HOUSTONIANS HERE RELATIVES OF MRS. WILLIAMS

It was after Prof. and Mrs. J. M. Frierson of Houston, Texas, had left the city for Seattle that Mrs. Grace Williams was apprised of their visit. Mr. Frierson is an uncle of Mrs. Williams and she would have been delighted had she known they were in the city. She telegraphed to Seattle trying to catch them there but they had gone on to Vancouver, B. C.

EASTERN OUTFITTING COMPANY STAGES FASHION SHOW

Beginning today at the Liberty Theater, with one performance in the afternoon and two at night, the Eastern Outfitting Company, the largest concern of its kind in the city, will present twelve living models in what will be their last Fashion Revue of the season. It is said that the display of gowns, suits, coats, etc., will be much more elaborate than those of previous shows. Those who witnessed the fashions presented by this company at the Liberty some time ago will wonder how the fashions could be more charming. Shoes to match the gowns will be furnished by Egert-Young Company, 127 Sixth St., one of the leading booteries in the city. There will be no advance in the admission fee to the performances.

SPEAKS BEFORE REPRESENTATIVE AUDIENCE AT MT. OLIVET BAPTIST CHURCH FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12TH, UNDER AUSPICES LOCAL BRANCH.—SAYS AFRICA LOGICAL HOME OF RACE

Charges White Race in America to Assist in Program of U. N. I. A.—Urges Race Everywhere to Support Movement for its Protection.—Says Race Must Go the Route as Others.

(Special)

Marcus Garvey, President General of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, with headquarters in New York City, was the guest a few days last week of the local branch of the organization and spoke before a representative audience Friday night at Mt. Olivet Baptist church, East First and Schuyler streets. The program was opened by a quartet, followed by prayer offered by Rev. J. W. Anderson, pastor of the church. This was followed by a piano solo by Mrs. C. H. Downing, then Mrs. Phillips, Lady President of the local organization, gave a short talk. Rev. Mr. E. C. Dyer, pastor of the Independent Baptist Church, himself a supporter of the U. N. I. A., in most fitting terms introduced the speaker of the evening. H. Bird, president of the local branch, presided.

We had the pleasure of privately interviewing Mr. Garvey and also hearing his public lecture. And after listening to the man expound the principles of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and its objects, we are of the opinion that the colored press generally, which has spoken so disparagingly of him, has willfully misrepresented the man and the movement. And the individuals who have never heard him or his representatives, nor read from his pen, have taken the attitude against him from hearsay evidence. To make plain what we have just said: We had been told that his lectures were rotten and the man could not be understood (meaning his English). We cannot account for such report unless it is because Mr. Garvey speaks almost perfect English and these people accustomed to brogue and poor English could not understand real English when they heard it. It was also reported that he was of the braggadocio type. We talked with him for two hours on several important issues and here again we failed to note a single strain of brag. But we are sorry to say we cannot say as much for many other leaders of the race, many of whom have been foremost in assailing Mr. Garvey. Ask nine-tenths of the people who oppose the program of the Universal Negro Improvement Association why their opposition and they cannot tell you. But they oppose it because it is popular to oppose it; because the "intelligent" people of the race oppose it; because they are afraid to come out and speak for it, fearing they will be criticised by their friends and classed as "crazy"; because they do not want to offend their white friends.

We heard that Mr. Garvey openly said that the colored people in this country had not accomplished anything. But these people failed to go further and modify that statement as did Mr. Garvey. He explained what he meant by that assertion when he said, "Yes, you have schools, colleges, churches, business institutions, beautiful homes, etc., but when I say you have not accomplished anything I mean that you haven't anything that cannot be taken away from you in twenty-four hours. . . . you cannot protect your lives, how on earth can you protect your property, and so when I say you haven't accomplished anything I mean you have nothing you can protect."

Some criticize Garvey for assailing other organizations. This is unfortunate. All people cannot think the same way and therefore all people will never join any one organization. But we hold that Mr. Garvey has the same right to strike back at the various organizations as they have to assail the organization he represents. We also heard he belonged to the Ku Klux Klan and therefore asked him to put us wise how he became a member, being as black as he is. Mr. Garvey explained that when the opportunity presented itself he called on the Imperial Wizard because being interested in his race, and believing the Ku Klux Klan to be opposed to his race, he wanted to find out all he could from the head of the Klan, so he might be in a better position to direct his forces to the race's best interests. Some accuse Garvey of teaching hatred toward the white race and militarism. What is more equitable than this: "When the white man gets to the place he is willing to be led by Negroes, then
