NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

I wish hereby to thank all the kind friends, who so kindly gave us their good will and patronage since we have been attempting to serve you as merchant on a small scale. Nearly nine months have passed and considering the very stringent times, business has been as good as I could expect and in fact better. You have also responded to my 30 day terms heroically and I have no complaint to make and for which I wish to thank you. But through a disposition to help bear the burden of hard times and help those who brought the necessities of life, fully intending to meet the terms, I have let my accounts run up alarmingly, and even now I am loth to push any one, but F. E. Dayton holds our note for the sum of $213.00 and says it must come. Consequently, on or before Oct. 1st, all accounts not paid will be entered for collection. I have placed the time just as far as circumstances would permit so that I might not cramp any one, giving ample time for the arrangement to be made. No deviation from these terms is possible. Again thanking you for your kind patronage and soliciting a continuance of the same I am, Yours truly, G. W. Horner.

CRACK NUT SUNDAY.

Queer Method of Hearing a Sermon Still In Use In England.

"One fine autumn Sunday I attended a service in a north of England country church that would have driven a New York preacher clean crazy," said the man who travels. "The congregation didn't do a thing but sit around and crack nuts. Fancy a New York minister talking to a crowd of that kind? The modern preacher likes to have things quiet when he talks. It discourages him to hear a baby cry or a woman cough or an old man snore. If he is put out by such trifles as these, it is interesting to conjecture what he would do if he were to take hold of a congregation where everybody brought nuts to crack during the sermon.

"Worshippers, it seems, used to do this in England and even in our own states during colonial days. This disturbance was not a weekly occurrence by any means. If it had been, the poor preacher would have undoubtedly left his flock to administer spiritual consolation to suit themselves. But as it happened only once a year he was forced to endure it. This one day which was attended by such remarkable license came the Sunday before Michaelmas day and was called 'crack nut Sunday'. Nobody, no matter how pious he might be, hesitated to avail himself of the peculiar privilege granted him, and men, women and children came to church with their pockets stuffed with nuts, which they contentedly cracked and munched during the sermon.

"It was that kind of a sermon that so impressed me with its oddity. It can be easily imagined that when forty or fifty people get to cracking nuts with all their might the noise is apt to be something terrible, and many times the minister was hard put to it to 'hear himself think'. That custom, from being regarded with high favor for many years, finally came to be looked upon as a nuisance, and the habit was suppressed, except in a few remote localities, although the net of suppression was attended with considerable difficulty, so firmly had the nut cracking fever taken hold of the fancy of the people." - New York Press.

TURPENTINE.

Moths will leave if it is sprinkled about.

Turpentine and soap will remove ink stains from linen.

Turpentine will remove wheel grease, pitch and tar stains.

Clean gilt frames with a sponge moistened in turpentine.

It will exterminate roaches if sprinkled in their haunts.

A few drops on a wooden cloth will clean tan shoes nicely.

A few drops added to water in which clothes are boiled will whiten them.

An equal mixture of turpentine and linseed oil will remove white marks from furniture caused by water.

Ivory knife handles that have become yellow can be restored to their former whiteness by rubbing with turpentine.

Carpets can be cleaned and colors restored by going over occasionally with a broom dipped in warm water in which a little turpentine is added.

Splendors of Cafes.

The cafes and hotels of New York are rivaling each other in the almost oriental splendor with which they have fitted up small rooms for dinner and after theater parties. At one cafe near Broadway the sides of one of these rooms are composed entirely of mirrors, after the French fashion, while the ceiling is covered with green leaves and grapes, bunches of pink and purple grapes of glass, within which are electric lights. The effect is that of a beautiful arbor. Another cafe has mirrors reflecting small red lights throughout the room, while the ceiling, also of mirrors, is an exquisite imitation of moonlight, the effect of which is obtained by electricity enclosed in globes of the color and sheen of moonlight seen through a delicate tracery of faint green leaves. - Exchange.

A Sad Case.

A Chicago physician was one day called to attend a sick child in a "shabby genteel" quarter of the Windy City. "Madam," said the doctor to the mother, "you should send this child into the country for several weeks each summer."

"I am sorry to say, doctor," responded the woman, "that we are not rich enough to do that."

"Then," suggested the physician, "have her sent by the fresh air fund."

"Oh, doctor," exclaimed the woman, "we are not poor enough!" - Harper's Weekly.

Too Selfish.

Citiman-What's the matter with all you Swamphurst fellows? You don't seem to like my friend Backlotz. Subbs-No; he's selfish. Citiman-Oh, come now! Subbs-That's what he is. A barn near him caught fire the other night, and he put it out without waiting for the rest of us members of the Swamphurst Hose to reach the scene - Philadelphia Public Ledger.
