A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HAVE ALL GOOD:—The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger; but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.—Psalm 34:10.

"KU KLUX KLAN AINT AFTER US"

Regardless of the fact that many colored people have been run away from their homes and worldly possessions, beaten, lynched and murdered by the Ku Klux Klan, some colored "nuts" are still heard to say that the "k. k. k. ain't after us," and in spite of the fact that a colored man in Oregon City was recently beaten, strung up and when released run out of town. Here is what William Pickens, writing in the Pittsburgh Courier, has to say on the subject:

KLAN AND SCHOOLS

Indiana Ku Klux Plan to Oust Colored Children "Told you so!" the jim crow school idea follows the Ku Klux Klan like a shadow. In Indiana they have opened campaign to "put the Negro children out of our schools." Why? Because you cannot give a people equal education and perpetually deny them an unequal status in society. In common school the Negro will get equal education. He will never get it in any segregated school.

And yet some of the easy-going, lazy, hope-to-have-to-do-nothing Negroes are always saying: "The Ku Klux ain't after us; they're after the Catholics and Jews." And bless your soul, in Oregon the Ku Klux are trying to enact laws to compel Catholics and Jews to get into the public schools, while in Indiana they are trying to enact laws to put the Negro out.

The most fundamental proposition of the Ku Klux Klan is "white supremacy," and both Catholics and Jews can qualify under that. The Kentucky wing of the Klan is trying to explain, as we write, that a Jew can become a Klansman by becoming a "Christian," and that a Catholic can become a Klansman by becoming a "Protestant"—that is a hard-shell Baptist, a Holy Roller, or anything like that. And how can a black man become a Klansman? By becoming a white man. That is, the Negro is the only IMPOSSIBLE. So far as the Klan is concerned, the one permanent, irredeemable society outcast is the American Negro. If the Klan can effect it, your children will be forced out of school, you will be forced out of citizenship, and your race will be given a Mississippi status in Minnesota.

No, the "Klan ain't after us." It thinks it has got us. They will have another think coming, for not all Negroes can be fooled by church donations and flattering grocery-store talk.

Everywhere we go, some colored preacher or politician informs us: "You know, Mr. So-and-So was talking to me this mornin', and he says this Klan ain't almin' at colored people. They want to get these Jews and Catholics." Even if that were not a lie, we should hate them for it.

GOV. PIERCE TO BE RECALLED

The K. K. Ks of Oregon have grown tired of the way Governor Pierce is running things, and as a result, are laying plans to recall the Governor. The opinion prevails in political circles that the Governor owes his election to the Klan vote, and the Klan, no doubt shares in that belief. If that be true, the Governor should dance to the music of the Klan or step down and out, and not wait to be thrown out.

Bootleggers are having a mighty hard time in Portland just now and in view of the fact they will not quit the business, we advise them to go to New York.

N. A. A. C. P. MOVES TO NEW QUARTERS

Takes Floor in Mercantile Bank Building New York, N. Y., July 5, 1923. After nearly ten years' occupancy of its offices at 70 Fifth Avenue, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on July 1, is moving to larger quarters, at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Fourteenth street, one of the busiest corners in New York City. It was announced today. The Association has leased for a term of years the entire fourth floor of the Mercantile Bank building at 69 Fifth Avenue which will be the new address of the N. A. A. C. P., beginning July 1, of this year.

year to complete his literary course and receive his degree of Bachelor of Arts. Many will remember Mr. Jones who was champion of the boxing team at the U. of C., and who was elected by his school to compete with the champion of Stanford University. The latter drew the color line and Mr. Jones was not permitted to box against Stanford's champion.

J. W. INGERSOL ARRESTED

We regret very much to learn of the arrest of J. W. Ingersol, the tailor, for an alleged crime committed a number of years ago in Alabama. Friends of Mr. Ingersol are working to prevent him being extradited and from what we can learn they will succeed. Mr. Ingersol is identified with every progressive movement put forth by his people and he and his wife are both church members and are highly connected socially and fraternally.

CONCERNING MISS BOWLES

I am often asking myself, why is it that our young people are so non-interested in the things that will help our daily living and our race? There are young people and "enough to spare" to fill all the churches, to have a great Y. M. C. A. and a flourishing Y. W. C. A. in our city. Late in the answer to my question has been poor leadership. Our National officers (that is, some of them) draw big salaries, spend money traveling over the country and for what? To disappoint crowds of young people hungering for the Word while the leader (?) is socializing. I appeal to the good people of Portland to co-operate for the good of our boys and girls and condemn any man or woman that does not practice what he or she preaches.

E. J. MAGRUDER.

DAHLIA TEMPLE ELECTS OFFICERS

At its regular meeting, June 19th, Dahlia Temple, 202, I. B. P. O. E. of W., held its semi-annual election, which resulted in the present corps of officers being unanimously re-elected to succeed themselves. With but one change in the board of trustees the officers remain the same. Mrs. Etta Simms was elected as trustee to fill the vacancy formerly held by Mrs. Gilberta O'Neal. Five new members were initiated into the ranks of the temple, as follows: Mesdames Bula Allen, D. Pain, Jane Rawlins, Ollie Laws and Ida DeWare. At the conclusion to the business, the ladies enjoyed the social session immensely. The meeting was entirely successful and harmonious.

