

CURTIS & UTLEY, REAL ESTATE LAKEVIEW, OREGON

120 acres on Cottonwood creek, 35 acres into Timothy, Alfalfa, Grain, and a nice garden, water right, an ideal small dairy or poultry farm, lots of outside grazing, house, barn, granery and other out-buildings. Price, $1800, half cash. 11 miles from Lakeview.
8-room residence in Drenkel addition, near City Park, two lots 100 by 150, barn and chicken house. Price, $2000, half cash at 6 per cent. The price is less than cost.
320 acres good land, part into grain and alfalfa, near Union School, all fenced and cross fence, barn and corrals. Stock water in creek always. This is a good farm, at $20.00 per acre.
310 acres three miles north of Lakeview, 200 acres fine alfalfa land, about 100

R
A
N
C
H
E
S

acres now in cultivation, 100 acres pasture land, part of which can be planted to fruit. Warner Creek flows through the land and a nice spring that can be piped to the house and barn. Place fenced, house and barn. Price $16 per acre.
80 acres of meadow land, cuts 80 tons of hay. At head of lake, price $15 per acre.
680 acres 8 miles north of Lakeview for $15 per acre. 80 acres into meadow, cuts 100 tons, 40 acres pasture land and all the balance is fine grain and alfalfa land, good water right, new house and large barn, 500 acres fenced. This is sure a bargain.
40 acres timber—good wood claim, 11 miles from town, has between 800 and 1000 cords of wood, good road and level land. Price $350.
Two and one-half lots in the Sherlock Addition opposite Dunbar new residence. A bargain at $550. Act quick.
We have several good ranches for cattle and sheep. Send for our large bulletin giving prices of land all over Lake and Modoc Counties.

F
A
R
M
L
A
N
D
S

Lake County Examiner THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1914

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT For week ending May 20, 1914.

Date	TEMPERATURE		PRECIP. Amount	CHARACTER OF DAY
	Maxi- mum	Mini- mum
14	71	42	0.01	Cloudy
15	63	43	Trace	Cloudy
16	62	38	0.34	Cloudy
17	69	47	0.02	Clear
18	71	39	0.00	Clear
19	71	38	0.00	Cloudy
20	75	41	0.00	Cloudy

C. C. GOTT, OBSERVER.
Station five miles Northwest of Lakeview.

BRIEF MENTION

For Sale, horses and mares, cattle and hogs. L. L. Hopkins.

J. W. Fitzwater was in town Tuesday from his home on the West Side.

O. T. McKendree last week contracted for F. A. Fitzpatrick's 1914 crop of wool.

E. W. Follett who has the C. C. Cannon place leased, was up from New Pine Creek Tuesday.

A. E. Florence left yesterday morning on a business trip to San Francisco and other California points.

C. A. Moore, of Catlow Valley has rented the John A. Wyatt house just south of town, and has moved into it with his family.

A bill making it illegal to work more than six days out of seven has been prepared for passage by the next Oregon Legislature.

The addition to Gilbert D. Brown's house on West Street is rapidly nearing completion. Four carpenters are now working on the job.

F. A. Christensen and wife arrived here yesterday from Seattle. Mr. Christensen is the owner of the old T. E. Bernard timber culture claim on the West Side.

Alturas New Era: J. H. Partin has purchased the Buick runabout auto formerly owned by Dr. Gibson, and will hereafter scorn to travel in anything slower than a buzz wagon.

Bert Pratt, an employee of the N.-C.-O. Railway, formerly of Lakeview, but now of Reno, arrived here with his family the first of the week and will visit several days with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robertson.

Ten men lost their lives and three injured in an explosion Friday which blew the plant of the Mexican Crude Rubber Co. of Detroit, to pieces. The explosion of a large vat of molten rubber caused the disaster.

John H. Wyatt has traded his 160 acre tract to Robt. McGowen of Grants Pass for some property at the latter place. Mr. McGowen has arrived in Lakeview and expects to begin improving the tract immediately.

A baby girl was born in this city on Sunday, May 17, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hanson. Mother and babe are doing nicely, and Stanley is the most proud and happiest man on these two hemispheres with all the planets thrown in.

