A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HUMILITY OF CHRIST—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.—Phil. 2:5, 8.

JOINING LODGES

Fraternal organizations are among the biggest institutions launched by colored people in this country. And it is commendable that the thinking people of the Race have learned that fact, and after much costly experience, and are putting it into practice.

GOVERNOR WALTON

Those people who stand for law and order will sadly regret the defeat of Governor Walton of Oklahoma in his courageous, manly fight to overthrow the rule of the "Invisible Empire" in that state.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

On September 1, '23, just one week after "The Old Reliable" Gazette entered its forty-first year of continuous publication, every week on time, our highly esteemed contemporary, The Portland (Ore) Advocate, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cannady, editor and associate editor respectively, entered its twentieth year with a special and well illustrated edition of ten pages that was very interesting as well as very creditable, indeed. Congratulations, confers, and best wishes for twenty more years of life that will be even more successful from every viewpoint.—Cleveland Gazette.

A NEW MAGAZINE

One of the best magazines we have ever read is the new one called "Opinion, Black and White," with headquarters in Boston, Mass. The contents of the whole publication are gotten up in a masterly fashion and written by people who are logical reasoners and deep thinkers.

The editor of the Cadiz (Ohio) Informer is hollering his head off against women speaking in Baptist church pulpits. Here is what the editor has to say: The preacher who encourages women to deliver addresses in Baptist pulpits ought to have intelligence enough to know that the word of God is against it;

The little colored folk must stop complaining about the faults of the big colored folk. The wise thing for them to do is to profit by the mistakes of the big ones and some day the former may be even bigger than the latter.

The Mayor of Tampa, Florida, sent a colored lady to jail because she refused to address two white policemen "Mister, instead of "policemen." This is a fine way to keep the colored people from leaving the South.

HOTEL NOTES

Ernest Morton returned home last Saturday from a trip to Chicago, where he attended the Elk's Grand Lodge, and afterwards journeyed to San Antonio, Tex., and visited his relatives.

Claude James, who held down one end of the private waiter's job at the Portland for a week or two, has been transferred to the dining room.

J. Floyd has just returned from Gearhart where he was a house man during the summer. Floyd has taken over the janitorship of the main dining room of The Portland.

Bellhops at The Portland broke loose Tuesday morning in new drab colored uniforms, and they really make the very ugliest one of the lot look mighty good.

Alexander Loving, head waiter at The Karidon, Eastern, Pa., shot to death a few months ago a white boy who attempted to assault him. At his trial last week the jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter.

Chris Smith, veteran waiter and restaurateur who conducted a restaurant during the Summer at Seaside, Oregon, and also at the recent State Fair at Salem, with the assistance of his wife, has returned to the city and reports business as good.

THEY LIKE CALIFORNIA

A letter to The Advocate from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Askew, who recently left here for California, states that they arrived safely in due course at Pasadena and like it there fine. Both found employment immediately and state that work is plentiful and wages good.
