IS K. K. K. AFTER US? To those of the race who say or think the K. K. K. are not after us, we advise them to read the following news item from the daily press:

Klan Objects to Negro Officials. Tuskegee, Ala., July 4.—Macon County citizens last night watched a thousand troopers of the Ku Klux Klan as they steadily marched through the streets of Tuskegee in protest against negro officials at the government hospital for disabled negro veterans here.

That was a most excellent and illuminating sermon delivered by the Rev. Dr. E. J. Magruder Sunday night at Zion Church. What a wonderful advancement the church would make if only the Christians would heed the advice given by him and lead the life God wants them to lead.

If you are dissatisfied with yourself appointed leadership, why not get together and name one and stand by them; or stop knocking the fellow who is doing the best he knows how.

It is with a sense of pride that we note that a 14-year-old colored boy won the marble shooting contest of New York. Small though it may be, nevertheless every little bit helps.

We wonder why it is so many of our people say they want work, but when a job is procured for them they change their minds?

Senator Bob Stansfeld is in the city from Washington, and says he is for the Dyer anti-lynching bill.

Jack Dempsey is not the man killer that he was supposed to be. Tommy Gibbons has shown him up. Now it's up to Harry Wills to finish the job.

REV. MILLER EXPLAINS REASONS FOR RESIGNING WORK HERE

Goes to Kansas City to Rest and Assist Family

Portland, Ore., July 2, 1923. To the Editor:

Will you be so kind as to say to the public that Elder J. W. Miller resigned his work in Portland as pastor of the S. D. A. church for the following reasons: First, I realize a great need of physical rest; second, to assist my good mother-in-law in the care of her father, who is very feeble and likely to pass away any time.

We left the S. D. A. church of Portland with the kindest feeling to every member and we truly believe that we share the same feeling in the hearts of all.

A deep feeling of brotherly kindness is mutual between Elder Miller and the church.

J. W. MILLER.

KLAN MEETING BROKEN UP—SPEAKER FLEES

Manager of Safety and Excise Disperses Audience as Priest in Army Uniform and Colored Minister Object to Meeting

Denver, Colo., June 29.—Amid shouts and cat-calls apparently from all elements represented in a crowd of 4000 assembled to hear a lecture on the Ku Klux Klan, sanctioned at noon today by Mayor Mayor Benjamin F. Stapleton, Col. Rice W. Means, manager of safety and excise, ordered the audience out of the municipal Auditorium last night before the lecturer had launched into his subject.

The lecturer, Dr. G. C. Minor of Ladonia, Texas, who said he is paid lecturer for the Ku Klux Klan, asked persons objecting to the meeting to stand up and said if any appeared, the meeting would be cancelled. The Rev. Father Francis W. Walsh and the Rev. Father Thomas P. Kelly, both former army chaplains, assistants at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, both in army uniform; a colored minister, a little girl who waved her hands overhead, and several others stood up in different parts of the building. "I am a minister of Christ," said the Rev. Father Walsh, stepping with Father Kelly into an aisle to the left of the stage. "I have come here in a response to a printed invitation tacked on the door of my church in the night."

Shouts, hisses and cat-calls arose in the parquet and the galleries, drowning out the objector. When it became obvious that something was about to "start" in the big audience of 4000 people, the speaker hurriedly left the platform by a rear exit and the large crowd fled into the streets and to their homes, at the command of the Manager of Safety and Excise. It has been said that the conduct of the large audience in their evidently disturbed state of mind was nothing short of miraculous.

Mrs. R. F. Morrison, who is visiting in Los Angeles, was recently the dinner guest of Mrs. John Spencer, 1471 N. 26th St., where covers were laid for six. After dinner the ladies enjoyed a social hour on Mrs. Spencer's beautiful sun porch.

FAMOUS HISTORICAL CHARACTERS DECLARED TO BE DESCENDANTS OF BLACKS

Helen Called the "Teasing Brown-skin" of Troy (Special to The Advocate.) Chicago, Ill., July 5.—Of course you have heard of Helen of Troy, that beautiful girl whose face launched a thousand ships to war? But did you ever hear that she was a teasing, tantalizing, troublesome brown? If you haven't, maybe it is because authors forgot to mention it. Nordic writers have such a careless way of forgetting to mention the color of the folks away back yonder under the sun.

Helen was the feminine scream of her day and she had more suitors than Henry has flippers. She finally married Mr. Menelaus of Sparta, who traced his royal blood back to the Argives who planted Africa in Greece a thousand years before. Then Buddy Paris, sheik of Troy, vamped the lady and eloped with her while King Menelaus was shooting craps. Said elopement caused the Trojan war that made Mr. Homer famous.

It was once said that "the old men on the wall of Troy" declared that it was a shame for two nations to go to war over a woman. Just then Helen passed and the old roosters revised their opinions and voted more dough to carry on the fight.

So write it down in your memory that Helen belonged to us. There is only one author we ever read who wasn't afraid to say she was a brown-skin baby doll. It was Miss Barbauld of England. "Yes," she makes Helen say, "I was brown-skin and rather plump, but the boys fell for me just the same." There is a long record of glory for us Children of the Sun.

WHITES FLOG BLACKS IN GEORGIA New York, N. Y., June 27.—"Whitcapping" and flogging of Negroes near Royston, Georgia, is reported in a letter received by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The letter states that Negroes have not only left their farms because of night-riding and intimidation in that section of Georgia, but are beginning to leave the towns also.

A GREAT RACE PAGEANT The story of the experience of the colored people in America with all its drama of struggles and of attainments, has recently been brought to light by the presentation in several cities of a pageant "The Milestones of a Race." Miss Ada Crogman, a talented young colored woman, who is a dramatic organizer for the Playground and Recreation Association of America, is the author of the pageant. She has directed its production, using colored groups organized for recreational activities in various cities of Community Service, maintained by the Playground and Recreation Association of America. The pageant artistically depicts the progress of the race; first exhibiting idol worship in Africa and proceeding to American citizenship and participation in the World war. The largest crowd of white and colored people ever attending any effort put forth by colored people in Dayton, O., saw the production. When the actor representing Paul Lawrence Dunbar appeared, followed by the poet's mother, Mrs. Matilda Dunbar, in person, the house rang with applause.

Daily Fashion Hint

FOR THE SMART COTTONS Plain white cotton crepe fashions this design very acceptable. The blouse has an open front and vest of self-material, set-in revers of lace adding an extra decorative note. The back of the blouse extends over the shoulders to form a shoulder yoke in front. The skirt is gathered at the upper edge and finished at the lower with a plain hem. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material and 3/4 yard lace edging.
