A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

STRENGTH AND SONG: - The He is become my salvation.-Exodus

GIVE US MEN AND WOMEN!

Give us men and women, O Lord; give us men and women!

When Hannibal, the indominable swarthy skinned king of Carthage, brought his army across the mighty Alps, he pointed down to the Valley of the Po and exclaimed: "Beyond you lies Rome. Take it!"

With a courage as great and a heart as fearelss, one today can point the eyes of the Negro to an unlimited field of opportunity and cry: "Beyond you lies success. Take it!" Success is not within the power of Twelve millions of us in one country! Think of it! Twelve millions! Great God, what potential power! What endless wealth! What limitless chance for achievement! Twelve millions who are searching for the light and with all so blind that they grope in darkness seeking the way out!

Beyond you lies success! Take it! Do something! Hope for something! Achieve something! Stop being beggars outside the closed gates!

The path of ages is litered with the memories of nations that achieved with less than twelve millions!

Think of the Jew in this country, with less than four millions. He is hated, despised and spat upon; but he strives on. Let us strive, too! "Beyond you lies Rome! Take it!" If you fail it will be because you are not worthy to win! But you will not fail! None can fail who truly try!

THE SPIRIT OF LAFAYETTE

(By L. B. Stewart) Among the news items of the week appears an account of the assistance which France rendered to Ethiopianee Abyssinia, the African empire in the latter's effort to gain admission to the League of Nations. Another chapter thereby is added to an already lengthy historical record of the instances in which this great nation has given the helping hand to struggling nations. We have but to recall the dreadful, doubtful days of the revolution and the part France played to realize at least in part what the ultimate outcome of this policy will be. Turkey, whose dismemberment was sought ostensibly in defense of the Christian religion, but in reality for the unhampered acquisition of coveted natural resources, owes the retention of her sovereignty to the land of Lafayette. And now she stretches forth the hand of fellowship to Ethiopia. How sweet is the fruit of freedom! Freedom from religious bigotry; freedom from racial and color prejudice; freedom from national jealousy, for it is not only concelvable but quite probable that when the wounds made by the heel of the Russian invader will have healed, the traditional magnanimity of the peerless leader of world democracy will forgive and forget. Viva, La France!

CROOKED PREACHERS

Several weeks ago The Advocate made mention of the dirty deeds of two local colored preachers. Forthat, some people have seen fit to criticise us for so doing. To all of them let it be known that no one has a greater respect for the ministry than we have. But, first of all, we believe that the ministry is the highest calling to be found and that a preacher should practice what he preaches; only in that way can he be a shining light and a real leader, not only of his own flock but of the people in general. A cleam, moral and intelligent pulpit is one of the greatest needs of our race. The minister must be a student of the Bible, a student of sociology. He must prepare his sermons during the week, and feed his flock spiritually. He must not spend his time chasing the women of his flock, or dodging up and down dark alley-ways, drinking oze and committing other acts of intemperance and immorality. Preachers who neglect these essentials and live questionable lives are not deserving of any charity. Their dirty

The services were well attended all day last Sunday; many were heard to say it is good to be here. The annual sermon of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, preached by the pastor, was wonderful. The principal objects and aims were defined in a simple but forceful way.

The church is moving forward; straight lives are being lived; good sermons are being preached; love and honor prevail, and everything is carried on in the spirit of Christ. Come and worship with us. You will find unselfishness and regard for principle are paramount here. Each Lord's day, 10 a. m. Sunday School; 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., preaching.
