IRRIGATION AND DESERT CLAIMS

A new regulation concerning desert land entries has just been promulgated by the Department of the Interior at Washington which in a way will make it much more difficult to secure public land under this method. In effect it compels the applicant to make a showing that has heretofore been required at the time of making final proof. The regulation provides that whoever makes a desert land entry must acquire a clear right to the use of sufficient water to irrigate and reclaim the whole of the land entered or as much of it as is susceptible of irrigation. Therefore whoever tenders a desert land application without definite arrangements for obtaining water, in anticipation of the construction of extensive irrigation works not determined upon, and where it is not demonstrated that water can be conserved in sufficient quantity and conveyed to the land, does not meet the requirements of the law, and the declaration shall be rejected by the register and receiver, subject to the usual right of appeal. If applicant proposes to appropriate water for the irrigation of the land claimed by him, he must file with his declaration record evidence of his notice of appropriation under the applicable State laws. In case he proposes to procure water through an irrigation district, a corporation, or an association, record evidence of a contract for water must accompany his declaration, or if no contract has been obtained prior to entry some written assurance from responsible officials of such district, corporation or association having either a proposed irrigation scheme, one under construction or one completed that, if entry be allowed, applicant will be able to procure from that source the necessary water to irrigate and reclaim the land described in the declaration.

HIGH PRICED DAIRY STOCK

Dairying promises to be one of the leading industries of Lake County in the near future, and at present there is considerable inquiry concerning dairy stock. Prices obtained at public sales are good indication of what is doing in the livestock industry. A two-days consignment sale of Holsteines, held near Syracuse, New York, the latter part of January, gave the breeders of the black-and-whites no reason for misgiving. One hundred seventy-five animals, most of them contributed by New York breeders, sold for an average of $270, a total of $48,180. This was a remarkably good record, considering that many of the animals were young.

The highest priced animal was King Pontiac Posh, a son of the famous King of the Pontiacs. He was sold for $2900 to a New York breeder and his former owner immediately repurchased a half interest in him. A yearling bull Sir Johanna Rag Apple De Kol, was sold to a Wisconsin breeder for $2050. One cow, Pauline Clyde Wayne, sold for $1000, and a heifer, Funderne Countess Pontiac, consigned by a New Jersey breeder, brought $1405. A breeder from the state of Washington paid $900 for the heifer calf, Doris King of the Pontiacs.

MEETING WITH APPROVAL

That the candidacy of Henry L. Benson for Supreme Judge is meeting with hearty approval over the state generally is evinced by the numerous favorable press reports he is receiving. The following is from the Bend Bulletin:

Henry L. Benson of Klamath Falls is a candidate whose record justifies his election to the State Supreme Court. His work in the circuit court of Lake and Klamath counties has established him in a position of great esteem, both so far as legal ability and personal popularity is concerned. He is a wise judge, a scholar of parts and a progressive citizen. His selection at the primaries and ultimate election would be a credit to the state.

Now that the filing of petitions by the office seekers has closed it is shown that the voters will have a large list to select from. Even the most fastidious should be able to select a satisfactory candidate from a list of 14 for Governor, while almost as many candidates are seeking other state offices. Here in Lake County there are not so many candidates for local offices and as a consequence the political pot has not shown any signs of becoming uncontrollable. However, the situation may assume a different hue after the primaries, for one occasionally hears a rumor of war that is likely to put in an appearance before the Fall election.

And now it is proposed to assess all property at its "actual cash value." The query natural arises as to who is to fix the actual cash value of property and how is he to arrive at his conclusions? It is doubtful if any two individuals would value the same piece of property any where near the same amount. It is not uncommon to find difference of 50 per cent in the valuation of property in the opinion of two individuals, and in many cases the difference is much greater. Assessment and taxation troubles will no doubt continue to the end of time, or until the Socialists rule the country, which possibly may not occur until the aforesaid crack of doom.

Paisley Pick-Ups

(Chewaucan Press)
A team of ten mules with four wagons passed through Paisley enroute to Lakeview where they were going for a load of distillate for the dredger.

