for miles each side of Tecate, Cal., following the destruction by fire of the general store containing the United States postoffice and customs office and the murder of Postmaster Johnson, Saturday night, by three men declared to be Mexicans.

Anti-Mexican feeling is said to be aroused to fever heat in that vicinity of California.

Destroy Trash

All trash about the farm should be burned during the first dry weather. Weeds, rodents, insects, germs, and bed air find refuge in piles of decaying plant and animal matter. "An ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure," says A. L. Lovett, crop-pest specialist at the Agricultural College.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.

REAL ESTATE

LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

"E & W" SHIRTS

"Troy's Best Product."
Take a look at our Spring Showing of these high grade Shirts.
Priced at $1.50 to $3.00.

"GORDON" HATS

The Rival of any $5.00 hat on the market. Price $3.00.
All the New Spring Blocks.

"MUNSING" UNION SUITS

The last word in Underwear manufacture. Try a suit to be convinced of the comfort of a perfect fitting Union Suit.
Priced at $1.50 to $3.00.

WALK-OVER SHOES

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

The World's Largest Factory Making Women's Fine Shoes

Only

DAILY CAPACITY 1700 PAIRS EMPLOYING 5,127 PEOPLE

Nothing but merit in the article made can build such a business as this—an organization of shoe specialists with but one ambition: To Make Better Shoes Every Day.

It means just what the name implies—The Queen of Quality. This name on a shoe is your guarantee of Excellence in Style, Fit and Comfort. It means the last word in beauty of design and fashion

We are showing the new Spring Shoes right now. It is a feast for the eyes—a showing of beauty and real art in shoe making. We want you to come in and take a look. You don't have to buy—all we ask is to show you. You will understand why we are so enthusiastic when you see what we have on exhibition.

Prices $3.50 to $5.00

Lakeview Mercantile Company

