POPULAR CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

The candidacy of Gus C. Moser, of Portland, for the Republican nomination for Governor, is apparently being strongly supported in the Willamette Valley and Columbia River Counties, and should he receive the nomination there is no doubt but that he would be elected. He is very highly spoken of by W. Lair Thompson, State Senator from this district, who has served with him in the State Senate. Mr. Moser was one of the very active members of the Senate who worked hard to defeat the new tax law requiring the payment of all taxes at one time.

Mr. Moser has been a resident of Oregon for more than 20 years, and is therefore thoroughly conversant with the needs of the State. During that time he has practiced law in Portland, where he is one of the prominent attorneys. He is of the opinion that by consolidating or abolishing numerous Commissions a large saving would be made the State. He also favors a vigorous enforcement of all the criminal laws with firmness and impartiality and with dignity as well.

Mr. Moser's friends feel that his candidacy has been very much strengthened by the withdrawal of R. L. Stevens from the campaign, inasmuch as both are residents of Portland, and it is believed that he will receive a very strong vote in Multnomah County.

And now Jeff Meyers comes to the front and absolutely declines to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of the great State of Oregon. It is about the only thing that Jeff ever refused in the way of political preferment, but he outlines the platform upon which he would run had he decided differently. Summed up in one word his platform would be "Retrenchment" with a big R. However, it is not supposed that his platform would apply to Multnomah County when it came to receiving State aid, but rather to the "Cow Counties," as has been the case for so these many years. Many of us remember the howl that went up over the first "Billion Dollar" Congress some years ago and what a crying need there was for retrenchment, but it was subsequently learned that this is a "billion dollar country, and so we all become accustomed to the big way of doing business. And the same will no doubt prove true of State affairs, for many of us have the habit of crying "Retrenchment" before election, but after we get into office we find that it requires a vast amount of money to conduct the business of the City, County, State or Nation, as the case may be.

"Bill" Hanley has accepted an invitation to seek the Progressive nomination for United States Senator from Oregon. "Bill" has been floundering around in the political sea for some time past. According to reports it was only a short time ago that he was supporting Wilson in his Presidential campaign as the only means of defeating the Progressive nominee Colonel Roosevelt. However, his action is no exception to the old rule that politics make strange bedfellows.

Hanley is Candidate

William Hanley, of Burns, Or., familiarly known as the cattle king of Harney county, has entered the race for the United States Senate, having announced his candidacy for the Progressive nomination. He is the third to announce himself for the position, the other two being George E. Chamberlain, Democratic incumbent, and R. A. Booth, of Eugene, Republican candidate.

Returns to Lakeview

C. Ross Anderson, a prominent and well known resident of Lakeview, returned here this week and will remain permanently having charge of the tin and repair shop in T. E. Bernard's Hardware Store. Mr. Anderson left Lakeview ten years ago, first going to Klamath Falls but for the past two years has been at Roseville, Cal. His wife and son, by first marriage, who is now eleven years old, will remain at Roseville until the present school term ends when they will join Mr. Anderson in Lakeview.

He states that he notes numerous substantial improvements in the town since his absence and is very glad to get back to Lakeview.

Fresh From the Emerald Isle

The population of Lake County was increased to the tune of nineteen with the arrival of that number of young men straight from Ireland. Twelve arrived with the first installment last week but the number was increased to nineteen when more arrived on Tuesday night's train.

All the young men will become permanent citizens of this great country, and a number have already departed for various sheep camps over the county where they have secured employment.
