Little Miss Natuk.
Pretty Eskimo Girl.

Photo by American Press Association.

According to our standards, the Eskimos as a people have little to recommend them on the score of physical beauty, but the girl here pictured would be pronounced handsome by the most critical. She is a full blooded Eskimo, and her name is Natuk. Little Natuk was born in the far north above the arctic circle, where ice and snow are always to be seen. For some time past she has been a resident of New York city and has learned to like the ways of white people. The recent arctic weather, with its almost constant snowstorms, has been a source of real delight to the little maiden from the frozen regions. She just revelled in the snow and spent most of her time enjoying it. Her photograph was taken while she was at play in the park, and it shows a really sweet and pretty girl. She is of gentle and jolly disposition, and those who know her admire her greatly.

NORTHWEST MAKING BID FOR TRAVEL IN 1915

Commercial Clubs all Over State are "Getting Busy" Along Development Lines

Portland, Oregon, April 14.—During the past week representatives of four of the great railroads traversing this territory joined with the commercial organizations of Portland, Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle in the preparation of plans for properly presenting the numerous attractions of the Pacific Northwest to the tourists who will next year make a pilgrimage to the exposition at San Francisco. Another conference will be held in about two weeks at which time the details of some cooperative scheme will be worked out. It is probable that a tourist bureau will be established at some central point in the Middle West from which efforts will be made to induce tourists to purchase tickets over lines serving the Northwest states. The expenses of such a bureau will be borne jointly by the railroads and the commercial clubs.

"Commercial Clubs of Oregon are getting busy," said Tom Richardson after a visit to numerous points throughout the state. Salem is a notable example of community union. There is no discord at the Capital City, the entire citizenry is a chorus in its Commercial work. Recently the Club has almost doubled in membership and is planning many new undertakings for the benefit of the surrounding country as well as for the city. The Cherry Fair especially is to be made bigger and better than ever.

At Eugene, M. J. Duryea has been elected Commercial Club secretary for another year. He is devoted to his work and Eugene appreciates him. Judd Fish has retired from the secretaryship at The Dalles and his place will be filled by E. R. Hill, an experienced man.

When Springtime Comes.
Spring is on the way! You can hear her whispering to the brook to break up the ice along the border so that the tender green spike of grass and flower can push through and telling the buds on the treetops and the flowers that nestle on the ground that they may stretch themselves a bit, for she is coming to stay.

The birds have known for a long time of spring's coming, and the woodland rings with their voices. The bluebirds gossip softly as they preen their beautiful feathers, and the goldfinches sing "Perchicorree" as they bound through the air. A solitary robin perches on the warmest branch of a fir tree and rather forlornly calls, "Here, here," but nobody answers him, for his brothers are wiser than he and will stay where it is warm and comfortable for some time yet.

Riddles.
What river is that which runs between two seas? The Thames, which flows between Chelsea and Battersea.
What sort of a young woman would you like to swallow on a cold day? A little milk made (milkmaid) hot.
Why is a coal charity the best of all charities? Because it makes the receivers' grate full (grateful).

Hunting Easter Eggs.
Hunting eggs at Easter is the best of fun. And when played at our house here's the way it's done:
Papa always hides them after we're in bed.
In whatever places come into his head—
Under chairs and tables, corners on the floor,
Back of sofa pillows and behind the door.
Then on Easter morning we begin to look,
Search the rooms to find them, peer in every nook.

Thi they're all discovered, when we give it o'er
And sit down together to count up our share
And if one's unlucky and don't get his share
Mamma makes us give him enough to make it fair.
