

LOCALS

The M. W. A. organized a lodge here last Saturday night with a goodly number of charter members. A number of the Uniformed Corps of Bend and Prineville were here to assist in the initiation exercises.

We are advised that Mr. W. F. Hammer, the Democratic candidate has resigned his position as post master at Hay Creek and in favor of Mr. Boyce. Mr. Hammer is not in favor of a man holding down a Government job and going after a country office at the same time hence he resigned in favor of the gentleman named. Hammer is a bustling vote getter and a man who will make his competitor know they have been in a race if they beat him.

Mr. Donaldson has a new show case in the Hotel Royal and better still, he has it filled with a fine stock of cigars.

J. M. Patton has been improving the time during the recent bad weather in bringing seed into town to keep up poor folks warm.

Don't forget to register and don't forget to vote for R. H. Bayley for County Commissioner.

A social party and dance was held at the Hotel Royal on Tuesday evening and a most pleasant time had. Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson are Royal entertainers and made all present feel that it was good to be there.

Mr. Hanson of Rock county, Minn., is looking over the country with a view to locating.

Mayor Goodwillie of Bend was a business visitor in our little burg Saturday.

The Madras Pioneer man couldn't sell his hot air and so he is dishing it out again himself. Notice his Rail Road Stories. Yes real stories we suspect.

The revival services are still in progress under the able preaching of Rev. J. G. George, Rev. Mitchell having returned to Prineville last week.

R. G. Sturgeon was a pleasant caller one day last week. He and S. H. Davis, who is visiting the country, are from the same county in Oklahoma.

John Fyren was in town Wed. after his rig which was slightly disfigured last week.

C. S. Roy of Portland, who is a brother of Neill Ray, came in Sat. and will make this his future home.

He came in by the way of Prineville and Bend and says Laidlaw is the best town he has seen since leaving the O. R. & N.

I have a few Burbank and Early Rose seed potatoes for sale at 3 cts per pound, at the D. I. P. Co. farm near Bend.

Rev. A. H. Andrus was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

Word was received by one of our townsmen last week that the C. & E. R. R. has a large amount of construction material at the terminus of the road on the pass and that construction will likely begin just as soon as the weather will permit. This information came from the Valley and from one who knew the facts stated.

When in Prineville get your photo taken at Lambert's gallery. All work guaranteed. 3-2

Mr. Pookham and C. W. Neill started for Shaniko after freight Tues. and they expect to clear the warehouse of the goods of our merchants this trip.

WANTED: 100 men at Hotel Royal to sit on the porch. Cigars furnished by the proprietor.

Miss Fay Gerking spent Sunday and Monday with the Chronicle family.

Bob Rayburn was down to his ranel at Clive Falls one day this week.

Wm. Hunt was out hunting potatoes one day this week and came in with a sack. He said they were the only potatoes on earth.

Say! The Trust is Busted but Dorsey Bros. are still in the market at the same old stand with the Best Building Material of all kinds to be had in Crook County and Prices that are Right. Do not let any one bamboozle you but look at and compare the lumber and then decide for yourself. 3-23

Geo. Long caught a fellow hauling water in the rain Wednesday so he said but we think it must have been in a barrel. How about it Robinson? Was it in the barrel or the rain?

On Sunday a cow passed through town with her head covered with blood apparently the result of a gunshot wound.

The snow has been going slowly and the water sinking into the earth and it looks good to the farmers.

STRAEYD from my place near Laidlaw, one black gelding; branded O C on right stifle and has reached mane had on bell when he t seen. One sorrel with bald face and reached mane Branded O C on right stifle.
