

CURTIS & UTLEY, REAL ESTATE
LAKEVIEW, OREGON

120 acres on Cottonwood creek, 35 acres into Timothy, Alfalfa, Grain, and a nice garden, water right, an ideal small dairy or poultry farm, lots of outside grazing, house, barn, granary and other out-buildings. Price, $1800, half cash. 11 miles from Lakeview.
8-room residence in Drenkel addition, near City Park, two lots 100 by 150, barn and chicken house. Price, $2000, half cash at 6 per cent. The price is less than cost.
320 acres good land, part into grain and alfalfa, near Union School, all fenced and cross fence, barn and corrals. Stock water in creek always. This is a good farm, at $20.00 per acre.
310 acres three miles north of Lakeview, 200 acres fine alfalfa land, about 100 acres now in cultivation, 100 acres pasture land, part of which can be planted to fruit. Warner Creek flows through the land and a nice spring that can be piped to the house and barn. Place fenced, house and barn. Price $16 per acre.

80 acres of meadow land, cuts 80 tons of hay. At head of lake, price $15 per acre.
680 acres 8 miles north of Lakeview for $15 per acre. 80 acres into meadow, cuts 100 tons, 40 acres pasture land and all the balance is fine grain and alfalfa land, good water right, new house and large barn, 500 acres fenced. This is sure a bargain.
40 acres timber—good wood claim, 11 miles from town, has between 800 and 1000 cords of wood, good road and level land. Price $350.
Two and one-half lots in the Sherlock Addition opposite Dunbar new residence. A bargain at $550. Act quick.
We have several good ranches for cattle and sheep. Send for our large bulletin giving prices of land all over Lake and Modoc Counties.

Lake County Examiner
THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1914

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT
For the week ending May 13, 1914.

Date	TEMPERATURE		PRECIP. Amount	CHARACTER OF DAY
	Maxi- mum	Mini- mum
7	89	38	0.00	Partly Cloudy
8	86	40	0.04	Partly Cloudy
9	80	31	0.00	Partly Cloudy
10	89	45	Trace	Clear
11	66	54	0.00	Partly Cloudy
12	72	58	0.00	Partly Cloudy
13	75	41	0.00	Partly Cloudy

C. C. GOTT, OBSERVER.
Station five miles Northwest of Lakeview.

BRIEF MENTION

Began for sale at Bailey & Mansingh's store.
F. M. Green yesterday came up from his home at New Pine Creek.
Fort Rock is making preparations for an elaborate Fourth of July celebration.
L. P. Klippel of Summer Lake was a business visitor in Lakeview a few days last week.
J. M. Small a stockman of Summer Lake is among the out of town visitors here this week.
Ross Finley of Bly has purchased Ed Cardwell's alfalfa ranch near Merrill, at a price of $80 per acre.
M. S. Barnes, who has been conducting the Paisley Garage for E. O. Lamb for the past several weeks has returned to Lakeview.
Subscriptions for the Weekly Oregonian will be taken at this office up to and including May 16, at the extremely low rate of 75 cents per year.
C. C. Mahan and family, who went to Fallon, Nevada last fall have returned and will remain permanently. They will live on the F. P. Cronmiller farm below this city.
Cedarville Record: About two days ago a bolt of lightning struck one of the electric light poles, breaking it off, and killing three head of cattle near the old Granger saw mill.
Bonanza Bulletin: H. F. Swingle of Lake County was in the city recently looking over the old time friends of his youth. Holly was born here and it was like coming home to get back.
C. J. Selby, land commissioner, E. Pinkus and B. D. Wooley, of Lost Creek in the northeastern part of the county, were attending to business matters at the county seat a few days last week.
Chas. Larkin came up from his farm near New Pine Creek the first of the week in his auto truck bringing a load of vegetables. He says his strawberries will be ready for the market in a few days.
Vinton Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Miller was an arrival last evening from Berkeley where he has been in school. He will be employed in the store of the Lakeview Mercantile Company this summer.
Grover Vernon, youngest son of T. B. Vernon, who has been confirmed as postmaster of Lakeview, is now working in the postoffice getting onto the ropes so he can act as vice when his father assumes charge of the office.
County Attorney Gibbs is having a home erected on his homestead in the northern part of the valley. R. M. Corbett is doing the work. Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs will shortly take up their residence on the claim, he making regular trips to town to attend to office duties.
Blawell News: Carl Gray was accompanied on his return from Alturas Sunday by his wife, Dan Browne, of Berkeley, and Superintendent Fuller of the local Indian school, who had been summoned to appear before the Federal Court in San Francisco.
Alturas New Era: The Modoc High School boys left here on Thursday's train for New Pine Creek with camping outfits, and spent a couple of days fishing. They returned home Saturday being called home by the sad news of the death of their class mate, Miss Gladys Stuber.
Alturas Plaindealer: Hon. W. T. Cressler, wife and daughter arrived on Saturday's train from a three months visit to the eastern states. During his absence Mr. Cressler visited many states, and everywhere noted a most wonderful progress in both city, town and farms. He says money in the east is plentiful and cheap, one banker in Pennsylvania declaring he had difficulty in loaning at 5 per cent. Mr. Cressler's visit extended as far south as Norfolk, Va., and everywhere he saw nothing but evidence of thrift and prosperity.

