W. A. TYLER ADVANCES

Portland's Popular Policeman, Late Candidate for Sheriff, Now Jenkin's Aid

W. A. Tyler, who, during the last Republican primaries, made such a gallant fight for the office of Sheriff of Multnomah County, has been appointed to the office of Assistant Chief of Police of Portland, taking the place of the late C. E. Klingensmith. Tyler, known as the "Smiling Cop," for the past several years has been traffic officer at Front and Madison Streets, where by fair, just, and equal treatment to all people, irrespective of so-called class or position, has won a place in the hearts of us all. Mr. Tyler is a man well qualified to fill his new position. He is a college man, well educated, with his high characteristics, makes him an ideal man for chief aid to Chief of Police Jenkins. His appointment to this office isa popular one, for the people feel he has earned advancement.
