LEONIDAS C. DYER, WHO INTRODUCED FEDERAL ANTI-LYNCHING BILL BEARING HIS NAME IN CONGRESS ON CONGRESS. WIDE TOUR WILL SPEAK IN PORTLAND

Mr. Dyer Will Re-introduce His Measure in the Next Session of Congress.—Purpose to Acquaint American Citizens With the Horrors of Lynching in America

(Special)
Representative Leonidas C. Dyer of Missouri, who introduced the federal anti-lynching bill bearing his name in Congress, will address the people of Portland Sunday afternoon, May 13th, at 2:30 o'clock, at Lincoln High School auditorium, under the auspices of The Advocate.

Representative Dyer's measure was passed in the House of Representatives by a vote of 230 to 119 and was favorably reported by the committee on the judiciary of the senate. It had to be abandoned when a group of southern democratic senators served notice that their filibuster would be continued against the anti-lynching bill, holding up the business of the entire country, until a pledge was given by the republicans that the issue would not be forced in that session.

"I am going before the country on the issue of lynching, a national shame which for thirty-five years the states have failed to end and the Federal government has failed to attack. The Federal anti-lynching bill is not sectional. It applies to every part of the country. It assumes that an atrocity in America is a national disgrace whether it occurs in Georgia, or Texas, or Oregon, or Illinois. I shall reintroduce this measure in the next Congress. It will be reintroduced, I believe, in the senate. Meanwhile I shall acquaint as many American citizens as possible with the horrors of lynching in America, and with the provisions of the bill designed to end those horrors. We shall then see if a small minority of men from any group of states can block an expression of the will of the people of this nation."

AN APPRECIATED PROGRAM
Sunday evening, April 29th, under the direction of Clarence E. Ivey, a delightful program was rendered at the senior B. Y. P. U. Society of White Temple church, 12th and Taylor streets. The program consisted of songs by the Harry T. Buriel quintet, readings by Mrs. Hill and Miss Gwendolen Hooker, talks by L. B. Stewart and Mrs. E. D. Cannady, and a vocal solo by Jessie Brooks. The subject of the discussion was "Black and White," and dealt with the progress of the colored race in America. The B. Y. P. U. had for their study Haynes' "The Trend of the Races."

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION
New Northwest Lodge, G. U. O. of Odd Fellows, will celebrate their thanksgiving anniversary Sunday evening, May 13th, at First A. M. E. Zion Church.

TO SING ON PROGRAM
A group of Spirituals will be sung on Congressman Dyer's program by a mixed quartet of trained voices. This number alone will be worth the price paid to hear the lecture.

C. N. McArthur, ex-Congressman, who will introduce Congressman Leonidas C. Dyer, Sunday afternoon, May 13th, at Lincoln High School Auditorium, at which time Mr. Dyer will deliver his famous address, "The Shame of America."
