ANARCHY IN ACTION

What a Confederate Veteran Said of Mob Violence

Every mob is a stab at the sovereignty of the people, and a malign denial to them by force of arms of the right to the freedom of orderly government.

Aside from this attack on government, the evils of the mob have almost boundless sweep in all the relations of life.

Property Restrictions

The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia has upheld a decision of the Supreme Court, affirming the right of white property owners to restrict the sale or rental of property to white persons only.

The hypothetical question arises as to what the general situation would be were white property owners the city over, or the country over, for that matter, to enter into similar agreements of restriction as to the descendants of a slave people who have, in the larger sense, had to purchase or rent from white owners or landlords all the property rights they have ever acquired in this country.

Courts of law, however, decide; they do not instruct any one other than their juries. Hence, the grave question arises as to whether or not the issues which, in restricted property cases, have been carried to appeal courts have been correct and proper ones.

In a small town the stray dogs get you and in a large town the stray bullets get you.

WORKING BOTH WAYS.

"Are you in favor of a further tax reduction?" "Certainly," answered Senator Gold dust.

Court Upholds Will of Man Giving $200,000 Estate to His Employees

(Preston News Service) Lexington, Ky., June 3.—A verdict upholding a bequest of the bulk of his estate to his Negro servants was returned here when a jury unanimously agreed last Wednesday that John T. Hughes, wealthy Kentuckian, made his final will on March 28, 1924.

An appeal probably will be filed, attorneys for the estate said. A home in the Blue Grass farming section, described as a beautiful colonial residence, of 12 rooms, filled with costly antique furniture, china and silver, now goes to the housekeeper and to Robert H. Hughes, natural son of Hughes and Ellen Davis.

New York Library to Begin Department for Negro Art and Letters

(N. A. A. C. P. Press Service) March 20, 1925.—The Harlem Branch in 135th Street of the N. Y. Public Library, under the direction of Miss Ernestine Rose, Librarian, is developing a special Negro collection of history, literature and arts.

The library already owns a file of the first issue of the Crisis, sketches of Africans by Dr. Ruckteschell, and an enlargement of Mrs. Meta Warwick Fuller's statues "Ethiopia."

The department is to be opened April 1, with an exhibition of the work of the colored painter, Mr. Brexton. A group of persons is promoting the new department, the President of the organization being Arthur Schomburg of Brooklyn, owner of a notable collection of Negro literature; Miss Rose, first vice-president; James Weldon Johnson, secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., second vice-president; Hubert Harrison, secretary; and John E. Nail, treasurer.

Childless Marriages Explained

Every married woman should write for Free Book written by Dr. Burroughs, a graduate physician. Dr. Burroughs has spent 40 years treating women for diseases peculiar to their sex and in his book tells why so many married women have been denied the blessing of children—why they are broken down physically in early life.

This book is written in plain language and tells how pain and suffering, so common with women, may be overcome, and the blessing of becoming a mother be granted by the use of a simple home treatment. Dr. Burroughs wants every married woman to have a copy of his book, so if you will send your name and address it will be mailed to you in a plain wrapper absolutely free, with postage paid.

Every woman owes it to herself and family to have good health, and this book may be the guide to show you how.

Write today for your copy—it's free and places you under no obligations. R. C. BOYER, 944 Kemper Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.
