WHY DON'T WHITES LOOK AT TUT'S FACE?

THOSE WHO ARE IN CHARGE OF EXCAVATION OF TUT'S TOMB HAVE DECIDED NOT TO UNCOVER HIS FACE UNTIL NEXT YEAR—WHAT IS REASON IS ASKED BY MANY

Fear That the Mummy Will Show Up to Be Black Man is Said to Be the Cause of the Delay—Many Waiting With Anxious Expectations to Know the Truth.

(Special.)

LUXOR, Egypt, Jan. 22.—In view of the fact that plans for a radiological examination of Tutankhamen's mummy have been deferred until next year and that Howard Carter, head of the excavating expedition, is departing for the United States for a lecture tour on April 1, it appears doubtful whether the pharaoh's mummy will be unwrapped this season.

Mr. Carter is understood to have come to the conclusion that it will be necessary to take down the sides of the four enclosing shrines in order to make room for the complicated apparatus which must be erected for raising the weighty lid of the stone sarcophagus, so this operation, which, it is learned, is to be postponed.

HOTEL NOTES

Josef McClain is one of the richest head waiters in this country. For many years he has been in charge of the Royal Poliana at Palm Beach, Fla. Mr. McClain has an income greater than the majority of guests whose tips make him one of the best paid men in the country. The season is only ten weeks and it is estimated that he receives about $40,000 in tips. Those acquainted with him say that McClain estimates his tips at $4000 per week from the wealthy guests. About the smallest tip he receives is $5 from about eight hundred persons each week. He is also head waiter at the U. S. hotel in Saratoga during the racing season which adds another $10,000 to his income. He is the chief owner of The Tattler, a weekly paper devoted to theatrical doings of his people, and owns a Rolls Royce automobile. His annual income is estimated at $70,000.

The Howell, a fine hostelry in St. Paul, Minn., which cost several hundred thousand dollars, was thrown open to the public on the 3rd of this month, and so great was the patronage that people had to be turned away.

Henry Hays, former employe of The Portland, has gone to Seattle to reside.

George Feltz, former private waiter at The Portland and now occupying a like position at The Multnomah, donated $100 to the Masonic drive for a million dollar lodge hall, for which George has received much newspaper mention as well as congratulations from the Masonic body.

THE NEGRO IN OUR HISTORY

is the title of a book published in June, 1923, by THE ASSOCIATED PUBLISHERS, INC., 1538 Ninth St., Washington, D. C. The author is Carter Godson Woodson, editor of the Journal of Negro History, and can be bought by mail for $2.15. This book as well as the Journal should be in every colored home. The book contains 20 chapters, 126 illustrations, references for future study, and important documents in the appendix. It has already been adopted as a textbook for schools conducting courses in history and sociology.

NOTICE

THE DOINGS OF THE ELKS

(By Eugene J. Minor.)

The Daughters of Dahlia Temple held a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening. The Daughters received five applications for membership into their Temple.

Grand Secretary Bates is sending out printed proceedings of the last session of the Grand Lodge.

District Deputy E. W. Morton's mother was stricken last week with paralysis at Everett, Washington.

She is reported improved.

Bro. Thos. H. Gibson, formerly of Columbia Lodge, Washington, D. C., has made application to Rose City.

Lodge for membership. He left the city this week to seek employment with the Pullman Company at Seattle, Washington.

The Rose City Lodge has the following Brothers on the sick list: Robert Lawrence, Leon Gregory, Edgar Williams, Richard Young, Henry Besseler.

Webb's Orchestra, which is nearly all Elks, will leave about the first day of March, 1924, to resume their work with the steamship company running between Seattle and Los Angeles. We all regret the leaving of these splendid musicians, as they have done much in entertaining Portland dancers. We wish them much success and hope that they will soon return.

Don't forget about the Elks' annual ball which will take place on February 26, 1924, at the Cotillion Hall. Everyone is getting ready for the gala event and don't think that you will be crowded, as it is the largest hall in town and you can have plenty of room to dance. Come early and stay late. Yes, Webb's Orchestra will play for the affair.

MOTHER DIES IN EAST

Mrs. E. L. Booker of 1034 E. 29th street, N., left Wednesday for Baltimore, Md., to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Lane, who died suddenly in that city Tuesday.

Mrs. K. O. Johnson has moved from 89 Graham avenue to 145 Knott street. She is very pleased with her new location.

Mrs. Wm. R. Harris of 270 Caruthers street, is convalescing nicely at Emanuel hospital.

For Rent—6-room house, one block to good car service. A. H. Morrow, Broadway 5807.

INJURED ON STREET CAR

Edgar E. Williams was one of the passengers on the N. and S. street car Thursday which collided with an automobile. Mr. Williams sustained injuries which have kept him confined at his home ever since. At present the extent of his injuries has not been ascertained.