CANDIDATES FOR G. E. R. OFFICE

At the Grand Lodge of Elks, which meets in Chicago in August, the prediction is made that the following big Elks will seek the office of G. E. R.: Hon. J. Finley Wilson will be presented to the Grand Lodge by a voluble speaker from Washington, D. C., possibly Barrister Armond W. Scott. Some modern Cicero of New York will present the name of Hon. H. Adolph Howell. A Cleveland man of note will offer the Hon. Thos. W. Fleming of that city. Attorney Wm. H. Stanton of Pittsburgh, Pa., will be named by a silver tongue of that city. Attorney E. Burton Ceruti of Los Angeles, Cal., will possibly be brought forward by one of the "Old Guard" in a captivating manner. Chicago will be the last to present its claim for the seat of "the Mighty," and our predictions are that it will be either the name of Alderman Anderson or Major R. R. Jackson. But before the nomination closes there is another individual who should be regarded as a possible nominee in the person of Judge Wm. R. Morris of Minneapolis, Minn. We are certain that Mr. Morris will not seek the honor, but

BERKELEY NEWS

(By Arthur D. Lebon.) The City Council of Berkeley met June 12th to consider the advisability of running a street through the property acquired by the Masonic Lodge of Berkeley on University Avenue and Jefferson street, as was requested in a petition of five hundred white citizens to block the permit of the Colored Temple. It was cited that to run a street through the property would be only upholding prejudice of the white petitioners. After informing the petitioners to the point of law, wherein the 14th and 15th amendment of the U. S. Constitution granted freedom to all American citizens, regardless of color. The Masons laid their cornerstone next day, and were assisted by some of the white Masons of high standing and also promised future aid to their Black Brothers. The white citizens of lesser lights should have their cure by this time, being their third time to protest against the presence of our people as property owners. We are with the Berkeley officials of past and present for not winking at the law. Oh, well, Berkeley is known as the City of Knowledge.

Southern Girl Becomes Bride

Miss Annie Laurie Levalle of Austin, Tex., became the bride of L. B. Stewart, 5136, 63rd avenue, S. E. Sunday, the 17th, 2:30 p. m. at a quiet wedding solemnized in the presence of a few friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kinney in Kenton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. R. Fox, at the conclusion of which the bridal party was served a delicious wedding dinner. Friends of the couple called during the remaining hours of the afternoon and evening and exchanged felicitations. Mr. Stewart is a mail carrier in the city and prominent in church and lodge circles. Miss Levalle comes of a prominent Southern family and was formerly engaged in teaching in the public schools of Marshall, Texas. The happy couple are domiciled at the residence of Mrs. Mack Stanfield, 4536 42nd ave.

Manless Wedding Brilliant Affair

One of the most brilliant as well as successful benefit affairs given recently was the "manless wedding" at Zion church Monday evening under the personal direction of Mrs. E. J. Magruder. Mrs. W. H. Myles, as the minister, played well her role as did Miss Fannie Crosby as Jack

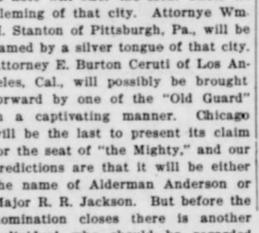

REV. ANDERSON WINS DECISION IN RECENT LODGE TROUBLE

Rev. J. W. Anderson, pastor of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church and Worthy Chaplain of New Northwest Lodge of the Grand United Order of Oddfellows, asked for a decision in the matter of the joint committee of the lodge some time ago, reporting that the annual services to the lodge were to be held at Mt. Olivet church, and that Rev. Anderson was to preach the annual sermon. Later, the meeting was changed to another church and another minister secured to preach the sermon; this was done without consulting Rev. Anderson, and this Rev. Anderson objected to. At a meeting of the lodge, June 19th, at 795 Mississippi Avenue, with the Grand Master, J. B. Bass of Los Angeles, Cal., presiding, Rev. Anderson asked for a decision, which resulted in the Grand Master rendering a decision in favor of Rev. Anderson's contention.

EMPHASIZES INDIVIDUALITY

Although it is developed in one color, two different materials enter into the design of this frock. The blouse is in French voile and the skirt in ratine. The color is sunburst, a vivid pinkish yellow, although other tones may be chosen, if desired. Two styles of sleeves are provided for the blouse—deep extensions slashed on the upper side and gathered into narrow cuffs or extensions slashed on the under side and allowed to flare. Medium size requires 2 3/4 yards 36-inch voile for the blouse and 2 1/4 yards ratine for the skirt. Pictorial Review Blouse No. 1535, Sizes, 34 to 48 inches bust. Price, 35 cents. Skirt No. 7657, Sizes, 24 to 32 inches waist. Price, 30 cents.

IN THE REALM of Society

(By Tritzia Breaux)

One of the most unique and beautiful social affairs of the season was given last Monday evening, June 18, when the maids of Meier & Frank Co. gave a surprise at the residence of Mrs. Pauline Craig, 724 Clinton street, for her mother, Mrs. Dora Fain who left for Los Angeles on Wednesday. The evening was spent at cards and music was rendered on the piano by Mrs. E. J. O'Riley; a very delightful solo was sung by Mrs. S. A. Kisor. At the conclusion of the evening's enjoyment, dainty refreshments were served, after which a handsome leather purse was presented to Mrs. Fain by Mrs. O'Riley in behalf of the maids. Mrs. Fain was formerly an employe of the Meier & Frank Co., and it was here that a beautiful friendship between the ladies was cemented.
