COLORED STUDENT HEADS COLLEGE PAPER PROSPERITY WILL STOP CRIME SAYS MOTON

Prosperity Stops Crimes, Says Moton

Delivers Address on Race Relation in First Presbyterian Church in Interest of Endowment Fund.

New York, Feb. 10.—Dr. Robert R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute, declared last night in the First Presbyterian church, Fifth avenue and 10th street, that crimes involving race have been most frequent in the South in the years of economic depression.

He spoke on "Better Race Relations", and his address was the feature of a meeting in the interest of a campaign to raise a $5,000,000 joint endowment fund for Hampton and Tuskegee Institutes.

"A casual study will show," Dr. Moton declared, "that crimes involving race have for the last 25 years been notably more frequent in those years when poor crops and low prices have brought economic depression to the cotton sections of the South. The South is least conscious of race when economic conditions are most favorable. The working out of a more stable and equitable economic condition for the masses of the people will undoubtedly contribute greatly to racial adjustment."

He asserted that the industrial type of education developed at Hampton and Tuskegee turns out men and women who by their teaching and example raise the economic and living conditions of the Negroes. He quoted a Federal Department of Agriculture report to the effect that Negro farmers working in Virginia under the direction of Hampton and Tuskegee graduates had increased the yearly corn crop of that state $20,000,000.

Mrs. Ladd Feted

Honoring Mrs. Ladd, prominent and wealthy matron of Redmond, Oregon, Mrs. Robert Byrd, 911 E. 39th St. South, entertained with a reception at her home Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock. A large group of matrons called during the appointed hours. The reception rooms were decorated in keeping with the early spring season.

A $20,000 Present

Went With the $55,000 Purchase of a Home by Our National Conservatory of Music.

Chicago, Ill., March 3.—Our National Conservatory of Music, Pauline J. Lee, founder and president; Miss Bessie Hicks, secretary, has purchased for $55,000 the residence (4427 Grand Blvd.) of Thomas Carey, millionaire, now living in California, and has been presented by him with antique furniture in it valued at $20,000. The university has sold its present quarters, the former home of Madam Ernestine Schumann-Heink, noted singer, corner Michigan Ave. and 37th St., to Jesse Binga, banker, treasurer of the South Side Community Service, for $27,000. It will be occupied by this race relief organization, now at 3201 S. Wabash Ave., on May 1. The Carey residence, one of the most imposing on Grand boulevard, contains thirty-two rooms and is of brick and stone, with a fifty car garage.

Mrs. William Glass, 473 Sumner St., entertained a coterie of friends Tuesday night at her lovely home, honoring her husband's birthday anniversary.

Bellhop Accused of Theft Has Former Mayor Arrested

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 16.—Robert Smith, a bellhop at the Madison Hotel, caused the arrest of Joseph S. Wolff, former mayor and present Democratic congressman from Festes, Mo., when the latter used abusive language toward him.

Wolff sent Smith on an errand, giving him what he thought was a $10 bill. However, when Smith returned he gave the ex-mayor $1.50 in change, whereupon the former demanded the rest of his money. Smith, much surprised, explained that there must have been a mistake, that he only gave him a $2 bill.

Wolff was infuriated and filed a complaint with the clerk, but as he was unable to furnish any evidence, he was told that nothing could be done; whereupon the congressman gave vent to his spleen, cursing the colored boy and threatening him. Smith immediately sought a policeman. An effort to prefer a charge of larceny against Smith by Wolff was refused. Wolff was released on a charge of disturbing the peace after giving a $200 bond signed by a professional bondsman for his appearance in the police court.

Roland Hayes and Party in City

Roland Hayes, noted race tenor, together with his secretary and William Lawrence, his accompanist, arrived in the city Thursday morning from Los Angeles, and are the house guests of Editor and Mrs. E. D. Cannady at their home in Irvington.

Coolidge Inaugurated

Calvin Coolidge was inaugurated the 30th president of the United States last Wednesday, and thousands of people from all parts of the country were there to witness the simple but impressive ceremonies. Mr. Coolidge now being the president, by the suffrage of the people, much is expected of him along the line of independent thought and action.

