A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE BEAUTY OF HOLINESS:—Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.—1 Chronicles 16:29.

COMING NORTH

Colored people are moving north in such large numbers from Georgia, Mississippi and Texas that the white farmers and manufacturing concerns are becoming greatly alarmed.

When the colored people stop begging the white man for money to build his churches, Y. M. C. A.'s and other institutions, the white race will have a greater respect and higher appreciation for the colored race.

Oregon is losing a brave, courageous man and a good citizen in the going of ex-Governor Ben W. Olcott, who has decided to reside in California, where he has entered the banking business.

One long-tongued, gossiping woman can keep up more disturbance in a community than all the other people put together.

The Rose Festival should be laid on the table, for a time at least, and something bigger substituted as an annual event in Portland.

Vote against the school bond when you go to the polls Saturday (today). Taxes are entirely too high now.

We wonder if Congressman-elect Watkins will vote for the passage of the Dyer Anti-lynching Bill. We hope he will.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed a drastic anti-lynching bill. Why not Oregon follow suit when it meets?

New Orleans, La., May 26.—Federal authorities were called upon today to make rigid investigation into the writing of anonymous and threatening letters to Walter S. Cohen, Negro, recently named controller of customs for the Louisiana port, as a recess appointment by President Harding.

The letters, which have been turned over to the postoffice inspectors, threatened death for Collector Kuntz, in event the nomination of Cohen is confirmed by the senate, while others declared Cohen would be killed should he be confirmed.

Signed "K. K. K." and "White Supremacy" Several of the letters were signed "K. K. K." while others which were sent to Collector Kuntz protested to the appointment of white women in the same office with Negroes and was signed "White Supremacy."

Oregon City, June 2.—A mysterious telephone call to a local newspaper office this afternoon led to discovery that a lynching was threatened last night about 30 miles from Oregon City. Perry Ellis, Oregon City's only colored citizen, being the near victim.

dismissed about a week ago when the complaining witness failed to prosecute.

Six white robed men, masked, five of them with white hoods and the sixth with one of red, were in the lynching party, according to Ellis and Ira W. Thrall, white, an employee of the Crown-Willamette Paper company, who was with Ellis when the masked men were first met, whose accounts of the affair follow.

Ellis operates the City Auto Washing concern in a livery barn on Water street, where he also lives. About 11:30 o'clock Friday night he was called on the telephone and asked to make a trip out on the Abernathy road, where, he was told, a wagon was broken down, for the purpose of getting a team to be brought to Oregon City for the night.

Masked Men Appear Thrall, who is said to have been a close friend of Ellis and to have ridden with him frequently, and Ellis mounted horses and, according to their story, rode to a brickyard several miles out on the Abernathy road. Here, they said, they found two cars, one on each side of the road. Two spotlights were turned on Ellis and six masked men appeared.

Thrall's appearance, they said, caused some consternation, and he was finally returned to Oregon City with his and Ellis' horses. Ellis, according to his story, was taken into one of the cars and threatened with being "shot full of holes" if he tried to escape.

The cars, Ellis said, proceeded about 20 miles into the country, where the party halted and left the machines. Here Ellis was confronted with a demand that he tell the truth about charges made against him.

He Denies Charge Ellis said he denied the charges and asserted he was a victim of circumstances.

A noose was placed around Ellis' neck and the end of the rope was thrown over the limb of a tree. Ellis said he still maintained his innocence. The rope was tightened, he said, but he maintained his denials.

When the rope failed, he said, the men took him to a lake nearby, which they told him was used for disposal of bodies of their victims.

Ellis said he implored them not to lynch him, saying he did not mind being shot, but that he did hate to be lynched.

Threat of an operation, he said followed, but he still denied any impropriety.

Finally, he said, they let him go, driving off after telling him to stay where he was until they called to him to depart. When the call came, Ellis said he started hoot for Oregon City, reaching town early this morning.

Ellis said that he was warned to leave Oregon City at once and that he intends to heed the warning.

Ellis is about 25 years old and has been here about two years. He claims to be a cowboy and has ridden at neighborhood rodeos. Thrall lives here with his family.

It is said that two of the lynching party were identified by their voices by both Ellis and his associate.

Later reports are to the effect that the officials can do nothing because Ellis has left for parts unknown.

A SATISFIED PATRON

This letter is original and a guaranty of a satisfied member of The F. H. Bureau.

Galveston, Texas, April 13, 1923.

The F. H. Bureau: I want to thank you for your kindness in putting me in touch with so many nice men. They seem to be nice and intelligent. I shall recommend your Bureau to any one whom I think is looking for their "Ideal".

At present I am corresponding with six young men, so please take my name off the list of correspondents, as I would be unable to write to any more. If I should need your assistance again, I will write you and enclose a stamp.

Yours truly, (MISS) MIRIAM GARY, 1619 Ave. K, Galveston, Tex.
