He Is Risen

JESUS CHRIST'S RESURRECTION OUR HOPE—Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. BUT NOW IS CHRIST RISEN FROM THE DEAD and become the first fruits of them that slept.

"Rosaria"

Our race is noted for its music. Local singers among our group have a splendid opportunity for using their voices through helpful instruction and at the same time rendering a civic and patriotic service.

Prohibition is five years old and still a bottle baby.

Attention White Advertisers

We wonder how many of you have ever stopped to consider the amount of money colored people spend in your stores, and if you are giving their newspaper its proportion of your advertising?

line of business, and yet they are too "stingy" to patronize the colored newspaper, or they simply feel they have a cinch on the business of the race and do not have to consider their organ—the newspaper. Colored people are beginning more and more to realize the necessity of patronizing those who patronize them.

Let the colored people look out for the interest of their only organ in this city.—The Advocate, and The Advocate will always, as it has tried so hard to do in the past, look out for their interest. Patronize the firms that appreciate your trade and are not afraid to be seen in your newspaper. Trade wherever you please, BUT BE SURE TO PATRONIZE THOSE WHO ADVERTISE IN YOUR PAPER.—THE ADVOCATE.

What a pity the pay of federal senators and representatives cannot be graded according to worth, like other government employes.

"Time" Magazine Is Sorry

"I agree with you, we were thoughtless and unfair. It was flippancy, not prejudice, that caused the article to which you object. I am sorry. Through you, I apologize to any of the 11,000,000 whom we may have hurt."

"What amends can we make? It seems to me that the best possible amends is for us to resolve in the future to be as fair as we were up to the time of this unfortunate article."

Such were the words of apology made through the N. A. A. C. P. by the editor of the "Time" magazine to the colored people of the country for the use of "blackamoors" and other objectionable terms and phrases in an article in that publication. What a manly stand! It is a fine example that many editors might follow for their employment of the term "negress" and the like in their publications.

ZION CHURCH CHOIR

If you would enjoy a splendid musical program, the Zion A. M. E. church next Sunday evening, is the place to go. The choir, which is recognized as one of the best in the city will conduct the program. Your presence is and co-operation will be highly appreciated by the pastor and members.

Philadelphia and the Race

Philadelphia will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence by an Exposition to be held in Fairmont Park in 1926, under the auspices of the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition Association.

This is of interest to our people as Mayor Kendrick of Philadelphia, has extended an invitation to Pres. King of Liberia, to attend the celebration. Pennsylvania has much to present in the way of importance of her Negro population. Philadelphia has about 200,000 within her limits, and many participate in the governmental affairs.

Please pay your subscription to The Advocate and avoid missing an issue of the paper.

Judge Tiernan

(By M. R. T.)

The material of which police judges in Staten Island, N. Y., are made does not seem to be very high grade if the remarks attributed to Judge J. Harry Tiernan are correctly quoted. He is said to have reminded a Negro whom he was sentencing to jail for robbery that he would probably have been burned at the stake had the crime been committed in a southern state. That such a remark should arouse extreme indignation in the North is accepted as a matter of course, but what about the insult to the South?

The matter has been presented to the Bar Association of New York by Wm. L. Patterson of Dyett, Hall & Patterson, attorneys, and the N. A. A. C. P. under the leadership of James Weldon Johnson its secretary, is in communication with members of the legislature at Albany. The learned Police Judge will probably wish that his attitude had been more dignified before he hears the last of his ill advised utterance.

RT. REV. ALEXANDER CHRISTIE

When the kindly soul of Archbishop Alexander Christie, veteran leader of the Catholic church in Oregon passed on last Saturday, there passed a great and good man, and if there is a foundation for the Christian faith, when the soul of the Archbishop awoke in spirit land, the lights were all turned low, noiseless feet were moving near and all the divine instruments were playing a soft refrain of welcome. Through a long life, the Bishop went about doing good every day. The peace of eternity has wrapped him around like a robe.

DOINGS OF THE ELKS

"The faults of my brothers I will write upon the sand. Their virtues upon a tablet of love and memory."

The above sentiment will be expressed next Sunday (tomorrow) with speeches, songs and solemn ceremonies, to commemorate the brothers and sisters of the order who have passed on, by every lodge of Elks in existence.

Rose City Lodge and Dahlia Temple will gather at their hall at 1 o'clock and at 2 o'clock the orders will march in a body, led by the Brown Strutter's band, to Bethel A. H. E. church.

J. Finley Wilson, G. E. R. of Elks, recently appointed the following committee to go to Richmond, May 24, 1925, to see that the proper arrangements are being made for the meeting of the grand lodge in August:

Charles J. Pickett, Fairmount Hight, Md.; C. Tiffany Oliver, Roanoke, Va.; Wm. H. Smith, Baltimore, Md., and Henry Lincoln Johnson, Atlanta, Ga.

Columbia lodge of Washington, D. C., has recently paid $50,000 for a home site to occupy a half block. The lodge plans to build in the near future, where the program will be rendered.

A special feature of the trip to the church will be the participation of the Dahlia Temple Drill Corps. All visiting Elks and Daughters in good standing are invited to take part in the service and the public is extended an invitation to attend.