E. A. Friday, a merchant of Pich is here this week.
John Morris of the West Side is doing jury duty in town this week.
Since disposing of his large Winton Six car, J. B. Auten now drives a Ford.
Mrs. J. P. Landon came down from Paisley last week and spent several days in this city.
George Winkelman and wife Sunday came down from their home at Summer Lake in their car.
E. Carlon and W. D. Robinett were arrivals here Sunday from their homes at Summer Lake.
Mrs. R. Ransom of Paisley was down last week visiting her children who are attending school at this place.
C. B. Parker and D. P. Browne Tuesday drove over from the MC ranch near Adel and will remain here a few days on business.
Prof. J. A. Richards is down from Paisley this week assisting with the correction of the papers of the eighth grade examinations held here last week.
J. L. Freeman, K. P. Buick, Everett Emery, Walter Kitzbridge, Frank Jamison, Chas. Pitcher and F. E. Hoagland of Silver Lake are down on court business.
R. N. Buchwalter, publisher of the Chewaucan Press, returned home last night after attending the trial of the State vs. R. A. Harrower, he being summoned as a witness.
John and Miss Jane Roberts, brother and sister of Al Roberts, local tailor, arrived here last evening from Los Angeles. Mr. Roberts has property interests in this vicinity.
Nearly all of the strikers in the coal districts of Colorado have surrendered their arms to the federal officers, and from all appearances any further hostilities will be averted.
According to reports the local wool market is at a standstill at present and no sales are being made. It is not believed the market will open with much briskness until after shearing.
C. W. Withers, a well known farmer of Summer Lake, was transacting business here last week. He stated that everything was flourishing in that favored section of Lake County this season.
C. F. Schultz of Clover Flat passed through Lakeview this week enroute to Susanville where he expects to secure employment on the Southern Pacific railroad being constructed from that place north.
J. F. Kimball and wife Sunday returned to their home at Klamath Falls following a several week's stay in Lakeview and Lake County, where they were looking after the interests of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.
Chief of Police Joseph Smith of Klamath Falls has tendered his resignation which was accepted, says the Northwestern. Smith resigned after administering a brutal beating to an intoxicated logger, while he was in a like condition.
The Fort Rock Times says that John W. Brewer, of the Oregon State Immigration Commission, while investigating the eliminated forest lands in the northern part of the county last week saw nine mule deer in the vicinity of Cougar Mountain.
Dr. Merle C. Fox and wife and Fred Reynolds Thursday returned from Bend where they went to meet Mrs. Fox who came from Salem to join her husband in Lakeview. Dr. and Mrs. Fox are now occupying the Dr. Boyd house in the Sherlock Addition.
E. C. Ahlstrom has been doing a land office business in baby chicks. He has disposed of several hundred head of the downy tribe and has quite a few orders for more. He is selling the White Leghorns and Plymouth Rocks. They are hatched at Reno, and the price including transportation is about eleven cents each.
The Examiner is greatly pleased to announce the wonderful improvement in the condition of H. W. Morgan who has been critically ill the past several days. He is rapidly regaining strength and all indications are most favorable for a permanent recovery. Dr. Everett, attending physician has given the patient every care possible.
Reno Journal: Harry Curtz, wool buyer for Joseph Saltz, of San Francisco, Cal., came to Reno with his Studebaker twenty after spending a week at Alturas, Cal., and Lakeview, Oregon. Curtz departed for Inyo County, California. He reports the roads in northern Washoe county much improved in the last month but states that there is still room for more improvement.