Club Has Lively Meet

(By Genevieve Elizabeth Mullen)
The Get Acquainted Club held a lively meeting with Mrs. Madeline Alexander as hostess at her residence, 610 E. 59th St. N., March 3. Members were very interested in the parts of the club's initial party which promises to be one of the biggest events of the season. A strong appeal is being made to all members to give material support in disposing of the tickets. The club was also pleased to have Mrs. Dora Gulliford to discuss the electronic and radiation method of treatment of diseases. Mrs. Gulliford was introduced by Rev. Dyer. The club was highly pleased with her talk, which was followed with a vocal solo by Miss Violet Hooker. Miss Hooker had to respond with an encore. Visitors were Mesdames Gulliford and Holly and Messrs. R. Robinson and G. Mayfield; Misses Alfreda and Nellie Franklin. Next meeting will be with Miss Beatrice Tucker at the home of Mrs. W. P. Lomax, 1019 E. 27th St. N.

St. Philips Episcopal Mission will hold services at 11 A. M. Sunday, and also in the evening at 7:45. Blaine B. Cole, the lay-reader, will be the speaker.

LOCAL and FOREIGN

Subscription to The Advocate has grown so large we have been forced to increase our number of output in order to meet the growing demand for same.

Dr. J. Stanley Durkee (white), president of Howard University, Washington, D. C., is refusing to accept any of the Fisk University students that are leaving that institution because of President McKenzie's prejudiced rule.

President C. B. D. King of Liberia, Africa, was treated royally by the English governor of Sierra Leone, Africa, upon the occasion of his recent visit to that neighboring country. The Liberian legislature has endorsed President King's edict barring "Garveyites" from the country.

Mrs. Yates Howard, 357 13th St., who has been indisposed several days, is better as we go to press.

F. D. T. Honored. Fred D. Thomas was surprised on his 60th birthday anniversary Friday night the 27th when his wife, Mrs. Mollie Thomas, arranged a party in his honor at the family residence, 366 Shaver St. A large number of the popular couple's friends were in attendance and all reported a good time. Good things to eat were in abundance and fun, too.

Rev. J. W. Anderson, Supt. N. W. Coast Baptist Association, returned home Saturday from the East. He reports things are on the upward trend. Mr. Anderson left Tuesday for Seattle and Kenndale, Wn., wearing the smile of Christian joy.

Henri C. LeBel, the "greater-pianist-organist", is being featured in Pantages Songologues in Seattle this week.

Mrs. Iola Beatrice Vessel-Cooper of Bisbee, Ariz., daughter of I. B. Vessel, was shot four times by her husband on the 24th of last month, according to a telegram received by her father who will go to her bedside this week.

Walter L. Cohen, comptroller of customs at New Orleans, La., and E. P. Booze, of Mound Bayou, Miss., are the only Afro-Americans credited with having given $1000 each to the Republican national committee, last fall.

Dr. Bell in New Quarters

Dr. Hugh A. Bell, together with his mother, Mrs. Clara Bell, has moved to new and larger quarters at 673 Union avenue North. Dr. Bell has a finely equipped dental office and is in a better position to take care of his growing patronage.

The Get Acquainted Club presents Mrs. Mabel Cooper in recital and a farcical entertainment "WANTED—A COMPANION", Friday, March 27th, 8:15 P. M., at Mt. Olivet Baptist church, E. 1st and Schuyler Sts. Admission 25c.—Adv.

Mrs. Raglan was hostess to the Searchlight Club Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patton, 165 N. 12th street.

Churches Represented at Meet

At a big get-together meet and banquet of the Christian Endeavorers of the city Monday evening at the First Presbyterian church, both Bethel A. M. E. and Zion A. M. E. churches were ably represented by young men and women from their respective Christian Endeavor organizations.

Electricity Is Cheaper

A comparative study of the costs of operating electric trucks and gasoline trucks over a period of a month shows that the cost of power per mile in the case of three-quarter-ton vehicles was 1.73 cents for the electric and 2.29 cents for the gasoline; and in the case of two-ton vehicles, 3.27 cents for the electric and 9.91 cents for the gasoline.