W. H. Kendall and J. E. Harper took a trip to Lakeview Tuesday where Kendall went to have papers served on Bill Partin for alleged assault.

C. W. Withers came to Paisley in his auto Saturday. He brought in a load of Summer Lake people who spent a few hours shopping with our enterprising merchants.

R. N. Phelps and I. A. Moss have both purchased new Ford automobiles the past week. R. N. Phelps drove his in from Bend Tuesday. Mr. Moss expects to receive his about Monday.

Eph Miller has sold out his interest in the picture show to Mr. C. E. Campbell and the business will hereafter be conducted under the firm name of Campbell & Snider. This is a business which should meet with the hearty support of all as it provides us with many pleasurable evenings which we would not have otherwise.

C. E. Robison and family moved to town Saturday and are now occupying the Mercantile Co. residence on Mill street. Mr. Robison assumed charge of the Chewaucan Mercantile Co. store Monday. He, with the assistance of Eph Miller, formerly manager and two of the directors, is making a complete new list of the entire stock.

Silver Lake Items

(From the Leader)
Silver Lake enjoyed a genuine April shower Saturday and Sunday nights.

Ranger C. W. Weyburn and wife of Summer Lake were guests at the home of Scott McCombs during the week.

where he has purchased a new auto with which to carry the mail between Paisley and Silver Lake.

George Emery and family who have been living at Summer Lake for several years have returned to their farm near Silver Lake, where they will make their home in the future.

Mrs. Jane Bonham, who has resided in Lake County for the last 35 years registered this week and will cast her first vote this year at the age of 74 years. She is the oldest woman voter to register thus far known in Lake County.

The Wenandy Livery and Auto Co. is intending to put on fast auto trucks between Bend and Silver Lake and will attend to the freight and passenger traffic between these two points. This will be an excellent chance to have cream delivered to the Bend creamery which will be in operation in a short time.

Jack Embody was down from the Embody Lumber Co.'s mill Wednesday making arrangements to start up the mill about May 1. He stated that while the company had on hand over 700,000 feet of dry lumber the prospects for building the coming summer was bright enough to warrant almost a continuous run until fall.

A Question Regarding Voting

Warner Lake, Oregon, April 3.—To the Editor of the Examiner—Will you please explain through your columns why it is that the registration clerks are telling the men and women who wish to register Progressive that if they do their votes will be lost at the Primary election? And as they register Democratic, Republican, etc., so must they vote at the Primaries regardless of personal choice in the matter of candidates for nomination. MRS. C. E. DRIVER.

1. Electors registering as Progressive will not lose their votes at the Primary election as there will be a Progressive ticket although this may be blank at the Primaries for Lake County officers.

2. At the Primaries electors must cast their ballots for candidates on ticket whose party affiliations correspond with the voters as registered, but they also have the privilege of writing in any name on the ballot regardless of party.

Klamath Candidates

Reilo C. Groesbeck announced his intention to oppose W. W. Smith, already an aspirant on the Democratic ticket for the Judgeship of Klamath County, says the Northwestern, but following the announcement of Marion Hanks hardware man, Groesbeck withdrew. Judge J. B. Griffith has also withdrawn, leaving Hanks and Smith to oppose each other at the Democratic primaries.

Will S. Worden, present incumbent is said to be the only man out on the Republican ticket, although it is talked that others will be in the field for nomination.

Wool Buyers Arrive

Valentin Walter, representing the New Jersey Worsted Spinning Co., of Garfield, N. J. and Joseph W. Satz, of San Francisco, arrived in Lakeview last week to interview Lake County sheep men with a view to making purchases of wool.

Mr. Walter is the first wool buyer ever in Lake County who directly represented the mills. He grew up in the business and hence knows the wool industry from beginning to end. He purchases wool entirely upon its merits, never contracting for any on the sheep's back, unless it is a rare bargain. Mr. Walter believes that Lake County growers make a great mistake in selling their wool before shearing as in this way they lose the opportunity of getting a big price for an unusually good clip. Wool, he says, cannot be judged on the sheep's back.		State vs. Dupont.....	3 55