In accordance with section four of the Federal reserve act, the reserve bank organization committee designated the First National Bank of Portland as the Oregon branch institution of Federal Reserve Bank District No. 12, San Francisco.

G. E. Jackson, deputy U. S. Marshal arrived here from Portland Sunday evening and arrested Phil Whitehead (colored) on a charge of selling liquor to an Indian of the Klamath Reservation. He was taken to Portland for trial before the Federal Court.

A. Campbell of Los Angeles is now in Fort Bidwell and will take the contract of running a tunnel through the mountain to make an outlet for Cowhead lake, through which its waters will be taken to irrigate many acres of land in Northern Surprise Valley.

Although many senators are yet to speak on the bill to repeal the exemption clause of the Panama Canal act, Senator Kern, majority leader, expresses confidence that the debate will close in another week and that a vote will probably be taken by May 25. It is believed that the bill will be passed by a safe majority.

Members of the local Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, and invited guests, should not forget the social dance and supper which is to be given on Monday night, May 25, at the Odd Fellows Hall. Dancing will begin promptly at 9 o'clock, and good music will be furnished for the occasion. It is expected that the attendance will be large.

Bran for sale at Bailey & Maushill's store.

J. P. Duckworth will buy your sheep pelts paying nine cents per pound.

Castle Gate coal delivered to your door in ton lots loose $13.50 a ton. J. S. Fuller.

Henry Fox and family were visitors in town Saturday from their home on the West Side.

J. J. Monroe, prominent farmer of the Willow Ranch section, spent several days in Lakeview the first of the week.

George Noland, former Circuit Judge of Lake and Klamath Counties arrived here yesterday from Klamath Falls.

County Treasurer Hawkins is now a member of the Society of Mahoots, he having purchased Mrs. E. E. Rinehart's Oakland car.

The Northwestern says that Guy Nywander has returned to Klamath Falls from Westwood, where he has spent the past few months.

Marion Yount, father of H. B. Yount of the Hot Springs Bath House arrived here last week from Rogue River and will remain during the summer.

Louis Gerber, the well known beef and mutton buyer spent a few days in Lakeview the first of the week. From here he went to Hrsney County in quest of cattle.

U. S. Stock Inspector H. H. Sparhawk and family left last week for Merrill, Klamath County, where he will engage in the stock business with J. Frank Adams.

All members are requested to attend the Sequoyah Club Dance at the Snider Opera house tomorrow evening. This will be the last dance of the club this season.

Deputy Sheriff E. E. Rinehart and wife left Monday morning for San Francisco on an extended stay during which time Mrs. Rinehart will enter a hospital for medical treatment.

Henry Leehman, the well known farmer and stockman of New Pine Creek, came up from his ranch Saturday in a new Ford car which he recently purchased through Auten & Jennings.

Mrs. C. R. Anderson and step-son, wife and son of C. Ross Anderson of this city arrived here last week from Roseville, Cal., to join Mr. Anderson who has charge of the tinning department of the Bernard hardware store.

J. P. McAuliffe came in town the first of the week from his sheep camp. His sheep are now being brought from Klamath County to Drews Valley where they will be shorn. He reports a 90 per cent crop of lambs this year.

A. G. Branson, former newspaper man, and wife are now stopping in Lakeview, he being employed in the office of Curtis & Utley, during the absence of the latter who is visiting in the east. Mr. Branson spent the winter trapping on the desert.

The official returns and canvass of the vote in Lake County at the primary election was made with all promptness and dispatch. The count of all precincts was made and returns mailed from the clerk's office to the Secretary of State Tuesday evening.

Counties desiring to avail themselves of any portion of the $170,000 balance in the Oregon State Highway fund must be construct hard-surfaced roads, according to the policy of the State Highway Commission, as it was decided at a recent meeting in Salem.

The Lake County Telephone and Telegraph Company line is now in good working order between Lakeview and Silver Lake, and under the new management it is expected that it will be kept in that condition from now on. Mr. Miles, the new lessee, expects to continue the line from Silver Lake to La Pine, and thus fill a long felt need.

