A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

IN THE BEGINNING WAS THE WORD, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

"I AM A REPUBLICAN"

When President Coolidge, during his New York Lincoln Day address, proudly exclaimed: "I am a Republican," he attracted the entire attention of thinking men and women throughout the country to matters of government.

G. O. P. CHAIRMAN MAY SEE THE LIGHT

John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National Committee, asks: "Why should Attorney General Daugherty resign without a hearing?"

There are thousands of citizens in this country who have been condemned to death, without a hearing before any court or tribunal under a regular form of government.

If Chairman Adams is alarmed at the power of the "Mob Spirit" in America we could suggest that he use his good office to help check that spirit.

Degeneracy among the white people seems to be on the increase to judge by the number of men reported to have been seen nude recently.

One does not have to knock or try to down some one else in order to succeed in business, church or society.

UNBIASED CLASS CONSCIOUSNESS

Conditions which it has been impossible, in the light of present-day understanding, to eliminate or eradicate, have made inevitable the steady growth, in the United States, of Negro class consciousness.

ever since the emancipation of the Negroes from the bonds of human slavery, and this despite the progress of those peoples, individually and collectively, in education and in their ability to share in the responsibilities of citizenship.

Thus because there has been inherited by the present and earlier generations of white people a class consciousness which has sought to set up its own idol of social aristocracy, so there has gradually been established among the Negroes, and particularly among those who have advanced farthest in their struggle to attain a compensating, though an altogether innocuous, class consciousness, an assertiveness which through the ages stirs to its depth the people, whether of race of class, who are regarded as the submerged minority.

In Chicago, a few days ago, at a meeting of the leaders of a majority of the Negro organizations in the United States, action was taken to make permanent what is to be known as the All-Race Congress, with headquarters to be established in Washington. But there is nothing alarming or disquieting in the platform of purposes adopted at this convention.

Unveiled shafts are launched against the established order. No worthy indictment is lodged against society. No destructive propaganda is sent broadcast in an effort to encourage opposition to the Constitution or the laws. What is sought is the advancement of the race through better schools; through fuller expression in art, business and world service.

Judged by their declarations, these representative Negroes stand acquitted of any charge of fomenting race prejudice through an appeal to class consciousness. They have marked out a course which, if adhered to,

IN THE REALM of Society

Political Notes What has become of Will Parry, who never lets an election go by without announcing himself a candidate for some office? However, it is not too late yet.

The local men in charge of Hiram Johnson's campaign for president are making things hum for their man. From present indications, Mr. Johnson is going to make a great run.

The same old cry is being indulged in by campaign managers of both parties: No money to conduct the campaign for their candidate. At the same time too many men and women in swell headquarters are occupying swivel chairs and drawing down high salaries.

There are plenty and enough colored voters in Oregon, if they will unite their forces, go to the polls and vote, to be the balance of power in the next election, especially where it is a margin of two or three thousand votes.

Danger of unrestricted immigration was the theme of Congressman Elton Watkins' maiden speech before Congress the 2nd of last month, a copy of which we acknowledge with thanks. Perhaps there are many who will disagree with Mr. Watkins' viewpoint on this much discussed subject; but there are some things he said which are undisputable.

The million dollar bond issue, for which a special election was held on last Tuesday was victorious by a large majority. This means that the approaches to the several new bridges to be built will be widened sufficiently to solve the traffic problem. It is thought to the satisfaction of all.

Charles Rudeen, who has made good as a County Commissioner, is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Rudeen will be strongly opposed by one or perhaps two other men, who so far have not made public their announcements.

Julian, the colored aviator, should let a few of us go with him as far as Bermuda when he makes his trans-Atlantic flight.

Card Party Attracts The card party which will be sponsored by Swastika Club, O. E. S., Monday evening, the 17th, at the Stag Club, promises to be one of the smartest affairs held on St. Patrick's day. It is expected that more than an hundred will play whist at this time and vie for the prizes. The committee is sparing no means in its effort to make this a very successful affair from every viewpoint.

PARIS FAVORS THIS MODEL The floating panel, with its unusual arrangement of plaits and irregular lower edge, makes this frock of dark brown satin of unusual interest. The blouse and skirt are separate, the blouse being closed at the left side. The two-piece gathered skirt is laid in plaits on either side of the back. If desired, one of the novelty motifs so much in vogue may be added to the front of the dress for a quaint touch of decoration.
