JEALOUSY OF AMERICAN MISSIONARIES BEWILDERS NATIVE AFRICANS WOULD RATHER LYNCH THAN TO DRINK

WHILE SOUTHERN SENATOR CENSURES MARYLAND CONGRESSMAN FOR VIOLATING PROHIBITION LAW, WHITE MOB LYNCHES COLORED MAN IN HIS OWN STATE

No Law Against Lynching in Virginia—Victim of Mob Not Given Opportunity of Trial by Jury—Virginia Would Rather Take a Life Than a Drink

(Special to The Advocate)
Washington, Nov. 1.—At the exact moment that Senator Carter Glass of Virginia was investigating against Congressman Hill of Maryland for violation of the Volstead law, in permitting wine to ferment in his cellar, a Negro named Carter was being taken from the Virginia authorities near Richmond to be lynched. Senator Glass was speaking before the Citizenship Conference, in session here last week, and said: "If Congressman Hill was in Virginia I would find an officer who would arrest him if he allowed wine to ferment in his cellar, or his parlor either. In Virginia we teach respect for the law by punishing its violators, and that is why Virginia is a law-abiding community."

If what the senator was saying was literally true, probably Carter, who was accused of attacking a white woman, might have had a trial by a jury in order that the facts could be disclosed, instead of displaying that the Virginians would rather take a life than take a drink.

Berkeley News

(By Arthur LeBon)
Friends of Aaron Robinson, Jr., Pullman porter of San Francisco district, 1410 67th street, will be greatly shocked to hear of his sudden death, which occurred recently, from heart failure. Mr. Robinson was a member of the West Gate Masonic Lodge and the P. P. B. A. of A. which carries a policy of $1000. Services were held at Hudson and Butler parlors and the remains shipped to New Orleans, for interment.

The Pullman Porters Benefit Association of America held its election of officers October 10th, resulting in the re-election of all the officers of the preceding year. For chairman, A. Holman; treasurer, E. Martin; delegate to Grand Lodge, A. H. Holman, Arthur LeBon, secretary.

A ladies' auxiliary was formed to work in conjunction with the men. Peter Eades has been on the sick list for the past six weeks, but is reported better at this writing.

The Hackett Brothers, Luther, James, Arthur Jr. and Paul, blew

the first horn for the fall merriment at one of the grandest affairs of the season in Bachelors Hall, 1617 Park street. After a delicious repast, dancing was the main diversion. After the party everybody said Art, Lute and Jim know how; Paul had something on his mind, so to break the anxiety he left early.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE ENDORSES GOLDEN RULE DAY
New York, Nov. 5.—President Coolidge has endorsed the plan for observing December 2 as International Golden Rule Sunday, it was announced Sunday by Charles V. Vickrey, general secretary of the near east relief.

Plans for the day as outlined at a recent international conference at Geneva call upon people of fourteen countries to serve a menu in their homes similar to that served in orphanages in the near east, the difference in cost of the orphanage meal and the ordinary meal to be contributed to orphanage work overseas.

Mr. Vickrey said he expected the day would be observed by 20,000,000 people.

DEPREDACTIONS BY WILD BEASTS OF AFRICAN FORESTS SET FORTH IN REPORT FROM AFRICA NOT SO DESTRUCTIVE AS STRIFE BETWEEN MISSIONARIES SENT TO THAT COUNTRY.

Various Doctrines Tend to Confuse Natives Who Are Likely to Return to Idolatry Unless Missionaries Mend Their Ways and Adopt a Harmonious Program

(Lincoln Service)
London, Nov. 1.—Setting forth the depredations committed upon peoples and crops by lions, elephants and other wild beasts, a report from Africa, released by the Colonial office, also refers to the deleterious effect that rivalry between the missionaries from various organizations is having upon the natives. "It is greatly to be regretted," runs the report, "that a spirit of rivalry has manifested itself in certain districts between Christian missions of different denominations. It arises from a very natural and sincere belief in certain districts between Christian mission of different denominations. It arises from a very natural and sincere belief in the superiority of that branch of the common faith, which it is their duty and pride to preach to the heathen, but it often results in an undignified competition. This open display of religious differences cannot but react to the damage of the Christian faith.

Another close by and still another a few miles away, achieve little more than the complete bewilderment of the pagan native, and unless these organizations can get together, at least to the extent of establishing spheres of influence, the natives will eventually return to their idols, upon the assumption that they do at least agree with each other."