W. Y. Miller is a Paisley visitor in the county seat this week.
Bank Examiner S. S. Sargent was a business visitor in this city last week.
J. P. Duckworth will buy your sheep pelts paying nine cents per pound.
J. U. Gentry, a business man of New Pine Creek is spending a few days in Lakeview.
To occupy his time for a few days, W. A. Masingill is acting as deputy clerk in Judge Benson's Court.
Miss Hattie Nywaner has taken a position with Curtis & Utley as a stenographer in their real estate office.
J. C. Selby was convicted at Alturas last week of wife abandonment and sentenced to two years in the State penitentiary at San Quentin.
Stop Paying Rent—Modern four room dwelling with large lot, well located, for sale for only $900—$100 down and $15.00 per month. See H. W. Drenkel.
Among those who are attending the present term of circuit court from Paisley are J. E. Wilcox, R. A. Harrower, J. E. Wilson, E. O. Lamb, R. N. Buchwalter and G. W. Leonard.
Lost, between Lakeview and Valley Falls, a gold watch, open face Elgin, large size. Had a fob with L. H. S. 15 attached. Finder please leave at this office and receive suitable reward.
Manuel Sanders was in town from his sheep camp last week after supplies. He says the lambing season is just beginning with his bands and that all prospects are favorable for a bountiful crop of lambs.
Mrs. Mary Ahlstrom last week returned to Lakeview from California where she spent the winter at San Francisco, Marysville and other places. She will resume her permanent residence in Lakeview.
James Blaisdel, who has been spending several days' vacation in Lakeview, last week left for Keno Springs, Klamath County, where he will have charge of the large ranch belonging to Dave Edler, the well known sheepman.
E. S. Reader of the Western Pacific with headquarters now in Reno was a welcome visitor here a few days this week. Mr. Reader was making his usual calls on the business houses and distributing literature prepared by his company.
Frank Howard who for the past several weeks has been sick at Klamath Falls, suffering from an attack of pneumonia, came over to Lakeview the first of the week. He was not entirely recovered from the illness but is rapidly gaining in strength.
Joe Ambrose announces that the Mulkey Shearing Corral west of Lakeview will be ready to receive bands to be shorn as soon as there is any work to be done. Mr. Ambrose will personally superintend the corral as usual and guarantees satisfaction to patrons. M 7-tf
Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President and Mrs. Wilson, became the bride of William Gibbs McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury last Thursday night. The wedding was rather a quiet affair and was held in the historic blue room of the White House.
An earthquake and volcanic eruption followed by fire, destroyed many villages on the slopes of Mount Etna, Italy, Friday night of last week. The number of injured reached several hundred, and the property loss is declared to be as great as in the Messina disaster of 1908.
Mothers Day was properly observed in the churches in Lakeview last Sunday. Hereafter the second Sunday in May will be National Mother's Day, the Senate having agreed to the House resolution requesting President Wilson to issue a proclamation naming May 10 National Mother's Day, and designating that the occasion for coming years be the second Sunday in May.
Baldwin & Gordon have secured the contract for hauling mail and passengers over the Lakeview-Klamath Falls line by auto this summer. The machines were started last Thursday morning and for a while was handled with an auto operating on either end and teams over the mountain section, but the through run is now made with cars.
Stanley R. Hanson, contractor, who is at present doing some good improvements on the county roads in the Crooked Creek canyon, has become a member of the plutocratic class, being the owner of an automobile. He went to Paisley last week and bought the 1913 Overland car that was brought last year by Taylor & Turpin. George Whorton, the local distributor, made the sale.