William Briner, until recently employed by the O. V. L. Company, expects to leave within the next few days for Paisley, where he and a crew of men will commence work on the Paisley-Chewaucan road. This road is to be built from the funds of the Forest Service and Lake County, and donations by citizens of Paisley and the surrounding country.

Bend Bulletin: Word has come in of the first forest fire of the season which burned over about 60 acres in the neighborhood of Fort Rock early last week. It was a ground fire entirely and did but little damage but it is regarded by the forest officials as an indication of the dryness of the season which will make patrol work necessary very soon.

E. S. Berney and M. L. Wildes arrived here Monday from Fallon, Nev. Wm. Lamb, a pioneer resident of New Pine Creek, was a visitor in this city Tuesday.

Hay For Sale—Baled grain and wild hay for sale. See or address W. R. Bernard, Lakeview, Ore. 11

Eph Miller is now acting as deputy sheriff under Sheriff Snider during the absence of E. E. Rinehart.

It is learned that "Grandma" Cloud of New Pine Creek who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis is slowly recovering.

Miss Ellen and Mrs. Della Cobb returned home last week from a six weeks' visit in San Francisco. They report a very enjoyable trip.

House Cleaning Time—Let Detrick repair your stoves while the hot season is on. No trouble while the cold season is on. M 21-181

W. Paul Johnson, one of the promoters of the Klamath Development Co., accompanied by his wife made a trip from Klamath Falls to Lakeview last week.

The Dodson automobile which was sold at public sale last Saturday was purchased for O. T. McKendree by F. M. Miller. The car was a Dorris and sold for $300.

A new aerial ferry is now in operation between San Francisco and Oakland. This is the first hydro-aeroplane ferry and went into regular service last Sunday.

O. T. McKendree, wool and mutton buyer, left Sunday for his home in Berkeley, going by way of Klamath Falls with F. M. Miller. He will return here about June 1st.

Klamath Falls' latest bond issue $7291.43, for the sewer system has been sold at par with accrued interest and $30 premium. The rate is 6 per cent. An eastern house bought.

F. M. Miller left on Sunday for Berkeley on a visit with Mrs. Miller and son, Hobart. He went by way of Klamath Falls and took over the car belonging to Wm. Harvey who is at Merrill.

Juntura Times: Tracklaying has been pushed rapidly the past ten days and at this time the steel is within about seven miles of Riverside where it is held up on account of putting in a bridge or two.

Word has been received from Ireland that Pat C. Murphy, a former businessman of Plush and well known in Lake County, was recently married to a daughter of Dennis P. Shine of Lisrobin. The marriage took place at Cork.

Burns News: Parcel post is coming to Catlow at an astounding rate. When Mr. Bryan took the present mail contract, less than a year ago he could carry all the mail in a lock pouch on horseback and now it takes a six-horse load per week.

Water-borne freight began passing through the Panama Canal on Monday of this week when five barges carrying about 2100 tons of miscellaneous cargo was towed from Balboa, the Pacific end, to Cristobald, at the Atlantic end of the Canal.

J. C. Rutenic, a prominent Klamath Falls Attorney, and E. R. Willis arrived here Saturday on business before the circuit court. Mr. Rutenic is an attorney for the plaintiff in the case of Willis Furniture Co. against the Horticultural Fire Relief Co., of Salem.

Joe Ambrose announces that the Mulkey Shearing Corral west of Lakeview will be ready to receive bands to be shorn as soon as there is any work to be done. Mr. Ambrose will personally superintend the corral as usual and guarantees satisfaction to patrons. M 7-11

T. B. Vernon has received notice of his appointment as postmaster of the Lakeview office and he will take over the office as soon as his bonds have been approved. He and son, Grover, are now working with Postmaster Ahlstrom and it is expected that the change will take place about June 1st.

Mrs. D. H. Bemis and Mrs. E. H. Clark and son, Friday left for Portland by way of Bend. Mrs. Bemis will attend the Rebekah Grand Lodge at McMinnville as delegate from Lakeview Lodge, No. 22, and Mrs. Clark will visit for a few months with her sister in Portland. They were taken to Bend by Paul Drenkel in his car.

