A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Choose Your Associates: Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness?

THE NEW PRESIDENT

Calvin Coolidge, when governor of Massachusetts, had the reputation of treating the colored citizens with the same respectable consideration as he did all other people.

THE DEAD PRESIDENT

Warren G. Harding was not the greatest man who ever occupied the president's chair, but it can be truthfully stated that no man was more universally loved and sincerely respected than was Mr. Harding.

HIRAM JOHNSON

Hiram Johnson, United States senator from California, who was an unsuccessful candidate for the nomination for president of the United States two years ago, will surely toss his hat into the ring for the nomination for president in 1934.

MAYOR GEO. L. BAKER

Mayor George L. Baker, it is reported in political circles and backed up by the mayor himself, will be in the race in 1934 for the office of U. S. senator.

R. P. DORSEY CARBER AND CHARLES BELL

R. P. Dorsey Carber and Charles Bell, two colored men, were recently elected members of the board of aldermen in Annapolis, Md.

TOMMY GIBBONS

Now comes Tommy Gibbons, who stayed the limit of 15 rounds with Champion Jack Dempsey in the scrap at Shelby, Montana, refusing to fight 'Beating Siki' for the reason that he is opposed to mixed bouts.

GEORGE MOORE

George Moore, former citizen of Portland and one of the proprietors of the Golden West hotel in this city, is making quite a reputation in "little old" New York with his protege, Danny Edwards.

JUST LEAVE IT TO GEORGIA

There is a bill pending in the Georgia legislature to make it a felony to offer a Negro a job outside the state, and punish any offender from the North with from three to seven years imprisonment.

SOLVING THE RACE PROBLEM

Some white people are exceedingly generous with their advice to colored people as to how to solve the race problem in America. If these same individuals would take time to examine themselves, they would find that the key to the solution lay within.

COLORED PEOPLE AND HALLS

If colored people in Portland don't get together and build a hall of their own, they will soon find themselves outside. For we are told that certain halls can be secured by them only through petition of prominent white people.

THE PEOPLE'S OUTING

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Corneal have issued invitations to a reception to be given Wednesday evening, August 15th, at the Stag Auditorium.

THE PEOPLE'S OUTING

A large number of our people have expressed themselves as wishing some one would stage some kind of entertainment that would bring them into closer contact with each other.

MR. PERSEUS OF ARGOS, BROWN SKIN SON OF ZEUS

Whenever you make up a list of the chocolate heroes of yesterday, don't forget Mr. Perseus, the brown-skinned Beau Brummel who had Zeus for his father and Danae, a descendant of old Egypt for his mamma.

IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY

(By Tricia Breaux)

Mr. and Mrs. Cornale to Entertain Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Corneal have issued invitations to a reception to be given Wednesday evening, August 15th, at the Stag Auditorium.

Sings at Fair Mrs. Dolly Partos, 975 Northwick Street, spent last week at the Graham Fair and sang during the time.

Have Visitors From South Mr. Ed. Love and Mrs. Isabella Johnson, brother and sister of Arthur Love, spent last week with Mrs. Arthur Love.

Miss Effie Johnson. About sixteen guests were present and enjoyed the evening with games and music.

Miss Medusa, the lady of the snake locks, was asleep when the party arrived. Without even introducing himself, Perseus borrowed the lady's head, put it in the magic wallet and started home.

As he entered the cabaret of King Polydectes, the king was so surprised that he made a break for Perseus with a desire to harpoon him.

Of course this tale is some yarn, sure enough, but it goes to prove that all those heroes and heroines of old Greece were rather shady when it comes to complexion.

A whole race of people in a given community as undesirable, we believe is not only an insult to the race but is an insult that should be resisted.

As this interview was not branded confidential, and as we are deeply interested in anything in which our race is involved, we pass this on to our readers, hoping they will profit by it.

To us the language of some of our patrons, "they have been nice to us." But we hope that our people, just as we feel that "being nice" to us while Birthday Anniversary Observed Friday night, the 3rd, at her home, 652 Union Avenue, North, Mrs. Georgia O. Harris entertained a coterie of her friends, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Dinner Party Pleases Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harrell entertained at dinner Sunday at Teddy Arm apartment for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexandria.

At the Seaside Mrs. W. H. Abernathy and grand children, of 488 Ankeny Street, are spending a few days at Seaside.

Johnson received many beautiful gifts. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

To Represent Daughter Elks Mrs. Helen Morton was chosen by Dahlia Temple, No. 202, I. B. P. O. E. of W., to represent the temple at the Grand Lodge in Chicago, August 26.

insulting our race cut no figure with them. To use the old slang, "Love me, love my dog."

After the main information had been given us, our friend, Mr. Gaylor, proceeded to give us advice as to how to solve the "race problem."

Concluding that the race would be better off if it became good artisans. Touching on higher education, he said that it was rather "unfortunate" that colored people had access to the schools of higher education, which undoubtedly unfitted them for the proper service or their place in the world.

INDEPENDENT BAPTIST CHURCH 62 1/2 N. 10th Street Rev. E. C. Dyer, Pastor

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH Larrabee and McMillan Streets Rev. A. R. Fox, D. D., Pastor

E. L. Jameson, Assistant Phone Walnut 3900 Rev. A. R. Fox preached a most illuminating sermon Sunday morning at the church from the first verse of the 12th chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Romans which is as follows:

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." The speaker discussed the various views of the "good life" from the early ascetic or self-withdrawal from the world view to the present-day Christian view, stating that the Christian view was a fusion of the elements of all the various views.

Citing Christ as an example, he pleaded with his congregation to follow in His Steps, not withdrawing from the people, but intermingling with them, finding their need and serving them. He said that Christ wanted them to make living sacrifices—the sacrifices of service instead of the old view of sacrificing lives of animals.

At the conclusion of the sermon one joined the church and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered.

SAMBO SIMMS Miss Ails, you are a thing divine—such wonderful eyes. Believe me, fair, one of dreams, I simply adore you. Indeed, Sambo, making love, is my business—instead of your pleasure. That is the trouble with some women—they know too much.