Isn't it about time to begin talking Fourth of July celebration?
John Cogburn returned to Lakeview this week coming from Omaha, Nebr.
Chester Woodward and R. E. McKune Sunday came down from Summer Lake.
A. W. Hoyt, a real estate dealer of Fairport, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
Hay For Sale—Baled grain and wild hay for sale. See or address W. R. Bernard, Lakeview, Ore. tf
M. M. Caldwell and family of Adel were visitors in Lakeview a few days the first of the week, stopping at the Hotel Lakeview.
Mrs. W. P. Dykeman departed Tuesday morning on a three month's visit with relatives and friends at her former home in Beaver Crossing, Nebr.
Joe Parman, one of Modoc County's substantial sheep growers, and James Williams a business man of Fort Bidwell came over from that place Tuesday.
Don't forget that there is to be a band concert in the Court Yard this evening and immediately after the concert a dance will be given by the Wizards in Wizard Hall.
Sunday morning Rev. Crawford will speak upon the attitude of the Presbyterian church toward popular amusements. In the evening the subject will be the "Colorado Strike."
W. Lair Thompson, G. W. Rice, Judge H. L. Benson, R. M. Richardson, F. P. Light, S. A. Mushen and H. P. Welch Saturday afternoon went to Paisley in the Thompson and Rice automobiles.
The many friends of James Barker are pleased to learn that he has returned to Lakeview. His brother, John, who is at Canyonville, Ore., has been quite ill but from last reports is improving.
Fifteen of the Presbyterian boy scouts enjoyed an overnight fishing trip to Drew's dam last Friday and Saturday with Rev. Crawford. They expect to take another overnight trip to Mud Creek this Friday.
Last week Governor West put the Friar's club of Milwaukie, a suburb of Portland, a notorious road house, under martial law and in control of the militia. On the promise of the resort to observe the law in the future, the guards were soon recalled.
School Notes
The school yard is very beautiful. Frames are being made for the school pictures.
Mr. Gill our janitor has been on the sick list for a few days.
The Seniors are practicing every night on the Senior play.
The class debates which took place Tuesday were very interesting. The final debate will be between the Juniors and Seniors next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock P. M. in the auditorium. This debate will be public and all friends are invited.
Miss Burgess, Miss Lees, and Miss Smith gave the teachers a taste of camp life Tuesday evening by inviting them to a real feed about a half mile up the canyon. The evening was ideal and the sumptuous lunch that was daintily prepared and spread on the linen on the ground was greatly enjoyed by all present.
The High School will take advantage of election day by having a school picnic. Conveyances are being arranged and all will hie to the hills for a day of pleasure and fun. Such days do not come often and this one is looked forward to with great interest and anticipation.
George Wingfield, Jr.
Reno Gazette: His name will probably be George. He weighs nine pounds. He arrived last night. He is the son and heir of George Wingfield and is a lousy kid. Mrs. Wingfield is equally proud and happy as her husband, who is trying not to act rattled, but is somewhat perturbed, particularly as his friends are keeping his office phone in a continual jingle and breaking into the continuity of what little necessary work he is attempting to do today.
Polling Places
The voting place in the North Lakeview Ward tomorrow will be in the old Public School Building, and in South Lakeview in the court house.
The polls will open at eight o'clock a. m. and close at eight o'clock p. m.
Lakeview Postmaster Confirmed
A dispatch from Washington, D. C., May 4, to the Oregonian says that the Senate that day confirmed T. B. Vernon as postmaster at Lakeview, to succeed E. C. Ahlstrom whose term expires July 1st, this year.

Wm. F. Paine & Co.
REAL ESTATE
LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

"Munsing"
The Perfect Fitting
Union Suit

We have them in long and short sleeve, ankle length, also no sleeve, knee length; good lisle garments. Price, $1.50.

Balbriggan Underwear, two-piece suits, double seated drawers, at $1.00 per suit.

Light weight wool and heavy weight cotton-ribbed Underwear, from $1.00 to $3.00 per suit.

"Shawknit" Sox, light and medium weight silk lisle, in colors, 25c.

"Shawknit" Silk Sox, in colors, 50c.

THE HOME OF BENJAMIN CLOTHES.

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

Your New Rugs

can be bought to good advantage at our Furniture and House Furnishings Department on the second floor. We can supply anything you need in this line. The following is only an outline of the offerings:

Wilton and Body Brussels Rugs and Carpeting
Axminster Rugs and Carpeting
Tapestry Brussels Rugs and Carpeting
Ingrain Art Squares and Carpeting

These goods may be had in a variety of designs, sizes and prices.

QUARTERED OAK DINING TABLE

The cut shows but one item of a splendid line of furniture shown in our rooms—a four foot round Dining Table of quartered oak, golden finish, hand rubbed, solid base, extends to 7-foot length.

Price, $27.50
For Cash (no tickets given) $24.75

REFRIGERATORS

You will need a refrigerator soon and we are offering a line especially well suited to the small family. Solid Oak, well constructed in panel design, with brass finishings, mounted on castors. Thoroughly insulated. Galvanized steel chests, with movable tray. Perfectly ventilated. Provision chamber porcelain-lined, and fitted with galvanized steel wire with silver finish. Varied sizes in prices

$9.50 to $33.00

Lakeview Mercantile Company