"Don't ask for rights. Take them. An don't let any man give them to you. A right that is handed to you is a right that is given to the matter with it."—Mr. Dooley.

All true healing comes from God.—Abdu'l Baha.

THE PATHWAY OF PROGRESS

To those who can discern the meaning of things, it is clear that a new light is dawning in race relations. Men are coming to desire a larger knowledge of all other men. Wise men realize that each group has a contribution to make to the world's civilization, and the sooner all groups can be brought to efficiency, the sooner will the world be blessed with all these contributions. Neither individuals nor races work out their destinies alone, but in co-operation. "All the world needs the rest of the world." Working together for the good of all, each race may have its individual life and yet live in peace and harmony, and in helpfulness to the other races which live by its side. It behooves every true lover of his land to strive to know all its peoples and to help each and all in the struggle upward, envying no men his success, hating none, blessing and blessed by all.

The question of police stool-pigeons in Portland is creating quite a sensation, and is making a lot of trouble for Mayor Baker. However, the mayor is showing his gameness by standing by his guns.

THE FUTILITY OF FORCE

The belief in force is the one reckless folly of modern life. But it has no future, and there is no salvation. It moves ever more and more toward the edge of the precipice. There is in it no healing and no restoration. Only in the cross and what it stands for can that come.—Sidney M. Berry.

Marcus Garvey was ordered to pay his first wife $20 per week and $250 lawyer fees by a supreme court justice in New York last week. Garvey in his answer, said he was on the verge of bankruptcy. This statement is denied by wife No. 1, and from present indications, Mr. Garvey, regardless of his incarceration, will have to "dig up."

Grave-Diggers

A lodge which never has anything to do in a public way is on the road to a cemetery. The member who does nothing for his lodge is helping to dig its grave. The member who always criticizes and curses the heads of his lodge and at the same time preaches "harmony" is helping to furnish the coffin. The member who is so narrow and evil minded as to have no time from his job or business to give towards the advancement of his lodge is helping to make its shroud. The member who opposes every progressive movement in the interest of his lodge is driving the hearse. The member who is always starting something by "bawling out" his brother members is throwing bouquets on the grave. The member who is always crying about the lodge retrograding and the like is preaching its funeral and helping to sing the doxology. These are some of the things that have killed and are killing the majority of colored lodges in this country.

THE PASSING OF TILLMAN

When the soul of S. B. Tillman passed into the Great Unknown last Sunday there passed from this sphere a man endowed with a bountiful supply of common sense and the manhood to express his convictions, and the courage to back them up by action. He loved and honored his race, and lived and walked the life of a Christian. He was a good and useful citizen and one whose place would be hard to fill. May he rest in peace.

The Reflexus Magazine

A brand new magazine, its first issue reached our desk this week. It sets a new pace for other magazines as well as a high standard. From cover to cover, the stories and all other features illustrated are of black folk. A new innovation which is bound to win. "Of colored people, by colored people and for colored people" is its motto. It is published in Chicago, by the Popular Magazine Corporation, 3439 Indiana Ave., monthly and sells for 25c per copy or $2.50 per year and is worth every bit of it.

HOTEL NOTES

Hon. Harry L. Day, president of The Portland Hotel company, with Mrs. Day, is here from his home in California.

Supper dancing at The Portland will be discontinued on the 1st of April. However, the grille room will remain open as usual until 12 o'clock. Henry Gibson, pioneer waiter, will leave soon for Hayden Lake, Idaho, to work in a tavern.

J. Butler, a private waiter at The Portland a number of years ago, is reported dead.

The colored waiters in Boston's aristocratic hotel, The Vendome, asserted their rights and racial self respect this week in an admirable manner.

The hotel management started to give a reception in the hotel to the waiters. All went well until it was arranged to give separate receptions to the white help and to the colored help. This Jim Crow idea was rejected by the colored waiters as segregation. They were firm so the reception idea was abandoned by the hotel.

DOINGS OF THE ELKS

Joe Mundell, member of Rose City Lodge died very suddenly last Monday and was buried Tuesday under the auspices of the Elks from Miller & Tracey mortuary. Rev. J. W. Anderson, chaplain of the order, conducted the funeral services. Interment, Rose City cemetery.

Edgar Williams has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to operate an elevator at the police station.

William Webb is resting at the Good Samaritan hospital, his condition is reported as being improved.

D. H. Parker, who was stricken sometime ago with a paralytic stroke, writes from his home that he is now able to leave his bed.

J. Finley Wilson, G. E. R. of Elks, writes that he is coming to the coast on a visit to the several coast lodges sometime during the summer. It is hoped Portland will be included in his visit.

Among Daughter Elks sicklisted are Dts. Fanny Bond and Lottie Payne. Dr. Lula Hubbard, efficient secretary of Dahlia Temple, who has been ill is out again to the delight of her many friends.

OAKLAND NEWS

(By Arthur D. LeBon)
Mrs. Alvin Patterson, formerly of Portland, living at 825 82nd Ave., Oakland, was severely injured Thursday evening the 19th, while waiting for a street car. She was run down by an automobile and both legs fractured and other serious internal injuries. Later at the Emergency hospital, the doctors held out little hope for her recovery.

The beautiful home of Samuel L. Lewis on King street Alcatraz, Berkeley, was fired Tuesday night, the 17th, and red paint showered over the front of the newly painted (white) house. Window panes were broken and other efforts were made to destroy this residence. The fire department, however, arrived before greater damage was done and succeeded in extinguishing the fire. It is thought by some that the fire was of an incendiary origin as white neighbors had objected strenuously to Mr. Lewis moving into the block, although at the time, he had not moved into the house.

Mrs. Vivian Brock of 1521 Ashby Ave., left March 10th for Houston, Texas, where she will be under the care of a physician.

Law and Order and a Defense for the Race is the name of a book written by Rev. E. C. Branch, 232 W. 124th Street, New York City, in which the author describes the "Texas City Outrage" when in 1915 the whole colored population was jailed for five days and nights, without a charge or crime; two deaths followed, which doctors contributed to the outrage. The book sells for 20 cents.

Play Ball.—A few more weeks and the cry "PLAY BALL" will be heard at the Vaughn Street ball park, and the time cannot come any too soon for the many rabid fans in the Rose City. The team is now in training and from reports, the boys are showing up well. If the hope is right, Portland is going to have the best team in the Pacific Coast League. Jim Poole, the big first baseman, and Johnny Jones, the sensational short stop, are the only hold outs on the team, but these boys are expected to show up before the opening date. However, if they fail to do so, Thomas will play the first base and Rabbit Benton will play the short stop. Both of these boys are comers, and will undoubtedly fill their places to the satisfaction of all. President Turner of the Beavers, has promised Portland fans a winning team and he is trying his hardest to make good.