Deputy Sheriff D. T. Godsil left for Salem Friday with Walter Strodder who was sentenced to a term in the State Penitentiary for assault on his wife with a dangerous weapon. Mr. Godsil before returning will attend the state convention of the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge at McMinnville to which he was elected delegate by the Lakeview Lodge, No. 63, I. O. O. F.

The Tea Cup Club will meet with Mrs. E. C. Ahlstrom, Friday, May 29.

A son was born on May 14 to Mr. and Mrs. L. Webber of Crooked Creek.

The Plaindealer reports that there are several cases of whooping cough in Alturas.

C. C. Harris and family of Summer Lake were visiting in Lakeview the forepart of the week.

C. V. L. Beebe returned to Lakeview last week from Holland, Oregon, where he spent the winter working in the mines.

Fred Longfellow and wife have moved to the Drews Creek sawmill where Mr. Longfellow will be employed this summer.

Bidwell News: E. O. Pratt, H. W. Prough, W. H. Leehmann, G. Vernon and Steve Down autoed over from Lakeview Sunday returning Monday morning.

Mrs. S. A. Mushen and two children departed Monday morning on a several months' visit with relatives and friends at Pawtucket and other points in Massachusetts.

Congressman Raker of California has introduced a bill providing that any woman residing on a homestead who has been abandoned by her husband can make final proof.

Born in Lakeview, Oregon, Wednesday, May 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keene, of Summer Lake, an 8 1-2 pound boy. Mrs. Keene is a daughter of Mr and Mrs. M. S. Barnes of this city.

An auto party composed of G. Poncin and wife and Miss B. Wood of Seattle, Miss Sally Fox of San Francisco, and driver, passed through Lakeview Saturday. They took dinner at the Hotel Lakeview.

Henry Wendt, postmaster and businessman of New Pine Creek returned home last week from Eugene where he went as delegate to the state convention of the Modern Woodmen of America from his home lodge. He also spent several weeks visiting friends and relatives in the Willamette and Rogue River valleys. Since this trip Mr. Wendt states that he is more thoroughly convinced that Western Oregon has "nothing on" this section.

Wm. F. Paine & Co. REAL ESTATE LAKEVIEW -- OREGON

LORD CHESTERFIELD ON CLOTHES

"You must dress, therefore attend to it; not to rival or to excel a fop in it, but in order to avoid singularity, and consequently ridicule."

Brought up to date, this is just another way of saying: wear

BENJAMIN-WASHINGTON CORRECT CLOTHES

For Men and Young men, $18.00 to $25.00

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

The Drug Terror At Opera House, Tonight, May 21st

Second and last showing in Lakeview of this great sensational six-reel production which is enlightening and warning people everywhere to the crushing danger of the cocaine habit.

The Drug Terror is produced under the auspices of the Sociological Fund of the Review of Reviews of New York City, the play being enacted by the best talent of the Lubin Company.

Aside from its strictly educational side, the story itself is one of intense dramatic appeal. Ambition, love, pathos and heroism are interwoven in a way to make this picture absorbing from beginning to end.

"THE GREATEST MOTION PICTURE EVER MADE"—N. Y. Evening Journal.

Presented in Lakeview under the personal direction of Hurst Bros. of the Majestic Theatre, Reno, Nevada, and at the same prices charged in that city.

PRICES: ADULTS, 35c; CHILDREN, 25c

The New Silver Brand Shirts $1.00 and $1.25 Have Just Arrived

Every man who appreciates good shirts will certainly like this.

"Better than ever" was our first thought in taking them out of the cases. You'll say the same when you see them.

No use trying to describe the shirts here except to say that every good shirt cloth is represented—and there are styles and patterns galore.

Every size and every sleeve length; every splendid quality that makes a good shirt good. All that is newest and best in shirt making. Perfect in make and finish, in fit and comfort.

See the shirts while the assortment is at its best. Today's the best time.

Lakeview Mercantile Company

