Don't ask for rights. Take them. An' don't let anny one give them to ye. A right that is handed to ye fr' nawthin' has somethin' the matter with it.—Mr. Dooley.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

CAST AWAY from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed: and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourself and live ye.—Ezekiel 18:31, 32.

TIME TO LEAVE

When mobs murder or outrage Negro men and women and the victim is unable to protect himself and the law fails or refuses to intervene and extend protection, the Negroes of such community should leave en masse. The happy day has arrived when Negroes can secure work in any part of the country and there is no need for any Negro in any part of the South to remain where he is mistreated, outraged, or murdered.

UNSTABLE

We constantly hear members of the Race express firm resolutions about standing for right principles and yet these same men and women are swept along by any current that comes their way, regardless of whether the right or wrong principle is involved, or whether no principle at all. In other words, they seem to talk to hear themselves talk with absolutely no sincerity of purpose and end up by following the crowd; they go the way of least resistance in order to be known as "good fellows" and "popular".

ELKS' LEADER

J. Finley Wilson, grand exalted ruler of the great order of Elks, who is scheduled to visit Portland early in July, has proven himself a leader worthy of all the honors and laudation that have been or will be given him for his wonderful achievements in being able to successfully organize more lodges in the short period of two years than did all his predecessors in twenty or more years; besides Mr. Wilson is preaching the sort of gospel that is fast putting the order of Elks on a foundation that will make all people honor and respect the name of Elksdom throughout this country.

ENEMIES

The man or woman who follows the advice of their known enemies will sooner or later come to grief. If an enemy shows you a road as straight as an arrow, it will show good sense and wise judgment on your part to turn and go the other way.

It is a sign of progress and awakening to see our colored men taking the civil service examination for policemen and other positions under the government which is being done in the present examination in the City Hall. The Advocate, as is its policy, wishes all of them success.

Honorable Milton A. Miller seems to stand ace-high with the Democratic party as he received the nomination for United States Senator but his chances of election to that office in November depend largely on how well he stands with the Republican party.

If the results of the recent Primary election are to be taken as criterion, the K. K. K. is not so big a political pumpkin as it was thought to be. It so the two really prominent Catholics, John B. Coffey and Frank J. Loneragan, would not have downed the Klan's candidates in the race for the State Legislature.

A mighty race is anticipated among the candidates for the office of Mayor of the city at the November election. Mayor Baker, it is said, will not seek re-election to that office. Prominent among men mentioned to make the race are: Dr. George Parrish and ex-Judge Gatens.

Two policemen were found guilty Monday in the Juvenile court of contributing to the delinquency of minor white girls in a colored woman's house. This proves one thing if nothing more: that all policemen are not against "social equality."

WE HEAR THAT—

A man of twenty loves to be called "Daddy" by his sweetheart; but a chap of forty can think of a lot of pet names that fall more tenderly upon his ears.

Not long since a group of friends were together, when one fellow, a joker, stepped up to James Blank, and, holding a long hair before his eyes, said, "See, here, old fellow, this looks suspicious. Where did this long hair come from?" "Why, that's from my wife's head." "Are you sure of it?" "Sure of it? Of course I am. You don't suppose you would find any other woman's hair about me, do you?" "No, probably not; but I am so sorry you are so sure it is your wife's hair, for I just picked it off the coat of this gentleman," pointing to a friend near by.

HOLY LAND CONTEST DRAWING TO CLOSE

Public's Last Chance to Vote

Indianapolis, Ind., May 24, 1924.—The offer made by the Madam C. J. Walker Mfg. Co. of this city to send three ministers on a free trip to Palestine and another to Paris, France, is soon to be fulfilled. The nationwide contest in which the trips are to be awarded is fast drawing to a close. But five short weeks of the race remain to be run and then, July 1st, the world will know the winners of these matchless travel prizes.

HOTEL NOTES

Sam Billings, who performs on a dining car from Tacoma to Portland, was a business caller at The Portland Sunday. While there he renewed acquaintance with the old timers. Some of them he had not seen in twenty years.

Manager Harrington of The Portland, Mrs. Harrington and their son motored to Gearhart Sunday. Quinton Reese is third cook on a dining car.

John Jones, waiter at The Portland, has a religion widely different from that of the other waiters. For this reason, Jones is continually being harassed. Nevertheless, Jones takes the jibes good naturedly.

Henry Hayes, former busman at The Portland, journeyed to Gearhart last week where he was supposed to work for the Summer. But on last Saturday night he and the chef got into a "jamboree" and Hayes was given the gate.

The Omaha, (Neb.), Chamber of Commerce has made Simon Harold head waiter in its dining room, with a crew of 24 men.

R. B. Rhodes, cabinet lunch chef on the S. P. & S. R. R., in some unexplained manner had one ear partly carved off and the back of his head terribly bruised last week. The story as told by the chef was that he was auting with a lady at his side at night and that the car tipped over. However, the said lady has not been found.

GARVEY'S CASE POSTPONED New York, May 15.—The decision of the Court of Appeals in the appeal of Marcus Garvey, in the United States District Court has been postponed until October, 1924. It was learned today.

It was expected that Garvey would come up for sentence next month, but the case has been postponed until October, after several delays. Reasons for the postponement of the case could not be learned today.

Garvey was convicted of using the mails to defraud Negroes of millions through the sale of worthless stock in the so-called Black Star Line Steamship Company.

The report was recently published that the United States Department of Justice agents were shadowing Garvey. It was also intimated that the department of justice inquired into his deposits in foreign banks.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED
