Telephone Trust Adjusted

Once more has the federal government demonstrated its right and its power to regulate corporate business that in its very nature is a monopoly so that the interests of the public shall be better served. The so-called telephone trust by which the Bell System dominates the lines of Oregon, Washington and Idaho was dissolved without a fight at Portland last week when a decree accepted by the telephone interests and conceding the Government's demand was entered in the Federal Court. It ends the suit under the Sherman anti-trust law brought last July by the Attorney-General, and the newspapers report that a satisfactory adjustment has been made.