Miss Otheida Nichols has accepted a position as shorthand instructor at the Arkansas Vocational College, Topeka, Kan. She will leave the latter part of the month for her new work.

ERNEST VON DOHNANYI TO PLAY HERE

Ernest von Dohnanyi, Pianist and Composer

Ernst von Dohnanyi, eminent composer-conductor-pianist, will be heard in recital for the first time in Portland at the Auditorium this evening. He is being presented by the Elwyn Concert Bureau as the eighth event on their series of concerts.

Dohnanyi is an artist of international repute. European and American critics are as one in comparing him to Brahms and also acclaiming him as the greatest living interpreter of Beethoven. As a composer he has given to the world more than two score operas and one of the most interesting of his appearances in New York City was when he conducted his own violin concerto in D minor with the New York Symphony, with Albert Spalding as the soloist.

An interesting program has been arranged for his Portland recital.

I. Fantasia and Fugue in G minor, Bach-Liszt; Sonata in C major, opus 2, No. 3, Beethoven.
II. Rurallia Hungarica, opus 32, Dohnanyi (first time); Allegretto, Presto, Andante poco moto, Vivace, Allegro grazioso, Adagio non troppo, Molto vivace.
III. Mazurka in A minor, Chopin; Impromptu in A flat major, Chopin; Nocturne in F major, Chopin; Valse Impromptu, Liszt; Rhapsodie hon groise No. 13, Liszt.

which he uses extensively, is of exquisite beauty. He can also effect a climax of thrilling power. Sometimes a suggestion of throatiness impedes a phrase, but not often. His interpretation of Schubert's "Du Bist die Ruh" was a triumph of delicate tone spinning, while Schumann's "I Wept While Dreaming" tingled with dramatic power. The air from "Manon" was a lovely vocal cameo. It was in the "Narrative" from "La Boheme", given as an encore, that, next to the spirituals, Mr. Hayes reached his greatest heights (in artistry as well as in pitch). The number was sung with splendid sensuousness of tone, beautifully phrased, nobly conceived.

A very large audience greeted the singer, applauded him to the echo and demanded innumerable encores, among which were Grieg's "A Dream" and Purcell's "Passing By".

Mr. Hayes appeared in a second concert Friday evening, February 20, at the Philharmonic.—Los Angeles Examiner.

Colored Student Heads College Paper

John Preston Davis, Dunbar Graduate, is Elected Editor in Chief of "The Bates Student".

Washington, D. C., March 2.—John Preston Davis, graduate of Dunbar High school and son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis, of this city, has been honored at Bates College, Lewiston, Me., by his selection as editor in chief of the college paper, The Bates Student. Mr. Davis has under him 25 assistants, all of whom are white.

Mr. Davis is a junior in the college department and is specializing in journalism. He is considered Bates' best debater, and recently represented his school in the international debate with Oxford. He has been selected to go to England on the return debate with Oxford. Last week he was selected as one of the three debaters to meet Colgate in March.

Mt. Olivet Baptist Church Makes Big Improvements

The church has just completed a big change in the interior of the main auditorium. The platform or stage has been enlarged to extend across the entire church with doors entering from both sides. The entire floor is covered with a new carpet, with panel work in the background, making a very rich and aristocratic appearance. The stage is as large as in any of the theatres in the city, making it possible to stage any concert or drama that requires large space.

California Party Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bradford of Los Angeles, California, whose wedding, February 14, was an elaborate event of the season, passed through Portland en route to Victoria, B. C. Mrs. Bradford, nee Cornelia Leggett, is one of the popular school teachers of that city. While in Portland they were domiciled with Mrs. L. Henderson and were the guests of Mrs. Ruth Flowers and Miss Margie Danley at the home of Mrs. J. V. Grayson at a small informal party.

H. Perry Resigns — Will Rebuild Sub-concern

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 25.—Heman E. Perry, president and founder of the Standard Life Insurance Company, recently taken over by a white insurance company, has resigned. He is said to be devoting his time to the rebuilding of a subsidiary service company.

Please pay your subscription to The Advocate and avoid missing an issue of the paper.
