Don't ask for fights. Take them. An' don't let any man give them to ye. A right that is handed to ye fr' now, kin' has somethin' the matter with it.—Mr. Dooley.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY: Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men.—Psalm 107:21.

OREGONIAN ENDORSES N. A. A. C. P.'S PROTEST

Down in Arizona a colored man is sentenced to hang within a few days for the murder of a white man. The father of the murderer's victim, it is reported, has been selected to do the hanging.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is the fundamentally right in its stand that in permitting the father of a murderer's victim to act as executioner of the murderer the state is proceeding "against policy, substituting private revenge for punishment."

The purpose of the penalties of law, minor as well as capital, is deterrence. The "eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth" theory has no place in modern jurisprudence. The state in civilization has taken over the administration of justice precisely for the reason that it long ago foresaw the cul de sac into which private vengeance would lead us.

THE ELECTION

The primary election, May 15th, is history. The results of it has proven satisfying to the majority of the voters of the state. True, some real-tygood and well qualified men went down to defeat and there may be those who are disappointed over it.

THE MALONES

If the race only had a few more wealthy race loving, unselfish men and women like the Malones, founders and owners of the great Poro Beauty College of St. Louis, Mo., what great things could be accomplished and what great institutions built to the credit of the race.

patrons all over the world, but we are told that the natives of Africa will soon be given daily instructions in agriculture over this device.

The Advocate extends its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of the late Robert King Morgan, who passed from this to a better life May 15th.

IS THIS HYDRO?

The evening lesson was from the Book of Job, and the minister had just read, "Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out," when suddenly the church was plunged into total darkness.

SEE HOME BEAUTIFUL

The Home Beautiful on Terwilliger Blvd., opposite Hill Villa, was visited from May 1st to 25th by a large number of people and admired for the artistic manner in which it was furnished.

PORTLAND WOMAN VISITS

From the "Sedalia Tribune," a splendid newspaper published in Sedalia, Mo., by the Sedalia Tribune Publishing Company, with Rev. M. L. Mackay president and editor, had the following to say about one of our Portland citizens in its April 20th issue:

"Mrs. Lulu DeMond of Portland, Oregon, who is visiting her relatives here, Mrs. Lillie Kinney and Mrs. Viola Kinney Ferguson, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brown, Saturday and Sunday."

CHINA TODAY

By Martha Root (Continued from last week.)

(7) Universal Peace—is one of the most vital issues among the educated classes of China today. They are eager to know about the Bahai movement, to learn its constructive program for a world peace. They say: "We hope for a genuine and lasting internationalism—an internationalism that is based not on treaties and covenants which can be torn up; an internationalism which is based not on clever interpretations of carefully worded powers, but an interpretation based upon the unity of interest, unity of thought, unity of aims and hopes and unity of hearts."

(8) Universal Education.—Dr. P. W. Kuo, president of Southeastern University, Nanking, was one of the leading advocates of universal education at the world conference on education, held in San Francisco in 1923. He said to the writer the other day: "The universal principles of Bahai'ullah will be favorably received in China. One of our deans has become so interested in universal education that he has been willing to give up his deanship to promote it. He is now the general secretary of the new national popular education movement of China." (To be continued)

THE DOINGS OF THE ELKS

(By Eugene J. Minor)

GRAND EXALTED RULER TO VISIT PORTLAND

Rose City Lodge is looking forward with much interest and great pleasure to the coming visit of our Grand Exalted Ruler, J. Finley Wilson of Washington, D. C., who will be the guest of the local lodge on July 4th and 5th. The reception committee and the committee of arrangements will leave no stones unturned to make his visit one of the grandest events in the history of Elksdom in the City of Roses.

The various auto clubs have in charge the disposal of the automobile and harmoniously to put the closing event over in a halo of glory, July 4th, at which time a boat excursion will be pulled off both day and night.

The Daughters of Dahlia Temple held their regular meeting on last Thursday evening. Mrs. L. Randall rode the goat into the temple.

Wm. Buford, one of the "Bills" who has been on the sick list for a spell, has recovered and again taken up his duties on the railroad.

Rose City Lodge of Elks are looking forward with intense interest to their annual and semi-annual election for officers, which will be held at the first meeting in June.

Daughter Martha J. Strain is still confined to her home, ill, at 225 Meade street.

MEMORIAL SERVICES DIFFERENT

The Memorial Services held Sunday afternoon at Bethel A. M. E. church by the P. P. B. A. of A., was different in many ways from any held in the city for a long time. A very excellent program was rendered, consisting of music, speeches and a sermon by Rev. E. C. Dyer. Rev. Dyer gave the porters a practical talk on how to be wise porters. He emphasized the fact that porters should improve their minds and lift the work to a high standard.

PIONEER BURIED WEDNESDAY

Robert King Morgan, pioneer Portlander who died Wednesday night, May 15, at Good Samaritan Hospital following an operation, was buried Wednesday from J. P. Finley's Mortuary. A large number of friends and acquaintances of the family were in attendance. The services were conducted by Rev. E. C. Dyer, pastor of Mt. Olivet Baptist church, and the Rev. Dr. Villard of White Temple. Both stressed the beauty of the deceased's life in giving himself to God in his youth. Mesdames V. E. Keene and Katherine Gray furnished the music. Beautiful indeed were the floral offerings and the services which ended at the Crematorium were exceedingly sad and impressive.

Several white friends from Albany, Oregon, where Mr. Morgan at one time resided, were noted in the audience. Mr. Morgan was 75 years old at his death and had lived in Portland since 1901. He was one of the most highly respected citizens of the state, coming to Portland as a slave from Kentucky at the age of six years. Later gaining his freedom, he married Miss Annie Caesar of Portland and to the happy union seven boys and two girls were born, five of whom survive him.

Mr. Morgan leaves to mourn their loss, a wife, Mrs. Annie Morgan, 157 Farragut street, four sons, Henry, Francis, George and Edward, and one daughter, Mrs. Ima Minor; a grandson, Eugene Morgan.

Maurice Crumpacker, who received the nomination for Congressman from the Third District, May 16th.