TEN YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Harold Nichols (Gilbert Lawrence) who was arrested last month charged with highway robbery, was found guilty in the circuit court Tuesday and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

WOMAN SHOTS WOMAN

Marie Starks, who resides at 16th and Northrup streets, was shot in the face early Wednesday morning by Carrie Smith, who resides at 135 N. 14th street. The shooting, it is said, was the result of hard feelings between the women, which has long existed.

CARDINAL GIBBONS INSTITUTE TO BE ERECTED AS LIVING INSTITUTION FOR YOUTH OF RACE—CONSTRUCTION TO START IN NEAR FUTURE

Live, Active, Ever-Growing Institution for Education of the Colored Race Which He Began, to Be Continued as a Fitting Testimonial to His Greatness

WASHINGTON, D. C.—James Cardinal Gibbons is soon to have a monument to his memory. It will be a worthy one, most pleasing to him whose life for over sixty years was devoted to public service for God and country.

What would he prefer as a memorial if we could know his choice? A statue in marble or bronze, beautiful to the eye, and with his name and works lettered on it—or a living institution bearing his name and working on and on with ever-increasing effectiveness for the poorest of his people? Had he lived, by this time, the Cardinal Gibbons Institute (under some other name, to be sure) undoubtedly would be in operation, and the colored youth of the country, irrespective of their church affiliations, would have an opportunity for a practical education under Catholic auspices.

A "Catholic Tuskegee" teaches the youth of the colored race how to live, how to earn a living, how to keep well, how to do well in peace and understanding with their neighbors; and training leaders to work among others of their race in other places. He began the movement, we will complete it as his memorial. Can you think of a more fitting memorial—one that would please that great American churchman more? Will you help erect it?

We know the many demands on your resources at the present time, but this cannot wait longer. The Cardinal is gone now nearly three years! Don't wait, help now. Send your contributions, great or small, to the office of the Executive Committee given below, who unanimously joins in this appeal to you and to all who loved the Cardinal.

(Signed) Most Rev. M. J. Curley, William S. Benson, David I. Walsh, William S. Aumen, Lawrence P. Williams, A. C. Monahan.

OAKLAND AND BERKELEY NEWS

(By Arthur D. LeBon.)

The national convention of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity was held at Columbus, Ohio, the last week in December. The California visitors to the convention were Mesdames Florence Cole-Talbert of Los Angeles and Vivian Osborne Marsh of Berkeley, who are Delta Sigma Theta members; and Messrs. Geo. Johnson of Berkeley and James W. McGregor of Los Angeles, Alpha Phi Alpha men. The convention will meet at New York in December, 1924.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. LeBon of 1508 Ashby avenue, Berkeley, have purchased a beautiful home of eight rooms at 3609 King and Ashby ave., which they expect to occupy very shortly.

Miss Gladys Wysinger, daughter of J. E. Wysinger, whose engagement to Charles Crawford was announced at a dinner given by Mrs. M. M. Crawford on Christmas way at the Crawford residence, Raymond street, Berkeley, is one of the most popular girls among the East Bay younger set. She was crowned queen of the Mardi-Gras festival of 1923 and also won a scholarship of The Women's Federated Club. Miss Wysinger also has charge of the multigraphing department at Cadding service. Mr. Crawford is president of the Acorn Club and also holds a prominent position in San Francisco.

People of Bay district have been anxious to know if the beautiful home on 37th street, purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Williams, is for rent, sale or will the owners occupy it themselves. We'll watch closely—some one will answer the door bell very, very shortly. Oh yes, some one also hints that a certain young bachelor may soon become a benedict, who is closely connected with The Williams. Now don't put this out, keep it to yourself, because it may not be true. The girls call him Presley S.

The Red Caps banquet was truly within itself an elaborate affair. The hour 11:30, an hour of which all Red Caps could possibly assemble. Place, Jake Wagner's Cafe, a place where the cooking is unequalled and appetizing.

After indulging in a few games of whist, the first call for dinner was announced. Twenty-eight Red Caps were gathered around the festive board and after the blessing by Jack Hoskins each one arose and a silent prayer was said for the loved ones departed. Did the boys eat? Well, after the third passing of the chicken. Ah! After a few words of advice and praise by the past and present officers, a short address by each one was enjoyed, some serious and interesting while others were comical and helped to make the evening enjoyable.

Jack Hoskins was selected as master of ceremonies and he did the office justice. Sam Pierce, ex-officio, was chairman of social sessions. Maurice Hunter and Harris were kind enough to assist Jake Wagner in serving the appetizing viands. A regular goodfellow
